Complete Directions for Students Entering School this Fall Term

Complete registration directions have been given out by the registrar's office in order that new students may complete their registration in the shortest possible time. Students are urged to read the following carefully and to comply with all requests. Failure to follow each direction means delay for the student. Fees must be paid before October 4, or registration will be cancelled and admittance to classes refused. Students go first to Kamola hall, then the men to the science building and the women to the library. Blanks are filled out in the library and fees paid at the business office in the administration building, first floor. Complete registration directions follow:

ACADEMIC MAJORS TO INTEREST MEN

Special interest is being shown this year in academic majors for men, according to word from the registrar's office. Five distant majors are suggested in as many different fields of work.

These include art-fine and applied, with electives chosen toward preparation for teaching the industrial arts; health education, with electives preparing one for coaching. Those interested in this are advised to choose subjects in other departments as well, such as science or literature.

A fruitful field for personal development and effective teaching is the language and literature major. Mathematics and science will interest many men. It leads toward engineering and unlocks the doors to the understanding of the world in which one lives. Good teachers of social studies are in constant demand in junior high schools. Students intellectually interested in man and social problems should choose social science and social studies for their academic major.

More than fourteen courses of college work are on the schedule this quarter. All of the following will be accepted for credits by other higher institutions.

M. S. 23 (college math.) at 8:00;
M. S. 1 (biology) at 8:00; M. S. 4 (physiology) at 9:00; M. S. 12-112 (chemistry) at 10:00; M. S. 5 (biology of invert.) at 1:00; History 3 and 101 at 11:00; History 2 at 2:00; French 1 at 8:00; English 3 at 10:00; social science 4 (sociology) at 10:00; social science 3 (economics) at 11:00; English 7 at 11:00; social science 102 (world res.) at 1:00; social science 1a (con. civ.) at 9:00 and 2:00.

Men students who have any musical ability, are urged to develop it by learning to play some musical instrument. The orchestra, men's chorus or school chorus offer a field for those who are interested. Musical ability is a distinct asset to a teacher. Those who wish to major in this field should see Miss Ethel Miller, student director for music majors.

Art Head Returns
Miss Dawn Kennedy, head of the art department of the Normal school, has returned from New York where she spent the summer studying at Columbia university. Mrs. C. S. Kennedy went to Seattle to meet her daughter.

PRESIDENT BLACK OUTLINES POLICY TO NEW STUDENTS

General Registration Plans Given for Incoming Freshmen

To aid students during the first rush of registration, a bulletin of special information has been issued by the president's office, outlining the general policies and suggestions for both old and entering students.

General Policy Outlined
This institution provides (1) facilities for educational preparation and (2) opportunities for professional preparation. The first problem therefore is to make these instrumentalities available to all students with as little interruption as possible. In keeping with this purpose all of the administrative officers of the institution and also all of the members of the faculty are desirous of helping students to meet the problems which confront them throughout the year and are especially anxious to assist the students during the first few days during and following registration. Students therefore are invited to make known to members of the staff any special problem that may arise during the early part of the quarter.

For all problems dealing with personal welfare and service, young men should go direct to Dean B. A. Leonard, whose office is in the science building, and all women students should go direct to Dean Irene H. Compton, whose office is on the second floor of the library building. For guidance or advice with regard to registration, all students should go direct to H. J. Whitney, registrar, whose office is in the library building.

Special for New Students
Many students may not at first have fully made up their minds in regard to their choice of a major academic field. There are seven major fields in addition to the institutional major of education and psychology so that students may choose one of the following: (1) Social science and social studies, including (a) science and mathematics (b) literature and languages (c) art, including fine arts, industrial and manual training; (d) health education and physical education for both men and women; (e) home economics; (f) music, including general instruction in voice, piano, and orchestral instruments.

All who desire special information about the major field social science history should consult Mr. DeWees or Mr. Fish. Those electing science and mathematics as a major should consult Mr. Leonard or Mr. Quigley. Those who elect English, including literature and language arts, should consult Miss Jean McMorran. Those especially interested in any of the arts, including industrial arts and manual training, should consult Miss Dawn Kennedy. Those interested in physical education for men should consult Roy H. Sandberg; health education and physical training for women, Miss Madeline Larson; home economics, Miss Francis B. Skinner; music, Miss Ethel Miller.

