CENTRAL WASHINGTON
COLLEGE OF EDUCATION
ELLENSBURG, WASHINGTON
The CW SEER
A HANDBOOK FOR NEW STUDENTS

Published by the Associated Students
Central Washington College of Education
Ellensburg, Washington

1941-1942

Entered at the Ellensburg, Washington, Post Office as Second Class Matter
This sign in the corner of Kamola's front yard greets new students as they arrive at CWC.
Welcome to CWC!

Are you feeling like the original "Babe in in the Woods" during these first days of college? Well, the SEER intends to help you keep on the trail so that your initiation to college ways can be amusing instead of confusing. One item you'll find helpful from the moment you step off the bus is the map of the campus which is printed on the back cover. We've tried to answer all the questions we thought a Joe or Jane Frosh (and even Sam and Sally Senior) could possibly ask; and so we feel sure that you'll find the answers to some of your own particular questions here in the SEER.

If you have a few spare minutes why not start on page one and give the book a thorough perusal—you'll then be a really well-informed collegian. Later, when a specific question comes up, locate the subject of your problem in the index on page eight, and you'll find it easily in the book. If yours is a question this book can't answer, maybe one of our friendly faculty members can help. There is a directory of their names and office locations included in the book.

Finally, during the year if you think of some possible improvements for the SEER, Dick Dunnington, next year's editor, will be glad to hear of them.

BETTY COLWELL, Editor
CWC PRESIDENT ROBERT E. McCONNELL
President's Message

This handbook is presented to you at the beginning of the college year for the purpose of helping to introduce you to college life. Through it we extend a cordial and genuine welcome to the campus. Those who read it carefully will find little difficulty in becoming a member of the social life of the institution. It serves as a guide to the traditions, customs, activities, organizations, and accepted practices that former students have found to be very helpful in making life on the campus orderly, pleasant, and profitable. I am confident that you shall find a friendly spirit here.

Upon completion of your enrollment, you have accepted an obligation to prepare yourself for a larger participation in American life. Many of you will equip yourselves to teach the youth of Washington. The faculty and students wish you to discharge your duty acceptably by using your time here to create a more intelligent mind, a well disciplined body, and a strong personality.

ROBERT E. McCONNELL, President
Welcome, Students!

The revision of the handbook which an Associated Student Committee has undertaken this year has been done in the hope that the book would be made more useful and interesting to you. The committee has tried to think of the questions new students ask and to provide you with the advice and information you need. Their spirit of friendliness and helpfulness in doing this I think you will find to be characteristic of our college life.

The opening week activities have been planned to give new students an introduction to the many different sides of college life. I earnestly hope that no student will fail to take advantage of the week's opportunities for getting acquainted with students, faculty, and administration. We are all eager to welcome you and help you to make your college days happy and successful.

HELEN MINERVA ELWORTHY, Dean of Women

This book has been compiled for serving the new students as well as the old. I hope it will be carefully read by all, for you will find it a valuable guide.

O. H. HOLMES, JR., Dean of Men

The registrar is responsible for making out the schedule of classes, for organizing the registration procedure, and for keeping student records. All questions related to admission and record of credits should go to the office of the registrar.

H. J. WHITNEY, Registrar
FELLOW STUDENTS:

On behalf of the Associated Students I heartily thank those students who are responsible for the revision and publication of the '41-'42 CW SEER. This book represents one form of student endeavor that exists on Central Washington Campus. It has been written by students for students. It contains that which is deemed important for the freshmen as a guide, and that which will serve as a reminder for the older students. Its greatest importance, however, is that it represents an illuminating and enthusiastic life—college life—an experience that you will long remember.

Sincerely,

BOB GROESCHELL,
AS President

HELLO THERE!

As representative of the Associated Women Students I welcome you to our campus. We, the AWS, are sincerely happy that you've chosen CWC for your alma mater.

We'll have many good times together at mixers, teas, Wednesday night dances—there will be no end to the get-togethers that are so much fun and provide lasting memories for years to come.

It has been said many times that nothing can keep you back if you mean to go forward. You'll find splendid opportunities here to go forward for a higher education, and remember always that our friendly faculty is at hand to aid you. We older students, too, are looking forward to helping you make your college years here one grand success.

So... take off your hats and feel at home. Best of luck to you!

Sincerely,

MARIE FITZGERALD,
AWS President

REGISTRATION PROCEDURE

All students should obtain from the office of the Registrar the bulletin giving detailed information about registration procedure. In addition, the times of registration for freshmen and upperclassmen are indicated in the Opening Week Schedule, which may be consulted in the CW SEER or on the bulletin boards.

In general, the following steps must be taken by every student:

1. All students go to the Women's Gymnasium in the Administration Building for assignment to classes.

2. All students must complete general information cards and schedule of classes and file them in the office of the Registrar.

3. All students must have their living arrangements approved by the Dean of Women or Dean of Men. These offices also issue dormitory entry slips. A card with Dean's signature indicating that approval has been granted must be presented at the Business Office when fees are paid.

4. Fees are paid at the Business Office, room 203, Administration Building. A late fee of $1.00 is charged all students who register after the official registration date. (A complete explanation of fees is printed in the College catalog.)

TESTING PROGRAM

All new students, both first year and those with advanced standing, are required to take a series of standardized tests. These tests are given by the Personnel Department during the first week of each quarter, the dates and times to be announced. (See Opening Week Schedule.) The testing programs will occupy most of a day, the students being excused from classes for that day.

The purpose of the tests is to find out as much as possible about each new student, in order to give him guidance and assistance in his various educational, vocational, and personal problems. No student will be excluded because of the test results, nor will his marks be affected in any way by them. The registration of the student is not complete until the tests have been taken.

