DEAN NICHOLSON/Head Coach (19 years, 416-157)

Dean Nicholson completes his second decade as head basketball coach at Central Washington University this winter.

Nicholson, who is nationally-recognized as one of America's outstanding basketball coaches, has compiled a record of 416-157 and qualified for the NAIA basketball tournament in Kansas City a record 17 times.

Only two of his squads have failed to win 20 games. He directed the 'Cats to third-place finishes in 1967 and 1969 and to a second place finish in the 1970 national tournament.

His 1970 club won 31 games, including a school record 25 straight and he was voted the NAIA Coach-of-the-Year by his peers.

Nicholson has received numerous honors during his illustrious coaching career. In 1970 he coached at the USA - Pan American Developmental Camp. He was the NAIA representative to the U.S. Olympic basketball committee and coached at the Olympic camp and trials in 1971 and 1972.

Nicholson was the head coach for AAU teams which toured in South America in 1972 and 1973 and for the NAIA All-Star team in the Cup of Nations tournament in Columbia in 1974.

He was an assistant coach for the West team in the 1982 National Sports Festival in Indianapolis, Ind. and currently is a member of the NABC's Hall of Fame Committee.

Last spring the former CWU athletic great was inducted as a charter member into Central Washington University's Athletic Hall-Of-Fame.

Nicholson, 57, was born June 28, 1926 in Seattle. He graduated from Ellensburg High School in 1944 where he earned all-state honors in basketball and was a Yakima Valley tennis champion.

After a two-year stint in the Navy during World War II, he enrolled at CWU in the fall of 1946. At CWU he earned all-conference honors for four straight years in basketball, leading Central to a conference title in 1947 and a NAIA national tournament berth in 1950.

Nicholson scored 1377 career points, which still ranks fourth on the school's all-time list. In 1950 he made 83 percent of his free throws, sixth on the all-time list.

Nicholson also played tennis and baseball for the 'Cats. In 1950 he led the Evergreen Conference in hitting. Off-the-field, the popular student was elected president of the CWU student body.

After earning a bachelor of arts degree in 1950, he accepted the position of head basketball coach at Puyallup High School. In 14 seasons he won five Puget Sound titles and compiled a record of 188-100.

In the fall of 1964 he returned to Ellensburg after being named to succeed his father as head basketball coach at Central. In addition to coaching basketball at CWU, he was the school's baseball coach in 1967 and tennis coach in 1965 and 1966 and from 1968 until 1978.

Nicholson, an assistant professor of physical education, earned his masters degree from CWU in 1957. He has also attended the University of Washington, Oregon State University, Seattle Pacific University and Western Washington University.

He and his wife, Charlene, were married June 18, 1948. They have two grown sons, Joel and Gary.

JACK MILLER/Assistant Coach

Jack Miller, 30, will serve as Dean Nicholson's top assistant this winter for the third year. In his first two seasons at CWU, the 'Cats have won 48 games and lost 11.

Miller is a 1975 graduate of the University of Idaho. He coached two years at Worley, Idaho, and three years at Bonners Ferry prior to coming to CWU. He earned his masters degree in education at Central.

At Worley he led his team to a fourth place finish in the 1977 state tournament and was nominated for North Idaho Coach Of The Year. His overall record was 49-66 in five seasons.

Miller was born at Sandpoint, Idaho, and graduated from Clark Fork High School in 1971. He lettered in football, basketball and track. Miller attended North Idaho College and was the most inspirational award winner on the track team before transferring to Idaho.

The CWU varsity assistant coach is married. His wife's name is Jodi.

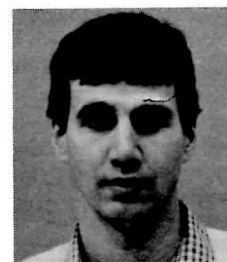

LEN BONE/Junior Varsity Coach

Len Bone, 29, is in his second season as junior varsity coach for the Wildcats. Last year he directed the JVs to a 14-11 record.

Prior to coming to CWU to work on a masters degree, Bone was the assistant basketball coach at West Seattle High School from 1977 until 1982. He earned a bachelor of science degree in physical education from Seattle Pacific University in 1977 and was awarded a masters degree from CWU last spring.

Bone graduated from Shorecrest High School in 1972. He is married. His wife's name is Susan.

THE PRESENT: 1983-84 SEASON PREVIEW

DR. DONALD L. GARRITY/President

Dr. Donald L. Garrity has been president of Central Washington University since Sept. 1, 1978. He is the University's ninth president.

He came to Central from San Francisco State University, where he had been provost for 12 years. He joined the San Francisco State faculty in 1956 as an assistant professor of sociology. He rose in academic rank to a full professorship and served as chairman of the SFSU Sociology Department for six years.