Students should note that the music department is in the music building at the corner of Seventh and Ruby streets, off the central campus.

Information concerning the different courses of study will be found on the information table in the library building.

HARRY WEIMER IS NEW ACCOUNTANT

Steps Into Place Left Vacant by Resignation of Lindberg

Harry Weimer

Mr. Lindberg resigned to take over a printing shop in Bremerton. He had been with the Normal school for more than nine years.

Wildcats Open Local Football Season When They Battle Loggers

The opening gun of the football season will be fired this afternoon promptly at 2 o'clock on the Rodeo field when the Ellensburg Normal school Wildcats go into action against the Loggers of the College of Puget Sound in the first of this season's home games. In answering Referee Abe Chen's opening whistle, they will tackle one of their hardest opponents, for C. P. S. is always a tough nut for any of the smaller colleges of the Northwest to crack.

Coach Sandberg isn't overly optimistic but fans believe that if the Wildcats come through with anything like the game they're capable of, they'll win.

Idaho to Receive Championship Cup

Idaho will soon be keepers of the Schwabecker cup, awarded each year to the championship football team of the Pacific Coast conference. Idaho ended the 1927 season in technical triple tie for first place with Stanford and Southern California. Idaho played neither of these teams but was undefeated in four conference starts, two of the games ending in ties.

The trophy was in possession of Stanford first, who displayed it for four months before passing it on to U. S. C. The Trojans are now turning the championship cup over to the University of Idaho with who it will remain until it is reawarded to the 1928 title squad.

STUDENT BUILDING PROGRESSES RAPIDLY

First Unit Ready for Use at Opening of School This Fall

Work on the new student association building has progressed rapidly this summer. The exterior has been finished during August. The finishing touches are now being placed in the interior, according to Frederick W. Straw, director of maintenance and operation.

The first unit will house the basketball pavilion, with a maple floor having an area of 5,600 square feet. This will provide a basketball court of almost the maximum dimensions for contest games or two courts for practice games, and seating space for about a thousand spectators. Locker and shower rooms will be provided in this unit. Coach Sandberg will also have his offices in this building.

Portable basketball goals will be used in order to release the floor for all-school social events where a large floor area is needed to accommodate the rapidly growing student body. The other units of the building to follow in a year or two will provide ample space for all intra-mural sports such as handball, indoor baseball and volleyball.

Social and recreational rooms, and Student association offices will be located in the central unit. The general architectural plan will conform to that of the library.

The building is being financed by the Associated Student Body.

STUDENTS REQUESTED TO OBTAIN P. O. BOX

All students are requested to obtain post office boxes from Miss Hazel Thurlow in the library building, registration day. This applies to students living outside of the dormitories as well as those living on the campus. The post office is located on the second floor of the Administration building. Since many of the class rooms are located on this floor, the cooperation of the students is asked in keeping this floor as quiet as possible when going to and from the P. O.

Miss Laura Hall will be in charge and mail will be distributed between 9 and 10 a. m., and 4 to 4:40 p. m., each day. A package list will be posted on the P. O. bulletin board daily and packages will be given out from 12 to 12:15.

No Ranger Tests Given This Fall

"No examination for forest rangers this fall," is the announcement of the district forester's office, Portland, Ore. The reason given by the forest service for not holding a civil service test for forest rangers is the fact that there are still 53 names on the ranger eligible list for the states of Oregon and Washington from October, 1927, examination.

Ranger examinations will, however, be held in the eastern and some of the western states but not in Oregon or Washington, the district forester states.

Ellensburg has the advantage of one hard game already under its belt, with the consequent knowledge of its own strong and weak points, and the coaches have had a week to devote to the correction of the flaws which the Gonzaga game uncovered. The team which takes the field against C. P. S. will be much improved and polished over that which went to defeat before the Bulldogs.

Illness hit the squad this week, sending Frodie, regular end, and Warwick, substitute fullback, out of action. They are expected to be back in shape by Saturday, when Frodie is slated to start on the right extremity. Warwick, too, will probably see action if he is able to be in uniform.

Both Pessimistic

Rivalling Sandy in pessimistic anticipations of defeat, Coach Hubbard of C. P. S. is likewise preparing for what he believes will be one of his hardest tussles. He is bringing 25 men, including three sets of wingmen, two complete backfields and 11 others for the tackle to tackle berths. According to word from Tacoma, Hubbard will concentrate on defense and will play a waiting game, trusting to hold the Wildcats in check while watching for the breaks.