The scores are held as strictly confidential, being available only to those officers and instructors who are directly concerned with the problems of the student.

The student should approach the tests with an attitude of confidence, and with the intention of representing himself well. He should endeavor to refrain from worry and emotional upset as this may mitigate against his scores. The tests are long enough and varied enough to give every student an opportunity to demonstrate his capacities and abilities.

DR. E. E. SAMUELSON
Director of Personnel.
PHYSICAL EXAMINATIONS

I. All students are required to take a physical examination during the first quarter in which they are enrolled for that school year.

II. Fall Term.

a. Physical examinations will be given during the month of October.

b. Students will be notified as to date, hour, and place of appointment by means of bulletin board notices posted in:

   (1) Student Postoffice.

   (2) Entrance to Library.

c. Students who have not completed their examinations by November 7th will be denied admittance to class until their examinations are completed.

d. A Special Fee of $2.50 will be charged for examinations given after November 7th.

e. Students will be automatically excused from any classes they may miss while taking these examinations.

III Winter Term.

a. Same as fall term for all who were not enrolled fall term, except the dead line is January 30th.

IV. Spring Term.

a. Same as fall term for all who were not enrolled either fall or winter term, except the dead line is April 24th.

Student Living

KAMOLA HALL, ONE OF CWC'S TWO RESIDENCE HALLS FOR WOMEN
INSTITUTIONAL REGULATIONS

1. Dormitory services arranged for at the beginning of the quarter must be maintained for the duration of that quarter. In case of emergency requiring withdrawal, ten days' notice must be given.

2. All students rooming at the dormitory shall take three meals a day there unless working hours or illness interfere.

3. All women students must live in the dormitory unless specifically excused by the dean of women. (For further information, see Off-Campus Living Regulations.)

4. All students living in residence on the campus or off the campus are directly responsible for all properties used in residence.

5. All students checking into the dormitory or dining room must follow this procedure: They must obtain a dormitory slip from the office of the dean of men or the dean of women on the day of entrance. On this slip information is given as to the dormitory in which a room has been reserved and also as to arrangements in the dining room. Rooms are reserved by sending a $5.00 deposit to the business office and are assigned by the housemothers.

6. Procedure for withdrawal from school is explained in section V (Academic Information).

7. All rooms are $1.50 a week for double and $2.00 a week for single accommodations, except all rooms in Senior Hall in Kamola which are all double rooms and $2.00 per week per person.

8. Board is $5.00 per week.

9. The director of dormitories would appreciate consideration in the care of the buildings and equipment. Specifically (a) furniture or other equipment must not be moved from room to room without the consent of the housemother; (b) damage charges may be collected for:

1. Breakage of furniture or injury to it.

2. Destruction of window shades and curtains.

3. Defacing of wall in bathrooms, living rooms and social halls.

4. Signs and placards on doors.

5. Carelessness in the use of ironing boards and irons; (c) Cooking meals and ironing in living rooms is absolutely forbidden. Hot plates or poppers may be used on week-end nights in rooms especially furnished and by special permission from the housemothers.

H. J. Whitney, Dean and Registrar
Kenneth Courson, Business Manager
O. H. Holmes, Jr., Dean of Men
Helen Minerva Elworthy, Dean of Women
Myra Newton, Director of Dormitories
OFF-CAMPUS REGULATIONS

1. All rooms occupied by college men and women must be approved by the Dean of Women or Dean of Men. Lists of approved rooms and apartments are issued by the Deans' offices at the beginning of each quarter and should be consulted before living arrangements are made by the student.

2. It is the established policy of the college that all women students must live in the dormitory, unless specifically excused by the college authorities. Therefore, permission is not granted unless it is required because of financial necessity or unless other special circumstances make it necessary.

3. Any girl wishing to live off-campus must present to the Dean the application form for such permission properly filled by her parent or guardian. This form may be obtained from the Deans' office and must be presented ten days before any change in living arrangements can be made.

4. Complete information about off-campus living regulations, standards, hours, room and board positions, part-time employment, etc., is given in a bulletin obtainable from the office of the Dean of Women. All off-campus women are expected to be familiar with this information.

The office of Dean of Men was instituted for the purpose of guiding and directing the men of the institution in the various activities. Special emphasis is placed upon the social and academic activities of the school.

The administering officer, known as the Dean of Men is particularly interested in overcoming some of the difficulties that exist not only in the individual but in the general routine of campus life. Some of the most important attributes of success center around a clean mind, a clean body, and the development of proper attitudes. These are the by-products of proper training and it is so hoped that this department enables the institution to accomplish these things with the men of the Associated Students.

The department is likewise very much interested in proper physical training and proper hygenic methods of living. The Golden Rule is the motto that has been adopted. From that foundation there is a sincere effort made by the Dean of Men to build the superstructure of the right principles and ideals for men to follow in life.

O. H. HOLMES, JR.
Dean of Men.

MEN'S DORMITORY REGULATIONS

The rules governing the conduct of residents of the men's dormitory, Munson Hall, are establisshed by the association of which all residents are members. Although they are not stringently enforced, all self-respecting, thoughtful students will observe and abide by them.

Study hours are from 7 a. m. to 11 p. m. on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. From 7 a. m. to 6 p. m. on Friday and on Saturday and Sunday from 9 a. m. to 12 a. m. and from 7 p. m. to 11 p. m.

It is expected that each student has enough self pride to keep his room clean and to make his bed.

Playing of musical instruments should be kept to a minimum.

Dress neatly and completely when eating in the dining room.

