

8-29-2014

Central Washington University Athletic Hall of Fame Constitution

Central Washington University Athletic Hall of Fame Council

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.cwu.edu/cwu_hall_of_fame

Recommended Citation

Central Washington University Athletic Hall of Fame Council, "Central Washington University Athletic Hall of Fame Constitution" (2014). CWU Athletic Hall of Fame. Book 20.
http://digitalcommons.cwu.edu/cwu_hall_of_fame/20

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Sports Statistics and Histories at ScholarWorks@CWU. It has been accepted for inclusion in CWU Athletic Hall of Fame by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks@CWU.

CENTRAL WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY HALL-OF-FAME

Articles

I. Purpose

The intent and purpose of the Central Washington University Athletic Hall-of-Fame is to honor and promote the memory of athletes, teams, coaches and members of the athletic staff who have made outstanding and positive contributions to the promotion of the Central Washington University athletic program.

II. Athletic Hall-of-Fame Council

The 12-person selection committee shall be composed of the following individuals with the purpose of implementing and coordinating the Athletic Hall-of-Fame,

1. Sports Information Director (Chairman)
2. President of the University or his/her designee
3. Assistant Athletic Director
4. Alumni Director
5. Chairman of Veterans Committee
6. Director of Broadcasting
7. Six at-large members appointed by the sports information director

As of July 1, 2000 the current members of the committee are Bob Guptill (sports information director), Dr. James Pappas (president designee), Lyndon Wieseman (assistant athletic director), Dan Jack (alumni director), Shirley Kern (veterans committee), Robert Lowery (director of broadcasting), and Duncan Bonjorni, Daryl Basler, Del Evans, Gail Jones, Gary Smith and Roy Elia.

Appointments are for an indeterminate number of years.

Beginning in 2000, the committee will meet at 10 a.m. each year on the morning of the CWU Booster Club golf tournament. If the tournament is not held by Aug. 1, a meeting time will be determined by the council chairman.

III. Qualifications

Nominations for Central Washington University's Hall-of-Fame may be made in four categories: a. athlete; b. coach; c. athletic staff; d. team. Nominations may be based either on athletic achievements at CWU or on athletic achievements after graduation, including professional and coaching careers.

ATHLETES: Athlete must have completed their intercollegiate eligibility at least 10 years prior to selection. Athlete must also complete at least two seasons at CWU (unless the second year is interrupted by injuries, family emergency or military service) and earn a degree. These requirements, however, may be waived by unanimous consent of the committee.

COACHES: Coaches, who are not graduates of CWU, must have coached at least five years at CWU to be eligible. Coaches, who graduated from CWU, are eligible.

ATHLETIC STAFF: Staff members, who are not graduates of CWU, must have at least 15 years service to CWU. Graduates are given automatic eligibility.

IV. Selection

Nominations in any category for the Central Washington University Athletic Hall-of-Fame may be made by any interested person and should be submitted in writing to: Sports Information Director, Central Washington University, Ellensburg WA 98926-7570.

Nominations are due by April 30 of each year. The nomination letter should include information on the accomplishments of the nominee prior, during and after their association with Central Washington University.

The number of electees each year is at the discretion of the committee, but it is recommended that no more than five be chosen yearly.

A two-thirds vote of the selection committee is required for election to the Hall-of-Fame.

The veterans committee is allowed to select one candidate each year for automatic induction into the Hall-of-Fame. The veterans committee considers only athletes in the era prior to 1960. The committee may nominate more than one athlete or team yearly, but is allowed only one automatic selection. Additional nominees may be considered by the entire committee.

V. Recognition

The sports information director will coordinate all publicity for the Hall-of-Fame induction ceremonies. Awards for presentation will include a plaque to be displayed at the university. The recipient should receive a duplicate plaque.