If he follows this style, he will depend upon two exceptional punters, Dave Ferguson and Purvis, to keep Ellensburg out of the danger zone and create opportunities for breaks. The former is an end who is said to average better than 50 yards with his kicks. Purvis is a halfback, only a little behind Ferguson in ability to spiral the pigskin. Hubbard's aerial attack is the only part of the offense being especially stressed, reports say.

In direct contrast, Coach Sandberg, perhaps believing in a good offense as the best defense, will be sending his men out after 'em all the way. Here at least the Wildcats ought to be able to cut the mustard, for there is a world of strength in his backfield. In addition to the four who will start, Sandy has at least eight backs of proven ability who can step into the breach and click off the yardage.

Lineup

Starting for the Wildcats are Sterling and Frodie, ends; Guggenblicker and Ruble, tackles; Jacky and Lindquist, guards; Gagnon, center; Burdette Sterling, quarterback; Connors and Robinson, halfbacks; and Timmons, fullback. Ruble, a crack guard, was shifted to tackle to bolster a known weakness there, ousting Irby. Jacky got his job at guard. Two new men start in the backfield. They are Connors, who goes in place of "Babe" Peterson, and Timmons, who got the call over Joyce De Weese.

Many other men will be given a chance to show their wares more than likely. Irby, Johns and Van Gesen will go in at the tackles in case of trouble, while Hickox, a Wenatchee lad, has worked himself into a position where he will probably get the first call for a substitute guard. Panzica, St. Claire, and Edwards are in reserve for the wings. The latter is a back, converted to strengthen the end reserves, and has made a fine showing this week.

Backfield substitutes are numerous and good. Rich and "Babe" Peterson are almost certain to see action and any of a number of others are likely to get in. Jensen, Eddy, De Weese, Warwick, Bruzas, McKay and Sullivan lead the host of prospects.

Abe Cohen of Seattle will referee the contest, with Benton Bangs of Wenatchee or Joe Koenig as umpire. Rufus Schnebly will be head linesman.

Dorm Manager Resigns Position

Miss Lois J. Pendleton, formerly dormitory manager, resigned this fall. She will be married soon to Edward F. Clocock of Seattle. Miss Pendleton is a graduate of the University of Washington and a member of Delta, Delta Delta, national social sorority. Mr. Clocock is in business in Seattle.

Miss Ruth A. Potter of Seattle, will succeed Miss Pendleton as dormitory manager. She is also a graduate of the University of Washington.

STUDENT HELP WANTED

Women students who wish employment in private homes please see Howard R. Porter, executive secretary, office first floor library building, before registering, if possible.

Students wishing part time employment should wait until after registration before seeing Mr. Porter.

New Group Makes Its Appearance on Campus; to Uphold School Traditions

A new organization, "The Knights of the Claw," makes its initial appearance on the campus this fall. The purpose of the group is to create and uphold the traditions of the school and to serve the Normal in every way possible.

The members of this group will handle all athletic contests and direct and assist in the various affairs of the school. Membership is limited to 25, members being voted into the organization. Students must have a C grade average to be eligible. The present roster of the club includes the following ten boys: Roy Bryson, Chester Schlien, Lowell Hawley, Vincent Bruzas, Joe Miller, Kenneth Miller, Ivan McCollom, Bill Miller, Roy Stratton and Pete Wick. The remaining 15 will be elected during the fall quarter.

Officers include Pete Wick, president; Ken Miller, vice president; Vincent Bruzas, treasurer, and Ivan McCollom, secretary.

CAMPUS CRIER

Published Weekly by the Associated Student Body of Washington State Normal School

Entered as second class matter at the post office at Ellensburg, Wash. Alumni, Three Quarters, $1.00

CAMPUS CRIER INCREASES SIZE

The Campus Crier has been increased exactly fifty per cent in size this fall making a total reading space equal to the entire paper, including ads, last year. The number of inches of advertising matter will remain about the same as previously, but the reading matter doubled.