Study and make the most of your opportunities while at school. Someone is probably making sacrifices in order that you may be here.
Although the office of the Dean of Women has many functions, primarily it was created to help women students in their personal problems and their social activities. All women students are invited to consult the Dean about any problem arising in their school life.

If you find yourself faced by an unexpected need for a few dollars, if you are planning a social affair and are not sure just how to proceed, if you need to make a change in your living quarters, if you are having trouble getting acquainted and would like to have more of a share in campus activities, if your schedule seems too heavy or your working hours too long, or if some other problem is troubling you, come into the office and talk it over. Together we can usually find a solution—ordinarily it is much simpler than you think, and you'll be freed from unnecessary worry.

Many of you are away from home for the first time; all of you are beginning a new school year. This is a rare opportunity in your life—the new start so many of us look for. It is the time when decisions carefully thought out and standards persistently maintained will give you the confidence and assurance you need to gain the most from your college life. Remember you are surrounded by sincere and helpful friends both faculty and students. We all want you to get the best start possible.

HELEN MINERVA ELWORTHY
Dean of Women

DORMITORY CUSTOMS

These customs (existing in all schools approximately as stated here) are here recorded in order to secure the measure of privacy and quiet and smooth living compatible with the largest freedom for all. They are based throughout on the necessity of consideration for others in any large living group. Each year these customs are discussed and revised where necessary by the house councils in cooperation with housemothers and dean.

1. Quiet Hours.

Each of the women's dormitories is expected to be quiet enough for study and sleep from 7:00 p.m. to 6:30 a.m. every night except Friday and Saturday. From 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 m. and from 1:30 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. during the day, the dormitories observe a normal quiet routine. Naturally it is expected that musical instruments and typewriters will not be used during quiet hours; that water taps will not be turned on after 10:15 p.m.; and that radios will always be kept low in tone so that neighboring rooms will not be disturbed. It was especially recommended that girls take into consideration the fact that their roommates may wish to study undisturbed and govern their own conduct accordingly.
2. Closing Hours.
   Dormitories close from Sunday to Thursday at 10:00 p.m. and on Friday and Saturday at midnight.

3. Late Leaves.
   A late leave is understood to mean special permission to arrive not more than one-hour after regular closing time. Late leave is granted only for important or necessary reasons.
   Late leaves are granted to freshmen not more often than once a month; upperclassmen, not more often than twice a month.
   Late leaves after dances occur only in case of the three all-school formals, the Snow Ball, the Colonial Ball, and the May Prom. Late leave is until 1:30 a.m. on these evenings.
   Late leaves on Sunday automatically end at 10:30 p.m.

4. Calling Rules.
   The women's dormitories are open to callers at the following hours:
   - Monday through Thursday: 12:00-1:00 p.m.
   - 4:00-7:00 p.m.
   - 9:15-10:00 p.m.
   - Friday: 12:00-1:00 p.m.
   - 7:00-12:00 p.m.
   - Saturday: 12:00 noon to 12:00 midnight.
   - Sunday: 11:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m.
   Escorts may call for girls at other times, but a stay of more than ten minutes constitutes a call and is not permissible.

5. Guests.
   Guests are entertained over night only with the previously obtained approval of the housemother. Upon arrival they should be presented to her, register with her, and are during their stay subject to the rules of the hall. If they remain for longer than one night they must arrange for separate accommodations.

6. Telephones
   Consideration for others should limit the use of the telephone to only the most necessary calls during study hours. After ten o'clock in the evening telephones are not to be used. Any girl may be reached in an emergency by calling the housemother of the hall.

7. Dining Hall.
   Nowhere is observance of all points of courtesy more necessary for the maintenance of spirit of culture and refinement than in the dining room. Promptness at meals is obligatory.

8. Illness.
   Report cases of illness to the school nurse at Black 5571.

9. Fire Precautions.
   Directions are posted in each room to be followed in case of emergency. Each girl should be familiar with them both for her own safety and that of others. Smoking is prohibited in the dormitories.
10. Holidays.

All customs of CWC are to be observed on holidays as well as when school is in session.

11. Special Privileges.

Every woman will secure permission or will register for overnight absence from her residence, and for every absence from town. This applies to all picnics, drives, and hikes except short walks of not more than an hour and to all vacations occurring in the college year.

All women get permission for week-end leaves, overnight leaves, special late leaves. These must be secured by off-campus girls from the Dean during her office hours and by dormitory girls from their housemothers.

Before any out-of-town permissions are granted, students must have filed with the Dean of Women or the housemother a Driving Permission slip, properly signed by parent or guardian.

12. Signing Out.

Always sign out when leaving the campus at any time or when going to the library at night.

Be sure that you sign in when you return to the hall.

Each student must herself sign in or out and allow no one else to do so for her.

13. Automobile Regulations.

Because of the increasing number of automobile accidents, delays and fatalities on our highways, the attention of the faculty and the students is hereby called to these provisions:

Any division of the school sponsoring an event in another city or in another area involving transportation of students by automobile is requested to observe the usual courtesy of communicating with the Dean of Women as to method of transportation (train, stage, or private car), drivers of cars, sponsors of cars, and lists of student in cars, both going and returning.

Every car carrying students outside of the immediate environs of Ellensburg, on any trip involving across country excursions (i.e. to Seattle, Yakima, Cle Elum, or other neighboring towns or areas) evening entertainment outside of the city, is requested to have a sponsor, chaperone, or older responsible person in the car.

Student domiciled under the jurisdiction of the school, who, for any reason (including break down of car, violation of any written or unwritten rule or custom of the school, accident, running out of gas, failure to catch a ride home, or other kindred reasons) are guilty of violations of the known and understood rules of the school in this regard are automatically deprived of the privilege of making out of town trips by automobile.

