Vote of No Confidence - Section V is the new complaint section. This section would be VI. The committee went over the changes that were made at the last meeting and made additional changes.

A. Votes of no confidence are typically used by assemblies to express a lack of support for an administrator. At Central Washington University, in order for such a vote to be conducted, the Faculty Senate must pass a motion to charge the Executive committee with the task of conducting the vote. Once this motion is passed, the Executive Committee will be charged to conduct the vote of the faculty according to the language stipulated in the motion.

C. Scope

Faculty vote of no confidence should be reserved for faculty & administrators in supervisory positions at the college or university level.

Lila asked Janet to send out the updated version of this section to the committee.

Next to work on is charge 15-16.04. Janet will send out a copy to the committee for the next meeting.

Meeting adjourned at 5:22 p.m.