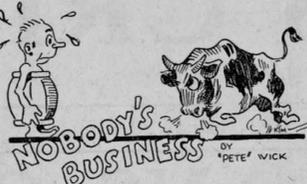

In order to make the paper a success, a live wire staff is necessary. Those who have had experience in newspaper work, or who are interested, whether experienced or not, are asked to leave their names at the business office in the administration building. Contrary to general opinion, experience is not necessary to make a successful reporter for a school paper. The rudiments of news-writing can be learned in a comparatively short time by one who is willing to work. This paper wants on its staff only those who can qualify in that respect. Enthusiastic performance which lasts through the publication of one, two or perhaps three issues, is not the kind of enthusiasm desired on the Campus Crier this year, no matter how brilliant the writer may be in his or her line. It is the steady, though slow, plodding worker who can be depended upon to put as much interest into the twentieth issue as the first, who wins out in the long run, not only in Campus affairs, but in life.

The Campus Crier has been published this week without the aid of a staff. Special credit should be given to Pete Wick who has very kindly written a number of articles, sport and feature, which are signed, also some of the personals. Virgil Cunningham of the Record is responsible for the sport articles on the Gonzaga and C. P. S. games. The next issue will appear on October 5, and every Friday morning thereafter, published by the best staff ever managing the Campus Crier. Now is your chance. Apply today—try out, make good and stay on!

PATRONIZE YOUR ADVERTISERS

The business men of Ellensburg are the men who make the Campus Crier possible. Patronize them and TELL THEM THAT YOU SAW THE AD IN THE CAMPUS CRIER. That means more ads for us and a better paper for you. The paper can remain its present size only if it is a financial success this fall quarter. You are the means of making it a success. DO YOUR STUFF AND WE WILL DO OURS.

Hello Frosh! Jack Arnold, one of the lowly Frosh thought the library was the new gym. He said he saw so many dumb belles there.

But that's nothing—One little Frosh girl is so shy that she refuses to enter the Ad building because Dan Jacky told her there are so many stares there.

Speaking of being shy—Most of us aren't as shy going into the Ad building as we are when we come out.

Especially after a visit to the business office at the first of the month. We're wondering what Harry Weimer will do about Herb Short.

He'll be a little Short every time the first of the month comes.

"Babe" Peterson was so dumb when he came to this institution that he thought the library was made to study in.

The Ad building has the distinction of being the oldest educational building in the state in active use.

Some of the phonograph records at Kamola have the same distinction.

Ozzie Edwards, the pride of Sue Lombard last year, wants it to be known that there is absolutely no truth to the rumor that he intends to study this year.

When the registrar asked Clara Warner if she would like to take Art she replied that she never went out with strange gentlemen. Doesn't it seem good to know that the old-fashioned girl still exists.

Ever since Walt Dungan got painter's colic, he's had nothing to do with women.

"Swede" Jensen, Sweden's gift to romance, has retired from active participation in the parlor athletics.

One of the most popular champions in the history of parlor athletics at Kamola, "Swede" recently refused an offer of $198 from an eastern concern to endorse a brand of their arch supports.

Upholding his principle of clean collars and freight cars, he is herewith quoted in his own words: "Knowing how I am idolized by the young ladies and women of this institution, I could not accept. I would have shattered their ideal of what a train-announcer or herring choker should be. They would have immediately instituted the vogue of wearing arch supporters. Their understanding would have thus been jeopardized. I simply would not abandon my principles even though I had sought the seclusion of retirement. I felt that these young ladies and women were supported enough by their parents, so why institute arch supports?"

He has suggested that an elimination tournament be held to choose the successor of his crown. The chief claimants to his title are Wes Ruble, "Sleepy" Akam, Bob Espey and Dick Timmons.

"Swede" Jensen will leave on a walking tour of Thorp on the 32nd of September, accompanied by the big pill and cough drop from Marysville, "Tex" Robinson.

Katherine Ports says she can easily understand why they made Joseph Burks line coach—he's got such a wonderful line.

And now Mr. Burks would like to know if Miss Ports is related to the famous Ports over on Puget Sound. Or maybe the equally famous Ports to be found in Vancouver, B. C.

When Leas Bowman saw several of the football men come limping across the campus, she exclaimed: "Oh look at all the boys practicing the "Gigolo!"

Here's the one that wins the cast-iron parachute. Dorothy Moe thought C. P. S. was a railroad. She had probably heard that they were in training.