14. Student Government.

Student government in each hall is administered by the house council and proctors, advised by the housemother and her assistant. More complete information is given under “Dormitory Associations.”

The responsibility for further student government may be undertaken by either or both halls as the need and desire for same arise.

CWC OFFERS A WELL ROUNDED PHYSICAL ACTIVITY PROGRAM
WHAT TO DO IF YOU'RE STUCK

(With thanks for suggestions to the WWC Navigator, an outstanding fine student handbook)

The complexity of college life sometimes leads to troubles for the uninitiated, but fear not, for at CWC there are several straws to reach for if you start to sink . . . Here are a few ways to reach dry land if you get stuck.

DO YOU WANT TO GET ACQUAINTED?

Look at the opening week schedule and see the events planned for your entertainment. Be a good sport and try them all once. Before you know it you will feel like an old hand at it instead of a green freshman. Keep an eye on the social calendar posted in the Administration Building opposite the business office. Plan to take in some of the social events listed—assemblies, concerts, dances, plays, recitals, and forums, and you'll find there is something to college life besides duty. Drop in at the Wednesday night dances—everyone else does. Freshman women look forward to the Sunday night firesides given by the Iyoptians. Look for your invitation. You'll have it soon.

HAVE YOU RUN OUT OF FUNDS? DO YOU NEED SOME MONEY FOR AN EMERGENCY?

You can apply to the Student Benefit Committee for loans up to $50.00. Mr. Whitney is chairman and is always glad to advise you. There is a special fund for women students which grants emergency loans without interest for a few days. For complete information look under Student Benefit Fund.

HAVE YOU A QUESTION ABOUT YOUR LIVING QUARTERS?

See the Dean of Men or Dean of Women, or look under Housing Regulations. A special bulletin for off-campus women is available from the Dean of Women's office.

DO YOU WISH TO CHANGE YOUR PROGRAM, DROP OR ADD A SUBJECT?

Make an appointment to see Mr. Whitney, Registrar. He will tell you if it's advisable. It will save everyone time if you look first at the information given under Change of Registration.

DO YOU NEED BOOKS, SUPPLIES, MAGAZINES, CANDY, OR COKES?

Get in the habit of trading at the College Book Store. It is on the first floor of the Administration Building.

ARE YOU SICK? DO YOU WANT TO STAY HOME IN BED?

You do? Well, just call Black 5571 before you miss any classes and ask as speak to the nurse. Tell her your troubles. Or you can go to the infirmary located in the east wing of Sue Lombard hall. You pay a health fee along with your tuition which entitles you to receive treatment from efficient nurses and doctors who will care for your ills, great or small. All students should be familiar with infirmary regulation, reprinted in this booklet.
DID YOUR HOME TOWN FRIEND WRITE AND SAY HE WAS COMING UP FOR THE DANCE THIS WEEK END?

Apply to the Dean of Women for a Social Privilege card. It costs 50c and your friend may use it for a whole school quarter.

DID YOU MISS THAT IMPORTANT PHONE CALL BECAUSE YOU FORGOT TO LOOK AT THE TELEPHONE SLIPS POSTED ON THE DORMITORY BULLETIN BOARD?

Get a habit of glancing over this board every time you pass. You may miss something important if you don't.

DID YOU EARN A LETTER IN HIGH SCHOOL?

If you did, that's fine, but don't let anyone see you wearing it around CWC. You can wear the sweater if you take off the letter.

DO YOU WANT TO GET INTO STUDENT ACTIVITIES?

Activities are an important part of the college program. They help to give you a well-rounded personality, and help more than you realize in fitting you for your future profession. The best way of getting into activities is to become an active member of your dormitory or off-campus associations. Volunteer to help out whenever you can and never, never fail to do something you said you would. Get acquainted with your club officers and with the leaders of the Associated Students and the Associated Women Students. They are always glad to know students who are willing to contribute something to the school. In selecting AWS committees, activity record cards are used. Women students make these out each quarter to indicate their interest in activities and the cards are kept on file in the Dean's office.

WANT TO GO TO A SHOW FRIDAY OR SATURDAY NIGHT?

If you fetch along your student pass you can get in for a lot less at local theaters.

DO YOU WANT A PART TIME JOB?

Go in and have a talk with Mr. Barto for campus or off-campus employment. Complete details under Student Employment Service.

HAVE YOU A LOT OF EXTRA TIME?

Why not join one of CWC's many clubs? Turn to section on organizations in the CW SEER and find out all about them.

ARE YOU HAVING A SWELL TIME AT CWC?

Are you surprised to find that you don't need to study? Do you find that class attendance isn't really necessary? You do? Well, brother, watch out! Those mid-quarter tests will stop your clock for you.
DO OTHER PEOPLE SMILE AT YOU AND SAY HELLO?

If they do, they're not crazy, they're just trying to be friendly. Why don't you check up on your own powers? Try grinning back. Try a cheery reply. It won't hurt you any. You'll be surprised how fast you get to know people.

DO YOU KNOW HOW TO PUT YOUR BEST FOOT FORWARD?

The library has some books that will be helpful to you: Dorothy Stratton and Helen Schleman, YOUR BEST FOOT FORWARD; Randall B. Hamrick, HOW TO MAKE GOOD IN COLLEGE; Guillulma Alsop and Marie McBride, SHE'S OFF TO COLLEGE; Nell Gilse, SUSAN BE SMOOTH; Margaret E. Bennett, COLLEGE AND LIFE; Leal A. Headley, HOW TO STUDY IN COLLEGE.

LOSE YOUR SHIRT IN A POKER GAME?

