TODD NEALEY

Todd Nealey, 25, is in his second season on Central Washington University's coaching staff. He is also completing work on a degree in communications.

Prior to joining the coaching staff, Nealey played one year at CWU earning Pacific Northwest Conference all-star honors in the 1996-97 season at the point guard position. He was also selected as the winner of the Ken Broches Coaches award.

Nealey averaged 11.9 points and had 150 assists to help lead the Wildcats to the PNWAC title and a quarterfinal berth in the NAIA national tournament. His assist total was the eighth best single-season mark in school history.

The CWU guard had three games in which he was credited with 10 or more assists, including a conference record 13 against Simon Fraser . He also scored 31 points in a game against Western Washington, the most points ever for a CWU point guard.

Nealey is a 1993 graduate of LaCrosse High School where he earned nine letters, including two in football, four in basketball and three in baseball. In basketball, he earned all-state honors.

He played two seasons at Big Bend and one at Northwest College prior to enrolling at CWU. At Big Bend, he was a two-time NWAACC all-tournament selection. At Northwest, he earned NCCAA (National Christian Collegiate Athletic Association) All-American honors. He was the team captain at both schools.

Last spring Nealey played professional basketball in Australia. He averaged 24 points per game for the Burnie Tigers in Tasmania and was selected to start in the league's all-star game.

Misc: Born 12-15-74 at Spokane. Communications major. Has one brother and one sister. Father (Tedd) played basketball at Whitworth. Brother (Troy) is redshirt on this year's basketball team. Was ASB representative in high school and ASB president at Big Bend.