If we had some deaf people in this school, it could be called a deaf and dumb school.

Eleanor Wicks missed seeing the bull being thrown at the Rodeo this fall so she is coming to this school instead.

"Zeke" Panzica thinks a cross Atlantic flier is one who is mad.

My greetings are extended to Gunar Tranum, Nell Stewart, Dorothy O'Connor, Haney LeBlanc, Thelma Evans, Ed Morgan, A. J. Penney, Mike Gifford, Dorothy Moe, Otis Cleary, Louise Carlson, Bernice Best and all the rest.

Everybody turn out and root for Sandy's wild, wild, wildcats today when they tangle with the bonecrushers from the College of Puget Sound. Everybody out. Let's go!!!

I thank you.

NORMAL TEAM IS LOSER IN GAME WITH GONZAGA

Early Game in Season Finds Team Unable to Combat Veterans

Bowing to the superior experience of a veteran university eleven, the Ellensburg Normal school football team suffered a 21-0 defeat at the hands of Gonzaga in the first game of the season in the Gonzaga stadium at Spokane Saturday. Under a withering sun, the Wildcats went up against practically the same aggregation that defeated the strong Idaho team at the end of last season, and except for momentary lapses in the first and third quarters, fought them on almost equal terms.

Thirty-one to nothing doesn't tell the true story of the battle it was, nor of the courageous fight the team, which included seven green men in its starting lineup, made against the shifting offense the Gonzagans uncorked. The Wildcats are not likely to meet such a tricky attack again this season, and judging by the showing they made Saturday, could stop a set offense dead in its tracks.

Thirteen points were chalked up in the Gonzaga column Saturday afternoon before Ellensburg called a signal. Following one thrust at tackle after the first kickoff, Gonzaga punted to "Babe" Peterson, deep in his own territory. Both the Bulldog guards were down under Hunting's beautiful 50-yard kick and one of them, Walterskirchen, dropped the Ellensburg safety in his tracks with a terrific tackle. He fumbled, Gonzaga recovered inside the 10-yard line and punched it over for the first score, less than four minutes after the opening gun.

Ellensburg again elected to kick. Ralls received the ball near his 10-yard line and ran 90 yards behind perfect interference for the second touchdown, and Ellensburg faced a 13 point handicap before she had made a single offensive threat. From then on Ellensburg tightened, and with the exception of a score from another fumbled punt in the third period, Gonzaga earned her points.

Ingram Scores
Both the other touchdowns were scored by Mel Ingram, the bright star of the Gonzaga backfield. His shifty work in the open field was responsible for both of them, one on a 16 yard jaunt around right end, and the other on a 25 yard run through a broken field after a pass from Hunting in the final period. Half a dozen Wildcats were within reaching distance of him on the last attempt, but he reversed his field prettily and eluded them all. Good blocking by his teammates considerably aided him.

Although lack of experience told, especially as to the tackles, the work of the Ellensburg line was, as a whole excellent. Lindquist Jackey Gagnon and Sterling were towers of strength. The former played a brilliant game. He solved the impending plays with unerring accuracy and was immovable on defense. Gagnon, while a trifle wobbly in his passing, was likewise exceptionally effective. Sterling, the only Wildcat who played the entire game, guarded his extremity of the line well and held the returns of punts to a minimum by his fine tackling.

The performance of "Tex" Robinson, versatile half, was the equal of that of any individual on the field. He was a constant threat, and although injudiciously used at times, broke away for several fine runs. Burdette Sterling, red-headed newcomer, worked beautifully at quarter. He intercepted a Gonzaga pass on his own goal line in the third quarter and ran to the middle of the field before they downed him. It was the longest run of the game.

De Weese and Timmons, alternating at full, both worked well. The latter plugged the heavy Bulldog line for consistent gains late in the final period, and both stopped many line thrusts with their hard tackling behind the forward wall.
The statistics of the game show that Gonzaga made 11 first downs to nine for Ellensburg. In the first half Ellensburg made six to five for Gonzaga. In the matter of penalties Gonzaga drew 14 for a loss of 125 yards, while Ellensburg was sent back three times for a total of 45 yards. One of the Gonzaga penalties was half the distance to the goal line for slugging.