Or mislaid that fountain pen your favorite Aunt Susie gave you? Chances are you won't find the shirt, but you might find the pen at the Lost and Found Department located in the Business Office. Articles found about the campus should be turned in at the Business Office where the grief-stricken owner may call for them. Unclaimed articles are auctioned off at the end of each year, so for Aunt Susie's sake use the Lost and Found to keep track of your stray belongings.

DO YOU THINK THERE'S SOMETHING THE MATTER WITH YOUR BILL?

If any misunderstanding comes up concerning your bill at the Business Office feel free to consult with that office about it—they will be glad to help you clear it up. And here's a tip: Don't wait till the last day to pay your bills... it'll be easier both on you and the Business Office personnel.

If any of your problems can't be solved by one of the above means consult Dean Holmes or Dean Elworthy. They're old hands at meeting a "crisis" and are rarely stumped. Try giving them a whirl when things go wrong.
THE LIBRARY

Considerate silence is required of all students using the library. Library etiquette also demands that when the bell rings for a change in classes students who are leaving the reading room do so in the quietest way possible. There are always fellow students about you who are not leaving when you are and who would appreciate a minimum of disturbing noise.

All library materials are the property of the state and their safekeeping is in the hands of the student body. Particular care should be taken against mutilation and loss of books. The honor of the college depends upon the personal integrity of its students.

Feel free at any time to ask the librarian at the loan desk to explain any of the workings of the library which may elude you. She is glad to be of assistance. The library is valuable to you as a student insofar as you know how to use it and as you do use it. I suggest as a help to you in learning about the library Jessie Boyd's book: BOOKS, LIBRARIES, AND YOU.

MARGARET S. MOUNT
Librarian.

HOURS

8:00 a. m. to 5:15 p. m. Monday through Friday
7:15 p. m. to 9:30 p. m. Monday through Thursday
2:00 p. m. to 5:15 p. m. Saturday
2:30 p. m. to 5:00 p. m. Sunday
7:15 p. m. to 9:00 p. m. Sunday

The library is composed of the following collections: the main collection on three stack levels; the Northwest History collection, the Library Seminar collection of children's books, and the Textbook collection, all housed in the Northwest room on the third stack level; the Reference collection which is located in the Reference collection which is located in the Reference room on the main floor; and the Reserve Book collection adjacent to the reading room.

CIRCULATION

1. All stack books with green cards may be withdrawn for a period of two weeks and renewed for two weeks if not in demand. Those with orange cards may be charged for three days.

2. Northwest history books and textbooks circulate for three day periods.

3. A fine of two cents a day is charged for overdue circulating books.

4. Reference books and Library Seminar books are not to be taken from the library.

RESERVE BOOKS

Certain stack books are placed on reserve shelves to make them more readily available to all students. They are to be charged for use in the library for periods of one hour. They may be checked out for home use fifteen minutes before each library closing time, and are due within the first fifteen minutes of the following library opening hour. A fine of ten cents an hour is charged for overdue reserve books.

PERIODICALS

Current periodicals may be found in black covers in the reading room, at the reserve desk, and on the three day stack shelves. Those in the last group may be checked out at the circulation desk for three days. All bound periodicals will be found in the stacks. They are not to be taken from the library.

COLLEGE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL LIBRARY

All college students are invited to use the library located on the second floor of the College Elementary School. A schedule of hours when the library is open is posted on the bulletin board in the College Library.

STUDENT BENEFIT FUND

Several years ago, the graduating students assessed themselves one dollar each to create the Student Benefit Fund. Since that time, each student who has been certified has contributed one dollar to the fund. This last year, more than one hundred students borrowed different amounts ranging from five dollars for a few days, to fifty dollars with the payment running into the next school year. Most of the loans were paid out of funds which the students were earning by campus work. Those loans running into next year are to be repaid out of the monthly school warrant.

In addition to the CWC Student Benefit Fund other loan funds exist to which we have access. The Washington State Federation of Junior Women's Clubs has established an emergency fund for women students. From this fund women students can secure loans up to $10.00 for a period not exceeding two weeks to tide over in an emergency or to take care of unexpected expense. There are also loan funds maintained for the benefit of students by the following: The Kiwanis Club, The Rotary Club, The P. E. O., and the Ellensburg Study Club.

After the application for a loan has been approved by the committee, it goes to Mr. Courson who makes out a note which is signed by the borrower. Short-time loans which are to be paid out of current student earnings are made without a guarantor. Loans which run for a period beyond the close of the college year must be secured by the applicant obtaining the signature of someone who will pay the loan in case of the inability, through illness or death, of the borrower to make payment.

The policy of the committee is to spread the advantages of the fund to as large a number of students as possible. That accounts for the limitation of fifty dollars as a maximum to anyone. To date, interest at the rate of six per cent has been charged. This seems large in view of present interest rates. However, so many loans are for small amounts and for short periods that the overhead is much greater than it would be if fewer loans for longer amounts were granted.

H. J. WHITNEY, Chairman
STUDENT EMPLOYMENT SERVICE

Many students at CWC carry part-time jobs with their academic schedules. Some are employed on the campus while others find employment in the city. A student employment office is maintained for the purpose of counseling and assisting students with their individual problems relative to employment while in attendance at college. This office is in the Administrative Building, room 101.

Students who are employed on the campus earn on an average $15.00 a month. Students employed in private homes receive room and board in return for four hours' work a day and six hours on Saturday. Application for campus and off-campus employment should be made either by mail or in person through the student employment office. It is advisable to file the application well in advance of the term during which the work is desired, particularly if the application is for campus employment. For the past two years there have been more than enough openings for room and board positions to supply the demand so that ordinarily a student with satisfactory recommendations can secure such a position.

