Letters of Welcome

Central Washington University

Freshman Class of '91
Central Washington University
Campus

Dear Freshmen:

I am so pleased that you decided to join us at Central Washington University. You made a very good decision. I promise you that we shall do everything to ensure that you will never regret the choice you have made and that you will be proud always that you are one of the CWU students and, in a few years, an alumnus.

We want your years at CWU to be totally successful for you. For this to happen, we need your complete commitment to the following: 1) Take responsibility for yourself and your behavior. 2) Become involved! That means in classes, labs, residence halls, recreation, intramurals, music, theater, etc. 3) Be honest with yourself about how well you are doing. If you do these things, I assure you that success will be yours and your years at CWU will be years you will always treasure.

We stand ready and waiting to begin a truly great adventure together.

Sincerely,

Donald L. Garrity
President

Central Washington University

Dear Freshmen,

Welcome to your first year at Central Washington University. On behalf of myself and the other Residence Hall Council officers, let me comment on your choice of an excellent university.

I've found that the best way to have an enjoyable college career is to get involved. I encourage you to become involved in campus and residence hall activities, intermural sports, clubs, and campus organizations. CWU has a wide variety of all of these. One is Residence Hall Council (RHC).

RHC is the largest student run organization on campus. We are the governing body of the CWU residence halls. We act as a liaison between students, administration and other campus organizations. RHC also promotes activities in the residence halls by planning activities for the residents. In addition RHC helps in funding to the dorms for hall programs. I encourage you to get involved in RHC, each dorm sends two representatives to our weekly meetings. Ask your Living Group Advisor for more information.

Again welcome to CWU. I look forward to seeing you on campus.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

John M. Bragwin
Chairman
"I found only in retrospect I had learned more than I realized in my first year at the Normal School. During that period, guided by my teachers, I became more conscious of beauty. I began to grasp the power of questioning and to recognize the dynamic energy of imagination. I sensed, for the first time, the strength of drama in teaching. I am so grateful for these lessons, gleaned in my youthful days at Central, knowledge that has benefitted me all of my life."