Gonzaga attempted nine forward passes and completed but one, that from Hunting to Ingram, which resulted in the last touchdown. Ellensburg tried eight and completed three, these coming at the end of the game when Sullivan was on the hurling end. Hunting punted eight times for an average of 43 yards; Ingram twice for 39; McKenna twice for an average of 37½; Robinson nine times for an average of 33 and Sullivan once for 45 yards.
The Ellensburg coaches now have one week to polish off the rough edges which showed up in the Gonzaga game and prepare the squad for its second hard game, that with C. P. S. on September 29. Likely several changes will be made in the first string as the result of the players' showing Saturday.

Prospects For Successful Season in Football Loom Bright Thinks Student Critic

By Pete Wick

Prospects for another successful season for Sandy and his fighting Wildcat, the Tri-Normal champs for the last two seasons, are so bright that Sandy and his high powered coaching staff, Joe Burks, are contemplating wearing smoked glasses or whatever it is one must wear to protect one's optical apparatus from the harmful elements of the said brightness.

In fact, things have never in the past looked so bright around this staid old institution of learning, in a gridiron way, since Noah made his nautical history. Greeted by a splendid turnout of forty-two members of the pigskin gentry, Coach Sandberg has a wealth of promising material with which to mold a gridiron machine of real collegiate calibre.

The return of such veterans as Tex Robinson, the galloping ghost of the Wildcats; the well-known herring brothers, Pete and Babe Peterson, who wrought so much havoc with the opposition last year; "Swede" Jensen, the blond pigskin chaperone from Ballard, and "Swede" Lindquist, who has starred at a guard position for the last two seasons, supplements added lustre to the aspect of another successful season.

Other vets who will be seen in action this season are Jackey, guard; Frodel, end; Timmons, fullback; Akam, center; Conners, halfback; M. Sterling, end; A. Warwick, fullback; C. Panzica, end.

Augmenting to this force of veterans is a squad of new candidates who have shown considerable promise. Among the most likely of the new ball toters are Park Gagnon, a center from Anacortes; Neil Eddy, from Aberdeen, who will probably get the call for the quarterback berth; F. Sullivan, a likely halfback from Gonzaga high school at Spokane; Joe Bruzas, a flashy half from Port Townsend; Neal McKay from Sedro Woolley, another flashy half; Joyce DeWeese, a local boy and a snappy performer on the field; and Dick Williams, from Grandview.

Others are Bert Gugenblicher, from Montesano, who will be 206 pounds of trouble for the opposition; Jack Arnold, who played center for Coupeville high school; B. Sterling, a quarterback from Wenatchee; Claude Jones and Harold Warwick, a couple of fine performers from Harrington; Bus Sanders, fullback and Chan St. Claire, end, from Colville; Edwin Van Gesen, and Gilbert Mills, promising local candidates; Dick Irby, tackle, from North Central high school, Spokane; Kern Rogers, quarterback from Bothell; John Stewart from Yakima; Ozzie Edwards from Yelm, Herb Short from Granger, Walt McCumber from Sedro Woolley, Joe Miller, Buckley; Wess Cole, Sedro Woolley; Earl Hickox, Wenatchee, and Roy Stratton, Granger, are all striving strenuously for a berth on the first-string squad.

From this crew of ball toters, Coach Sandberg and his assistant, Joe Burks, will have to develop a winning combination. A review of Sandy's last two seasons at this institution assures one that trouble is brewing for the opposition. And with the aid of an experienced assistant, such as Joe Burks, the possibility of the boys from W. S. N. S. once more bringing home the bacon is very great.

FOOTBALL SCHEDULE HEAVIEST TACKLED BY NORMAL TEAMS

U. of W. Frosh Signed for Homecoming Game This Fall

Confronted by the most ambitious football schedule ever undertaken by this school, Roy Sandberg is daily putting his men through the paces in strenuous preparation for the formidable array of opposition that they will be pitted against this fall. Smarting from the 31-0 defeat they suffered last Saturday at the hands of the powerful Gonzaga university eleven, Sandy's Wildcats are out, for a determined comeback today when they tackle the strong eleven from the College of Puget Sound at the Rodeo field. Playing such strong aggregations at the very beginning of the season makes the schedule a doubly hard one.

One of the new features of the schedule is that the University of Washington Frosh team will furnish the opposition here instead of one of the rival Normal schools, the traditional foes for the homecoming game. Efforts were made to secure Bellingham for the game but difficulties in reconciling the football schedules of the two schools and October 27, made the game impossible.