The Off-Campus Men's Club sponsors a service in conjunction with the student employment office that assists students in finding regular part-time employment and odd jobs in the city. Students may register for this service after the opening of each term upon payment of a nominal registration fee of 25c. This fee is charged to cover cost of printing, stationery, postage, and other incidentals.

HAROLD BARTO
Director of Employment

INFIRMARY REGULATIONS

1. A student must report his illness to the infirmary nurse before he misses any classes.

2. If the absence has been reported, excuses may be obtained at the infirmary.

3. Each student is responsible for his own excuse. To be valid it must be turned in to the Registrar's office within one week of his absence.

4. Infirmary visiting hours are from 2:30 to 3:30 and from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. No visiting is allowed between opposite sexes.

5. Office hours are: week days, 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.; Saturdays, 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 m.; Sunday, 9:00 to 10:30 a.m. Please observe these hours. In case of emergency call Black 5571.

COLLEGE BOOK STORE

The college book store is run by the college for student convenience. The book store is a member of the Western College Book Store Association and as such is able to give the students the same benefits as received by students in other colleges as regards textbooks and other materials. A policy of "serve yourself" is maintained by the staff who welcome and appreciate any suggestions concerning the management of the store.

HOW TO STUDY

You'll find that every college course requires a certain amount of outside study. The amount of time required will vary according to the type of course. If you're wise you'll organize and plan your time so that you can prepare for every class. Probably the biggest problem in studying is keeping at it, for interruptions are frequent and temptations to dawdle are great. The best way to cope with this situation is to learn how to spend your time most profitably, how to concentrate, what study conditions are best for you. You'll find very soon that regular physical exercise is necessary for healthy mental activity. Though you can probably get more privacy by studying late at night, don't do it. Sleep is too valuable to sacrifice, for given regular sleep you will be on your toes and never miss a trick that goes on. When at home study in your room where all your materials are where you can find them, and when on the campus use the library.

Keep a notebook and organize your notes for each course. And here's a tip, study hard during the first two weeks, keep up with your assignments, don't let your work pile up, and you'll find the rest is easy. The busier you are the better job you'll do all around, and that's no joke. Get in there and pitch from the very first, for the impression you get and the impression you make during the first term may determine your success or failure in college. Expect at least two exams during the quarter and plenty of quizzes, but it won't be so tough if you keep abreast of what's going on and refuse to cram your brain the night before. Don't forget that you're a college student now and that you're responsible for planning your time, not so that you can just get by, but so that you can be proud of your record.

If you have studied regularly and kept up your work and still seem to be having difficulty with the course go and talk it over with your instructor, and be sure to go before it's too late. Faculty members at CWC are known for their friendliness. They will be glad to give you suggestions to help you over the hard spots if they can recognize your sincerity in trying to help yourself.

GENERAL REGULATIONS

CLASS ATTENDANCE

A student is expected to be present at each regular meeting of all the classes to which assignment has been made, unless illness or other emergency prevents. No “cuts” are recognized.

EXCUSES

An excuse for an unavoidable absence may be obtained. If the absence was for illness, notify the college nurse at the time the absence occurs and call for the excuse when able to return to class.

If the absence was for a reason other than illness, women students apply for their excuse from the Dean of Women; men students from the Dean of Men.

EXCUSES FILED

All excuses for absences are to be filed in the office of the Registrar within one week of the time the student returns to class.

ABSENCE PENALTY

Freshman and Sophomores suffer a penalty of a deduction of one-fourth credit from the total allowed for the quarter for each unexcused absence.

CHANGE OF REGISTRATION

1. a. First-year and special students.

After assignment to class, a student who needs to make a change in schedule will consult with H. J. Whitney, Registrar.

b. Advanced Students.

The head of the major department must approve any changes in study schedule after registration has been completed, but the change must be recorded in the Registrar's Office.

2. No credit can be given for any work not indicated on the Official Study Schedule card on file in the Registrar's Office.

3. Students may not withdraw from a course, even with the consent of the registration officers, after certain dates without having a technical failure (TE) recorded for that course.
GENERAL REGULATIONS (Continued)

Autumn Quarter, a W will be recorded up to and including Friday, Oct. 17. After that date, a TE.

Winter Quarter, a W will be recorded up to and including Friday, Jan. 23. After that date, a TE.

Spring Quarter, a W will be recorded up to and including Friday, April 17. After that date, a TE.

4. The latest date one may enroll in any course for full credit:
   - Autumn Quarter, October 13
   - Winter Quarter, January 19
   - Spring Quarter, April 13

WITHDRAWAL FROM COLLEGE

After registration has been completed, withdrawal from college follows certain definite steps:

1. All students, living on or off campus, first secure withdrawal slips from the office of Dean of Men or Dean of Women. Students must obtain clearance signatures of the Dean of Men or Dean of Women, the Librarian, the Registrar, and the Postmistress.

2. If the student is living in one of the dormitories, clearance from Housemother and the director of dormitories must be obtained also.

3. Three-fourth of fees paid will be refunded if withdrawal takes place during the first two weeks of any quarter.

STUDENT LOAD

Sixteen credits per quarter is the standard load. Students who have a heavy work program should carry less than 16 hours. Those whose grade point quotient is two will not be allowed to carry more than seventeen credits without the consent of the Registrar. Those whose grade point quotient is three or more may carry eighteen credits without special permission.

MARKING AND POINT SYSTEM

The letters A, B, C, D, E, are used to indicate the quality of work done. If a student withdraws from class with the recommendation of the instructor, the advisor, or the Registrar a “W” will be recorded. If unapproved withdrawal takes place after certain dates a “TE” is recorded. I (incomplete) may be given in certain instances. The “incomplete” must be made up the first quarter the student is in residence after the incomplete is given.