As provost of the California university, he was the chief administrator below the president. Dr. Garrity, 54, has been active in many professional organizations and was a member of the prestigious San Francisco Crime Commission.

Garrity obtained his master's degree and doctorate at the University of Washington. His undergraduate study was at Colorado State University.

Dr. Garrity and his wife, Virginia, have two sons.

GARY SMITH/Athletic Trainer

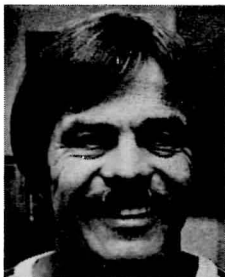

Gary Smith, 45, has been an assistant professor of physical education and athletic trainer at Central Washington University since 1968.

He also serves as an unofficial traveling secretary during the football and basketball seasons.

Smith was born July 27, 1938 in Charlevoix, Mich., and graduated from Charlevoix High School in 1956. After a stint in the military he attended North Central Michigan College earning an associate of science degree in 1962.

He then enrolled at Northern Michigan University and was granted a bachelor of science degree in 1964. Smith received his masters of science degree from Indiana University in 1965.

He played football and track in high school, earning all-conference honors in football. He also lettered in track at Northern Michigan.

CENTRAL WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

Location: Ellensburg, WA 98926

Founded: 1891 (4 teachers, 86 students)

Enrollment: 5500

Colors: Crimson and Black

President: Dr. Donald L. Garrity

VP-Academics: Dr. Edward Harrington (Tufts)

Faculty Rep.: Dr. Daryl

Basler (Iowa State)

Registrar: Louis H. Bovos (Wyoming)

Nickname: Wildcats

Stadium: Tomlinson (4,000)
Pavilion: Nicholson (3,200)

Central Washington University's 350-acre campus, composed of 26 major academic buildings, 27 student housing facilities and 28 support services, is located in Ellensburg, the state's most central and accessible location.

The curriculum available at CWU is characterized by its diversity, quality and flexibility. Undergraduate instruction leads to 98 different majors in 60 disciplinary fields with 30 special options. In addition, 20 non-degree and pre-professional programs in preparation for professional school are offered. Graduate instruction leads to masters degrees in 35 areas.

Central Washington has been cast in an unfamiliar role for the 1983-84 basketball season. The 'Cats, perennial District 1 champions, are not the pre-season choice to make their annual jaunt to Kansas City for the NAIA national tournament.

Whitworth College, which returns five starters and has added two key transfers, is the favorite. The Pirates' experience along with CWU's apparent problems in the post are the main reasons they are favored.

"The center position is a big question mark for us," veteran CWU coach Dean Nicholson, beginning his 20th season, said.

CWU lost All-American center Doug Harris, an eighth-round draft choice by Golden State to graduation. Top candidates to replace Harris are Chuck Glovick or freshman Ron vanderSchaaf.

The 6-8 Glovick transferred from Southern Idaho where he averaged five points and 5.4 rebounds. VanderSchaaf, a native of the Netherlands, led Onalaska to a perfect 28-0 record and the State Class B title.

Redshirt Steve Josephsen, a two-year JV player, could also figure in the picture.

The 'Cats strength is at forward and at guard. At forward, Ken Bunton and Danny Pike head a strong group. Bunton averaged 14.5 points per game, while Pike ranked fourth in scoring (9.2) and led the team in rebounding (6.8).

Top newcomers include redshirts Reggie Wright and Jon Jordan and JC transfer Doug Thompson, who played his freshman season at Seattle University.

Wright is a rugged rebounder. Jordan is an excellent shooter and also is a good passer. Thompson will provide the 'Cats with firepower. He averaged 16.6 points in six games with Seattle, including outputs of 34 and 29 against Trinity Western and British Columbia, respectively.

Returning lettermen Scott Bardwell and Keith Bragg also figure into the picture.

At guard, Reese Radliff, CWU's single game and season assist record holder is back and so is reserve Art Haskins.

Joining the two veterans will be Roger Boesel, a two-year starter for Eastern Washington, transfer Joe Callero and redshirt Gordon Dixon.

Boesel led EWU in scoring averaging 13.6 points in 1978-79 but sat out the last four seasons. Callero is following in the footsteps of Radliff. Both played at Enumclaw and Highline CC. Joe was a Region I all-star at Highline, averaging 15 points and leading the conference in assists.

Dixon is a former all-stater from Ferris High School in Spokane. He played two seasons at North Idaho and was the Cardinals' captain his sophomore season. He's an excellent shooter and has good quickness.

Thompson, Bragg and Jordan are swing players and could also be used in the backcourt.