Following is the schedule for the coming season.

- Football Schedule
- Sept. 22—Gonzaga University at Spokane.
 - Sept. 29—College of Puget Sound at Ellensburg.
 - Oct. 6—U. S. S. Tennessee at Ellensburg.

 - Oct. 19—Bellingham Normal at Ellensburg.
 - Oct. 27—U. of W. Frosh (Homecoming) Ellensburg.

 - Nov. 11—Idaho Frosh at Wenatchee.
 - Nov. 16—Spokane University at Spokane.
 - Nov. 23—U. of W. Super-varsity at Ellensburg.

The new offices in the library building will be occupied by Miss Jean McMorran and Dr. Luther Cressman. Dr. Cressman will take Mr. Smyser's place during the latter's leave of absence.

Harold W. Quigley and family returned Monday evening from a motor tour of Oregon and northern California, visiting Crater lake, the Oregon caves and all points of interest on the way. Mr. Quigley says the children saw more than they had ever expected to see. Feeding bears soda pop was one of the interesting sidelights of the trip.

Miss Ruby Hutchinson, dormitory dietician, spent part of her vacation in the hospital, recovering from an appendicitis operation.

Luise Kassebaum has been added to the Normal staff in the capacity of assistant to the registrar. Former students will find her in the first office to the left when using the main library entrance.

Combining school with clerical work will be the two-time job of Bessie Lauth this year when she plays the dual role of co-ed and assistant to the extension director. She occupies a cubby-hole off from Luise's office.

Howard Porter has left the second floor of the library to join the ever increasing group in the registrar's office. Elizabeth Bucklin has been doing the secretarial work in his office this vacation. The work shop of Mr. Porter will be in the Ad building in F. W. Straw's old office.

Frederick W. Straw is now occupying the old Hyakem office. Everyone had the moving bug this vacation except the president and the business office. The former was satisfied where he was and the latter had too much stuff to move and no where to go. So it cleaned house instead.

Even the post office has come back to the Ad building. Although faculty members may object to sighs of joy and sorrow intermingled with classroom management and history, somehow, to an old grad like me, it seems fitting and proper that the post office should return home to the halls of the Ad building once more.

MISS MURIEL G. McFARLAND

Miss McFarland received her initial degree from Kansas State Teachers' college, her M. A. from Columbia university and has done graduate work at the University of Minnesota as a supervisor of teacher training in home economics. She has had a varied teaching experience, and will supervise home economics in the junior high school this year.

Sis reports that the saddest case brought to her attention was that of a freshman co-ed who was working for her board and lost her appetite—Ohio State Lantern.

Walter Dungan will represent the Campus Crier as advertising solicitor. Students are urged to patronize advertisers and to mention that the ad was seen in the Campus Crier. The more you patronize, the more ads. The more ads the bigger the paper.

The Campus Crier is content with straight back chairs and no rugs on the floor. However, a true newspaper office is one that is filled with busy typewriters, and a paper covered floor. All aspirants for the Campus Crier staff are asked to refrain from looking in the Hyakem office. They might feel they were being cheated of a good looking workroom.

Joe Burks, assistant football coach, hails from Wenatchee. Mr. Burks is a former star football man of the Coast conference, playing center for W. S. C. He also performed for Johnny Bryan's Milwaukee Badgers in the National league of professional football, playing against such men as Red Grange, Tut Imlay, and Brick Muller. Like Sandy, he has made a big hit with the boys.

Benjamin DeWees, instructor in social science, has moved into his new office on the second floor of the library building.

William T. Stephens has returned to the Normal after a year's absence in the east at Harvard. He is reported to have gained—not only a few pounds of weight, but also a new list of stories, including one about codfish and licenses (auto, not fishing). Students, beware, least you swallow hook, line and sinker.

Selden Smyser, is on a year's leave of absence, attending the Columbia university where he is studying the popularizing of science. His sons, Hugh and John are at Cambridge, attending high school and Harvard. Martha Smyser is teaching at White Salmon.

Loren D. Sparks, director of the training department, is attending the University of California this year.

The Hyakem staff has vacated its old office and has now moved next to the Campus Crier on the fourth floor of the Ad building. A peek inside assures one that the editor is one of artistic taste, even to the arrangement of the furniture.