To determine the grade quotient count each A, 4 points; each B, 3 points; each C, 2 points, and each D, 1 point. The quotient will be the number obtained by dividing the total number of points earned by the number of credits. The grades received in physical activity courses and in music activity are not used in determining the grade point quotient.

SCHOLARSHIP STANDARDS

Students with a grade quotient of less than 1.75 are warned. To be assigned to directed teaching, a student must have made a grade point quotient of at least 2.00 for each of the two quarters preceding the assignment. To be recommended for the degree, the cumulative grade point quotient must be at least 1.75 and at least 2.00 for the last three quarters of work.

To obtain campus employment a student must have a grade point quotient of 1.75.

TERMINAL EXAMINATION

A final examination is given in each class and the final grade is a composite of daily grades and of the examination grade. There is a charge of $1.00 for examinations given at a time other than the scheduled period.

CATALOG

Each student in college is entitled to have one catalog, and will be held for the requirements published in the catalog of the year when the student was first admitted. More complete information on some of the points listed above as well as complete information in regard to curricular requirements and descriptions of courses will be found in the catalog.

Each student is responsible for keeping a record of work taken, for planning the work of each quarter, and for seeing that all requirements are met.

A SHOT OF A THRILLING SCENE IN THE PLC-CWC BASKETBALL TILT LAST YEAR
GENERAL SOCIAL REGULATIONS

Although the constitution of the Associated Students is being revised it was thought advisable to include in this booklet provisions for the regulation of social events for the guidance of student organizations, their social commissioners, and their advisers. Excerpts from the existing Associated Students' Constitution follow:

1. Copies of the special calendar are kept in the office of the Dean of Women, in the case opposite the Business Office, and in the office of Mr. Harold Barto.

2. All dates should be requested from Mr. Barto for assembly periods and from the Dean of Women for all other events. Social commissioners of all student organizations are requested to check with the Dean of Women about dates reserved for them within the first two weeks of the quarter.

3. Any unavoidable changes in dates must be recorded at least two weeks in advance.

4. Requests for places of meeting must be filed in the office of the Registrar at least a week in advance, and should also be listed with the Dean of Women for the social calendar.

5. All-school events naturally take precedence over any club or sectional event.

6. There shall not be more than three formal dances during the regular college year: Autumn quarter, Snow Ball, sponsored by the Associated Women Students, (women's invitation); Winter quarter, Colonial Ball, sponsored by the Associated Students, (men's invitation); Spring quarter, May Prom, sponsored by the Off-Campus Women's club, (women's invitation).

7. There shall not be more than two informals each quarter sponsored by various clubs.

8. In addition, there shall be informal Associated Student dances not oftener than every two weeks and only when some other dance is not scheduled. That is to say, if there are formal or informal dances scheduled, no other dance should occur within a two-weeks' period.

9. Each Wednesday night with the exception of the final week of each quarter there shall be the usual after-dinner dances from 6:30 p. m. to 8 p. m.

10. Stunt Night is held each year on the evening before the homecoming game. All acts must be submitted in full to the faculty committee appointed to review it at dress rehearsal. This committee shall be appointed by the Board of Deans.

11. Not more than one all-school social program, dance, dramatic event, concert, or any engagement except athletics, shall take place each week-end, with the exception of Freshman Week, Homecoming Week-End, and Mother's Day week-end.
CLUB REGULATIONS

1. All clubs shall file constitutions and lists of members and officers each fall in the office of the Dean of Women.

2. All clubs not already accepted by traditional usefulness on the campus must file a written application for establishment on the campus for the consideration of the Board of Deans. This application must state the purpose, the number of students interested, faculty adviser, the club's value to the college, etc.

3. Dues shall be limited to a nominal amount and no expensive equipment such as pins and other insignia shall be required of the members. This provision does not affect national or honorary organizations.

4. Each club shall have a faculty adviser who shall assist in all council meetings and decisions involving calendar events or finances.

5. No student should hold more than one office at one time in campus organizations.

6. Clubs meet regularly once a month from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays as follows:

- 1st Tuesday of each month: Kappa Pi
- 2nd Tuesday of each month: Herodoteans
- 2nd Thursday of each month: Whitbeck Club
- 3rd Tuesday of each month: ACE
- 3rd Thursday of each month: Kappa Delta Pi
- 4th Tuesday of each month: Sigma Mu Epsilon
- 4th Thursday of each month: Open for emergency meetings, council meetings, etc.
- 4th Thursday of each month: Home Economics Club

SUGGESTIONS FOR SOCIAL COMMISSIONERS

Each organization assumes the responsibility of making all arrangements for social events. After it has secured the approval of Mr. Whitney for the place of meeting, and of Mr. Barto or Miss Elworthy for the time, the following procedure should be followed:

1. The appointment of responsible committees. Women's organizations are invited to use the activity file in the Dean of Women's office, which includes information about the talents and interests of women students.

2. All supplies and equipment must be requisitioned before purchase or agreement to purchase is made. Estimates of all expenditures for social events must be approved by the club adviser or, in the case of the Associated Students and Associated Women Students' social program, by the Dean of Women.

3. Patrons and patronesses should be asked at least one week in advance and should be regarded as honored guests of the organization.