Central plays one of its toughest schedules ever. In addition to their pre-season exhibition game with the Japanese National Team, the 'Cats are scheduled to play four NCAA Division I schools, all on the road.

Central is also entered in tournaments at Seattle Pacific and the University of Puget Sound.

THE PAST: 17 NATIONAL TOURNEYS

Central Washington keeps making history on the maplecourt. The Wildcats hold the record for most appearances and consecutive appearances in the NAIA national tournament. They've participated in 17 national tourneys, including nine in a row (1974-82).

In 74 seasons, Wildcat teams have won 1045 games and lost 571, a winning percentage of .612. Even more remarkable is the fact a father-and-son coaching combination is responsible for 90 percent of the wins. Leo Nicholson coached 505 victories in 33 seasons, winning nine conference titles before retiring in 1964.

Since 1964, son Dean has won 416 games. CWU, which now competes as an independent, won 11 Evergreen Conference titles and shared the WIBA championship in 1980 (its only year of existence) under the younger Nicholson's coaching.

In district playoff competition, the 'Cats have won 43 games and lost 15 and have won 18 district titles, 17 in Dean Nicholson's 19-year tenure as head coach. The 'Cats won 19 straight district playoff games from 1976 until 1982.

CWU's 25 national tournament victories ranks second on the all-time list behind Hamline, Minn., with 36. Central's 17 tournament appearances is the all-time record. Peru State, Neb. is second with 13.

CWU's best finish came in 1970 when it finished second. Nicholson was selected NAIA Coach of the Year. The 'Cats also finished third in 1967 and 1969.

First team All-American honors have been won by three CWU players - Mel Cox in 1967, Paul Adams in 1970 and Rich Hanson in 1973. Twelve other players have won either second team, third team or honorable mention honors, including Doug Harris, a second team selection last year.

Two former CWU representatives are members of the NAIA Basketball Hall-Of-Fame. Leo Nicholson was honored in 1964. Perry Mitchell, a long-time CWU administrator and former university president, was selected for his general contributions to NAIA sports.

Two Wildcat players have been tapped for national tournament honors. Dave Benedict won the Charles Stevenson Hustle Award in 1967 and Dave Allen won the same award in 1970. The CWU team won the coveted James A. Naismith - Emil S. Liston Sportsmanship award in the 1967 tournament.

LEO AND DEAN NICHOLSON IN 1965

LEO NICHOLSON AWARD

In 1971 a group of Ellensburg businessmen purchased a trophy to be presented each year to the top small-college basketball team in the Pacific Northwest.

The trophy is awarded to the school determined to be the outstanding team by a panel of sportswriters, broadcasters and sports information directors, who also select a coach-of-the-year.

The award honors the memory of the late Leo Nicholson, who won 505 games at CWU from 1930 to 1964.

Central, under the direction of Leo's son Dean, has won the award four times and the younger Nicholson has been voted coach-of-the-year once.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

THE COACHES

GARY FREDERICK/Head Coach

Gary Frederick, 46, begins his second season as CWU's basketball coach. He has also been CWU's athletic director since the fall of 1980.

The Hoquiam, Wash., native has a long affiliation with Central. After graduating from Raymond High School in 1955 where he was all-conference in football and baseball and lettered in basketball, he enrolled at CWU.

He lettered in football three years (1956-58) and earned second team all-conference honors in 1957 and first team honors in 1958 at offensive center.

He graduated in 1959 with a bachelor of arts degree in education and earned a masters in physical education from CWU in 1965 and a doctorate in secondary education from Idaho in 1974. He also attended Whitman College.

Frederick coached basketball and baseball at Thorp High School (1959-60); football, basketball and track at Waitsburg High School (1960-63); and football and baseball at Central Kitsap (1963-67) before returning to Ellensburg in the fall of 1967.

Since 1967 he has been an assistant football coach and was head baseball coach from 1968 to 1978 when he resigned to take over the chairmanship of the physical education department.

He gave up that job when he was named to succeed Adrian "Bink" Beamer as athletic director in September, 1980.

Frederick and his wife Bobbi were married in May, 1979. He has three sons by a previous marriage, Brooke, 24, Rick, 23, and Rob, 21. Bobbi has two children, Anna, 14, and David, 12.

MIKE FREDERICK/Assistant Coach

Mike Frederick will assist head coach Gary Frederick and will be in charge of the defense while working towards a bachelor's degree at Central.

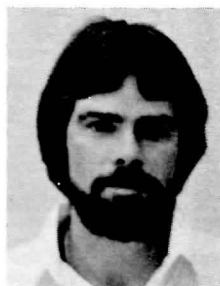

Frederick is a 1970 graduate of Willapa Valley High School near Raymond. He played basketball and football and also competed in track and field at Willapa Valley.

