THE QUARTERLY

OF THE

Washington State Normal School

ELLENSBURG

SEVENTH SUMMER SESSION
AT ELLENSBURG

AND THE

THIRD SUMMER SESSION
AT CENTRALIA
SUMMER SESSIONS

Two summer sessions will be held again this year. One will be held in

ELLENSBURG,
beginning June 9 and ending July 31.

The other session will be held at

CENTRALIA,
beginning June 17 and continuing six weeks.

The chief purpose of these summer schools is to afford teachers and other students opportunities of vacation study in Normal School lines, and they are to be conducted with the view of the largest practical benefit to all who attend their classes and also with the view of making these weeks enjoyable and inspiring to all. A summer school must be recreative and invigorating as well as educative.

FOR WHOM INTENDED.

Both schools are to be conducted with the view to serving:
1. Grade and rural teachers who desire further preparation and inspiration.
2. Those who wish to prepare for the teachers' examinations.
3. Students and teachers who wish to work toward a Normal School certificate or diploma.
4. Teachers who wish practical training in special lines, as primary methods, music, stories, art, hand work, plays and games, etc.

PROVISION FOR THE SUMMER SESSION.

The entire force and equipment of the Institution will be in service for the summer session. A strong corps, including heads of departments and other instructors specially qualified in their several lines of teaching, will be in charge of the work of each summer school.

The library, the laboratories, the art and music studios, the gymnasium, the manual training and the domestic science equipments will all be in use.
Preparation for Teachers' Examinations—Special provision will be made for those who wish to qualify themselves for the teachers' examinations. Classes in all of the subjects required for first and second grade certificates will be provided.

Renewal of Certificates—The law provides for the renewal of second grade certificates by attendance at an accredited summer school, provided the holder does creditable work in three subjects. Classes suited to this purpose may be selected from the program with the view of extending and broadening the teacher's attainments in such lines as may be desired.

The summer school at Centralia, as well as the one at Ellensburg, is an accredited summer school.

Special Method Courses—Special courses will be given for both rural and grade teachers in primary, in intermediate and in advanced work. Special primary courses will cover reading and writing, nature study, hand work, music, stories, plays and games and physical training. This primary method work will be demonstrated with classes of children.

Vocational Courses—Courses will be given in manual training, in home economics, and in agriculture.

Credits in Course—It will be seen by examining the courses outlined herein that one may in the summer session make progress toward completing a normal training course. At Centralia a student may select work which will count eight credits on a regular course. At Ellensburg, the term being eight weeks in length, a student by using four Saturdays may accomplish work to the extent of ten credits, a full quarter.

The Main Purpose of the summer session, as of all sessions of the Normal School, is to promote among teachers the student habit and spirit. It attempts to provide at moderate cost excellent opportunities for study with competent instruction and guidance, and offers a range of subjects for free selection which is sufficiently varied to appeal to the interest of all.

THE DAILY PROGRAM.

The schedule of classes will provide each day sufficient time for instruction, for private study and for recreation.

Daily class work, beginning probably at 8:00 a.m. will occupy the forenoons except a period to be used for physical exercise and recreation. The afternoon may be devoted chiefly to recreation or else to library or laboratory work. Those who attend the summer school for the special purpose of preparing for the teachers' examinations and who wish to take more than four daily subjects at a time will be accommodated with additional periods outside of the general recitation program.

LECTURES AND ADDRESSES.

The regular faculty of the Normal School will be supplemented by other men and women of recognized ability to instruct and inspire teachers, some of them educators of national reputation.

Dr. Nathan C. Schaeffer, State School Superintendent of Pennsylvania, will spend two or three days at each school and make three or four addresses. Dr. Schaeffer for a number of years has been among the ablest and most influential leaders of public school progress in the nation. As a speaker he is plain, practical and sympathetic, and deals with matters of moment and of present interest.

J. Adams Puffer, author of "The Boy and His Gang" and lecturer on boy problems, will spend the first week in July in our schools, making two or three addresses at Ellensburg and the same at Centralia. He will discuss in the most interesting way such topics as Camping for Boys, The Gang and the Group Games, The Gang Leader, Truancy, Stealing, Fighting, Vocational Guidance of Boys, etc.

Superintendents' and Principals' Conference—A conference for the study and discussion of two or three practical school problems will be held at Ellensburg on June 23 and 24 and at Centralia June 25 and 27, to which superintendents and principals of schools are hereby invited. The Superintendent of Public Instruction and others prominent in educational work in the state will be present and participate.

One of the features of the Centralia Summer School in the past has been the excellent opportunity offered for reviewing the subjects required for any grade of teachers' certificate by examination. This feature will be continued and strengthened and in addition to these review courses there will be offered courses in physical and biological sciences, in art, music, child study, psychology, primary methods, plays and games, hand work, manual training, and domestic science, and art. Each of these departments will be in charge of an experienced teacher.

The faculty has been increased this year in order to meet the growing requirements of the school. Additional facilities also are provided and it is hoped that an increasing number of students will attend for the purpose of doing advanced work in literature, history, science and art, education and practical subjects, and that this school will become a summer resort for many in Southwestern Washington, who care for culture and practical training as well as vacation recreation.

ENGLISH.

Grammar and Composition. The course should serve to secure a degree of ability to use good English in speech and in writing as well as to prepare for the teachers' examination. Of course it should embrace punctuation, spelling, and handwriting. Mr. Bay.
