PRINCESS MARGE

QUEEN DIANE I.

PRINCESS LINDA

Lovely Queen Diane rules over the Homecoming Festivities and today's game. Selected by popular vote of the student body, Diane reflects the Christian atmosphere and ideals of Pacific Lutheran College. A junior student from Thompson Falls, Montana, Diane chose education as her major. She is preparing for teaching in the elementary school in the mission field. Her abilities and character are reflected by her participation in various school activities. Diane served as treasurer of the freshman class, and as a member of the Student Congregation Church Council as a sophomore. She waltzed in the May Festival last year, and also served as a Spur. Diane has been a member of the Student Congregation Choir for the three years she has been at PLC.

Princess Marge Krueger is also a junior student. Her first two years at PLC have shown her capabilities and personality to be a pleasant addition to our campus. She too served as a Spur during her sophomore year and added lustre to the May Festival as a princess. Her membership in the Organ Guild indicates her major objective—to teach music. Marge came to PLC from Oregon City, Ore., another "out of state" member of the Homecoming Court. She has gained fame in the past two years as the only female member of the Lettermen's Club Minstrel Show.

Princess Linda Effinger represents Tacoma, Washington, in this year's Court. An education major in the field of Physical Education, Linda is another popular junior. The Spurs made a clean sweep this year, for linda was a Spur last year also. She is well known for her activities as a cheerleader during her first two years at PLC. Her popularity on campus developed early, as she was elected a Princess of the Saga Carnival during her freshman year. Linda's cheerful smile is a familiar and welcome sight on campus.

Gladiators Suffer Injuries

The Gladiator ranks have suffered many injuries in the early stages of their 1959 campaign. However, only one "regular" seems to be lost for the season. Roger Lundblad, a strong center who has continued his valuable play from last season, will probably have to sit out the rest of the season. Rog had 40 c.c.'s of water removed from his knee after re-injuring it again at Bellingham. Gene Aune will be back in the line-up at center, however, after having to sit out the last two games himself with an injured knee.

The line is further strengthened by the return of Bruce Nunes, whose ankle has mended, and speedy Marv Snell, who is recovering from a hip injury.

Key backs have also missed action in earlier games due to injuries. Bruce Alexander has played most of the season with troublesome rib bruises and John Jacobson played the UBC game on "guts," hobbled by a painful hip injury. Doug McClary, knocked cold at UBC, has been taking exercises to strengthen his head muscles—English 201.

"INVIKTUS"

Out of the night that covers me, Black as the pit from pole to pole, I thank my tattered P.E. degree, For my unconquerable soul. In the fell clutch of circumstance I have not winced nor cried aloud, Under the bludgeonings of chance My head is bloody but unbowed. Beyond this place of wrath and tears Looms the board of trustees-And yet the menace of the years, Finds, and shall find me unafraid. It matters not how large "the gate" How filled the stands with fans. I am the victim of my fate. I am a football coach.

"ESPRIT"

Those loyal fans who traveled to Forest Grove, Oregon, to see the Lutes battle Pacific University to a draw know the meaning of the word "Esprit." They watched the Gladiator team outrun, outpass, outgain, and just plain outplay P.U. The Lutes couldn't beat the weather, though, and the "big win" seemed to ooze through their fingers on the rainswept gridiron.

The cheering fans who clustered near the fifty-yard line at Bellingham last week saw the weather again betray the PLC squad. Again the statistics were in their favor, but one drive after another bogged down in the muck of a baseball diamond that was a sad excuse for a football field.

There were only nine students at U.B.C. besides Mr. Gilbertson's band, but that small group was so enthusiastic, so loud, that four U.B.C. cheerleaders helped them cheer through the whole second period. The Lutes won that contest on paper, too, the margin of victory being one off-side penalty.

Watch your team play today, when they can hear you behind them, with them. See if you can detect the extra drive, the sharper crack of blocks thrown with enthusiasm, the hustle out of huddle. If the fans are behind a team their spirit seems to charge that team with a little something extra, a little something that can overcome bad weather and bad breaks. A little something called "Esprit."

Last Year

The Evergreen Conference race tightened during the past week with ties and losses counting as much as wins. The Lutes must win their Homecoming game today to keep alive their conference hopes.

Last year Corky Bridges ran wild and the Little All-American back scored thirty points as Central defeated PLC 45-13. John Jacobson passed for both Lute tallies and should prove to be a major pawn in the Gladiator attack today.

Conference Race

As predicted in the season's first program, the Gladiators have proven themselves much stronger than was forecast by conference sports scribes. The Lutes have rolled up an average of 265 yards per game, 146 rushing and 119 passing, to completely dominate the conference in total offense. They have scored 34 points, while allowing conference opponents only 16.

"Handsome Harry"

This year's "Handsome Harry" is the Lute fullback, John Jacobson. The Lettermen's Club established a precedent last year in electing a "Handsome Harry" who qualified not only in facial features but who personified the expression, "Handsome is as handsome does." In this respect, Jake extends the dynasty. His service to PLC includes vice-presidency of the Associated Students this year, maintenance of a high grade point average and letters in basketball and track. Last year Jake was selected on the all-conference team as a linebacker. Jake leads the team in offense, gaining 384 yards so far this season.

JOHN "HANDSOME HARRY" JACOBSON

BRUCE ALEXANDER

Speedy Back

One of the best running backs in the conference, "Daddy" Alexander has already rolled up 315 yards from scrimmage, averaging 5.3 yards per carry. This in spite of severe rib injuries early in the season. Bruce's passing adds to his effectiveness on offense, and he defends against passes and the few runners who get past the Lute line. He has figured prominently in the defensive play of the Lutes this year. Bruce is majoring in speech, preparing for a career in education. He is recognized as a probable all-conference choice this year.