He enrolled at CWU in the fall of 1970 and participated in cross country and track for the 'Cats, earning a letter in the latter sport.

Frederick, the nephew of the CWU head coach, began his coaching career at Willapa Valley in 1978. He served as assistant varsity basketball coach and head junior varsity and freshman coach the past five seasons. In four of those seasons, Valley qualified for the State Class B tournament, winning the title in 1981.

Frederick was also the assistant track coach (1980-82), the assistant volleyball coach (1982) and the head cross country coach (1979-81).

He is married. He and his wife are parents of three children - Angela, 10, Jason, nine, and Scott seven.

REGINA KINZEL/Assistant Coach

Regina Kinzel moves from the playing court to the coaching sidelines for the 1983-84 season.

Kinzel was CWU's leading scorer the past two seasons. She averaged 14.1 points in 1981-82 and 11.0 points last season. She also had 211 and 141 rebounds in the two seasons, respectively.

The former Mansfield High School star was voted the 'Cats MVP and team captain.

Kinzel graduated from Mansfield in 1979 and earned an AA degree from Wenatchee Valley in 1981. She earned her BS degree from Central this fall.

Kinzel's previous coaching background has been at the AAU level. The past two seasons she has directed teams in the 15-18 year-old division in spring AAU tournaments.

1983-84 SEASON PREVIEW

Central Washington University made great strides last winter in its women's basketball program and improvement should continue this winter.

The 'Cats, after a winless 1981-82 campaign, won their final three games and finished with an 8-14 record. Four of the top five scorers were freshmen and three of them return.

"Eighteen of our 24 players are freshmen and sophomores, but we still have more experience and that alone should help us to improve enough to get over the .500 mark," coach Gary Frederick said.

Regina Kinzel, CWU's Most Valuable Player and top scorer, graduated and Camille Shannon, who led the 'Cats in rebounding and ranked fourth in scoring, is not playing this year. However, five players who started games are back.

Returning starters include sophomore Lisa Carlson, who averaged 7.0 points and ranked second in rebounding with 147, and guards Nita Wing and Katie Stuhr. Wing averaged 4.6 and Stuhr scored 5.7.

Two Ellensburg sophomores, guard Toni Larimer and forward Marcia Byrd earned starting berths in the latter stages of the 1982-83 season. Larimer was the team's third leading scorer, averaging 6.8. She also led in assists with 46. Byrd averaged six points and ranked fourth in rebounding with 115.

The 'Cats strengths could be defense and quickness. "We're not big, but because of our quickness and jumping ability, we should be able to rebound with most teams."

Carlson, a two-year letterman with Central's volleyball team, has a 27-inch vertical jump. She tops a strong group of forward candidates.

Carlson shot just 40 percent from the floor and 38.3 from the foul line her freshman season, but has improved her shooting ability and ball handling skills, Frederick said.

Shelley Boyer also returns at forward. Boyer averaged just 3.6 points, but Frederick is looking for more scoring from her.

Among a good group of newcomers are Renee Corliss, Karmen Moen and Kristi Wilson.

Corliss played two seasons at Skagit Valley CC and has the same type of jumping ability as Carlson. Moen was MVP at Centralia CC last year. The 5-10 sophomore who played prep basketball at Central Kitsap, North Mason and Napavine, averaged 11.3 points and 9.4 rebounds for Centralia.

Wilson has been slowed by a knee injury. The Highline High grad is rated as an excellent prospect. "She is aggressive and a good rebounder and has the ability to score," Frederick said.

At center, Byrd has the inside track. The sophomore worked hard in the offseason and has increased her strength, rebounding and shooting skills.

Snohomish freshman Julie Fees will add firepower underneath. "She is a good shooter and has initial quickness," Frederick said. "She has the potential to be a fine offensive player."

Wing, Stuhr, Larimer and three-year letterman Kathy Kraft head an experienced group at guard.

Wing is tough defensively. She's very quick and aggressive, but needs to improve her offensive game. Stuhr is also solid on defense and has improved her shooting and offensive game. Larimer has the speed and quickness to be an outstanding offensive player. Kraft is rated a good shooter and will be an offensive threat for the 'Cats.

New players competing for playing time at guard will include Tami Coma, Celene Crelling, Lisa Morrow, Lori Vinton and Karen Fugate.

Coma is a heady playmaker, but needs to improve her strength. Crelling is a good defensive player. Morrow is also rated strongest on defense, while Vinton is up from the JVs. She worked hard all spring and summer and has improved her shooting and defense. Fugate is rated a good shooter.

The 'Cats have their most ambitious schedule ever with a record 30 games, including 12 in 20 days in December.