ALUMNI NOTES

Wanda Wolff, '23 graduate, spent the summer visiting in Ellensburg. She is teaching in a suburb of New York City this year. Last year she was in the public schools of Scranton, Penn.

Alice Brook, '22, is a member of the faculty of the demonstration (Summit) school in Seattle. She began teaching as a cadet in the Seattle schools and has had a successful career. She was graduated from the University of Washington in 1927, having completed the two years additional work while teaching.

Ted Waterhouse of Salem, Oregon, is teaching at Casland this year.

Stanley Beck of Martin, is in charge of all scouting work at Raymond this year. The school system has taken over the Boy Scout work and has signed up Stanley to handle the activities. He began July 1 by taking charge of the swimming pool. He is noted for his prowess in swimming and was prominent here in athletics.

Fred Breit, who was active in school affairs last year is principal in Sumner, his home town.

Sammye Anderson is at Ephrata, her home town, teaching.

Eleanor McKenney of Sumner, an August graduate, is handling the seventh grade at Graham.

Esther Hayden of Vancouver has first grade work at Ilwaco.

Whitney Receives Letters From Grads Teaching School This Year in Seattle

Letters have been coming into H. J. Whitney, director of extension and appointment service, from former students who are now teaching. Both Helen Hofmann and Mollie Fitzell, who are cadets in Seattle, have written to tell of their work. Following is Mollie's:

"My dear Mr. Whitney: It has been my intention from the very first day I arrived here to write to you and let you know how well we are located.

"It has been one great experience right from the start. At times we hardly knew how to take things, that is, just exactly how to adopt real school room situations but we managed and our supervisors give us great encouragement saying that Ellensburg always had the reputation of sending very good material.

"Gertrude Jackson, Helen Hofmann, Helen Emerson and myself have apartments at this hotel, The Pickwick. It is very nice and it was recommended by the supervisors so of course we took it and were lucky to be able to get rooms so close to each other. Gertrude and I room together and right across the hall, Helen Hofmann and Helen Emerson room together. The meals are fine and all together, that is for board and room, each of us pay $40.00. We are located only six or seven blocks from town and my supervisor lives but one block away so we can go to her apartments instead of having to have them at school or on Saturday's. Gertrude, Helen Hof-man and I have the third A and B groups. Gertrude has 41 pupils, Helen 40, I think, and I have 37. Gertrude teaches at the Beacon school, about 880 there and Helen Hofmann at Harrison, a small school, Helen Emerson at Ravenna, 6th grade geography and arithmetic, the school being very large. I teach at Greenwood out towards Woodland Park. It is a beautiful school and lovely people there. There are about 900 children in the school. They have a lovely cafeteria and one can get a splendid lunch for only 8 or 10 cents.

"There are about 26 teachers there. They are all so nice and willing to help one. The district is of medium wealth, just the laboring class, but well off enough for things to be comfortable.

"Oh, but Mr. Whitney, you do not know how much we girls want to come back to school this fall. Helen Hofmann says if only she could come back to sing just once in a while and I would like to be back to start those poor freshmen on the right road for 10-mile hikes at 4 o'clock in the morning. Be sure that they get the right start because fresh morning air at Ellensburg is what will gain that school girl complexion and real "pep" for them. We are working hard for "our" school and we shall right to the end.

"I hope that you have a nice year and that you may come in contact with many new and interesting characters." With best wishes, ing during registration. This information will be sufficient to assist each student in making a selection of courses but if not consultation may be had with the directors of the departmental groups as stated above.
MOLLIE FITZELL.

Advanced Students Advised
All second year, third year, and fourth year students who are candidates for diplomas must meet the requirements in the major field of education and psychology as outlined in Section B of the supplement to the catalog. These requirements form a minimum of 21 credits. All such students are also required to show evidence of having completed the general required courses outlined in Section C of the supplement. These courses indicate a minimum of 24 credits. All such students may choose their electives from any of the seven departments but consultation with the departmental directors mentioned above is advised before making a choice. All second year and advanced students who are to take teaching in the first quarter should go direct to Miss Amanda Hebel, acting director of teacher training, for their teaching assignment in the training department.

The office of the president will be open for consultation with students from 11 to 12 daily.