4. Plans of each committee should be approved by the club adviser.

5. The use of any dormitory equipment must be approved in advance by the director of dormitories.

6. All equipment used should be properly cared for and promptly returned.

7. Social commissioners are responsible for seeing that committees and their chairmen carry out their responsibilities satisfactorily. No student should assume responsibilities in any organization without being sure that he will have the time to carry out his duties properly and effectively.
THE ASSOCIATED STUDENTS

All students of CWC are automatically members of the Associated Students, the largest and most active organization on the campus. During the year 1941-42 the association will be headed by the following officers: President, Bob Groeschell; vice-president, Roy Wahle; treasurer, Mr. Kenneth Courson; secretary, Marion Nims; social commissioner, Vic Forsythe; sergeant-at-arms, Jim Bow; and representatives of the four classes chosen at the first class meeting of the year.

A statement of the purposes and the activities of the Associated Students by the new president follows: "The purpose of organizing a student body into a coherent group is to facilitate the execution of those demands made by the students themselves which are for the benefit of the majority. Through an effective organization activities may be undertaken which will make life more enjoyable for the students at Central Washington College. Every student contributes to this self-governing association and is entitled to certain privileges. As the college becomes more highly organized student government also must make strides forward. For this reason a new constitution will soon be presented to the students for consideration. In drawing up this constitution the council has attempted to adopt the best possible policies for the protection of student sovereignty. With the exception of regulations for social organizations and clubs no part of the old constitution has therefore been published in the SEER.

"The president of this organization is simply a moderator. The students therefore should not feel reluctant to participate in their government, voice opinions openly, criticize constructively, and contribute generously for the welfare of the group. Student officers are often handicapped by the absence of sincere criticism and honest suggestions. Any member of the Associated Students has a right to listen to the meetings of the student council and to judge for himself its governmental policies. All student suggestions will be given unbiased consideration by the council."

The activities sponsored by the Associated Students are both varied and extensive. Two formals—the Colonial Ball (winter quarter) and the Blossom Ball, (summer quarter) the weekly Wednesday night dances, and the bi-monthly Saturday night dances are all enterprises of the Associated Students. This year we are extremely fortunate in having as visitors to our campus some of the country's best known authorities in science, literature, art and music. These speakers are presented in student assemblies arranged by the organization under the supervision of Mr. Barto. Other activities to which the Associated Student contribute financial support are Homecoming, the spring and summer picnics, theater parties, community concerts, and the maintenance of the student lounge. The drama, music, and athletic programs receive support in the Associated Students' budget, as do also the publications the CAMPUS CRIER, and the CW SEER. An added project of the Associated Students for the coming year will be the establishment of a student publicity agency.
ASSOCIATED WOMEN STUDENTS

One of the two largest organizations on the campus is the Associated Women Students, an association of which all the women students automatically become members when they enter the college. The Associated Women Students sponsor during the college year many varied activities. The organization plays an active part in Freshman Week, sponsoring in cooperation with the Iyoptians a friendly "big sister" movement, a welcoming assembly for new students, a fireside for all girls, and the all-college welcoming tea for students and faculty, held the first Sunday afternoon of the quarter. Near the first of December the AWS has a busy time making secret exciting plans for the Snow Ball, a tolo and the first formal of the year.

Working toward a more closely knit relationship between on- and off-campus girls, the AWS holds once each month a mixer where "food and fun for everyone" make it easy for girls to get acquainted.

On the week end of Mother's Day guests of honor on the campus are the mothers of all women students who are invited to share with their daughters two days of college life. A continual round of festivities is planned in their honor, including a play hour sponsored by WAA, a mother-daughter tea sponsored by the faculty women, a formal banquet, and an evening program. This celebration is the AWS's crowning achievement. It is at the Mother's Day banquet that new Iyoptian members are announced. At this time also, scholarships are awarded to two outstanding women, one living in a college dormitory and one living off campus, who qualify for the awards through their high standards of scholarship and their high qualifications of leadership. The club also sponsors the Iyoptians firesides for new girls and a student faculty tea held during the Christmas season. Officers for 1941-42 are as follows: President, Marie Fitzgerald; vice-president, Barbara Fisher; treasurer, Carol Bice; secretary, Bette Fletcher; social commissioner, Margaret Cotton; Off-Campus Women's president, Betty Thomas; Kamola president, Maryon Cotton; Sue Lombard president, Barbara Lum; Iyoptian president, Mary Barnes; WAA president, Mary Bowman; courtesy chairman, Marjorie Rodman. Elections are held annually at the time of spring registration and officers are installed at a ceremony following the Mother's Day banquet. AWS faculty advisers are Miss Elworthy and Miss Michaeelsen.
RESIDENCE ORGANIZATIONS

KAMOLA AND SUE LOMBARD HALLS

The women students of each dormitory, Kamala Hall and Sue Lombard Hall, have organized house clubs for the purpose of making residence in the hall more pleasant and more profitable for each girl. Each club assumes the responsibility of self-government through a council, elected annually by all active members, and through proctors chosen by the council and housemother. Each council is represented by its president on the Associated Women Students Council and thereby shares in planning the program of women's activities. Through active participation and the assumption of responsibilities in her house club, each girl has her most convenient opportunity to get acquainted with others, to get experience in student government and activities, and to make her college life enjoyable.

The council of each house has the responsibility for encouraging and maintaining high standards of conduct among the members, for planning the expenditure of dues, for social events, books, magazines, etc., at the suggestion of the members, for discussing and approving dormitory regulations in cooperation with the housemother and the Dean of Women, and for dealing with infractions of the rules which may occur, (with the exception of those extremely serious in nature). The successful functioning of student government depends upon the leadership of the council and proctors and upon loyalty and cooperation of the members of the group. Each dormitory holds an annual formal dance and a house party each quarter. Active membership is acquired by the payment of dues, 50c per quarter. Payment of dues for the year is made at the time of registration at a table placed near the business office. All girls living in the hall are expected to become members of the organization since all girls benefit by the activities of the clubs. Meetings are held twice a month at 10 o'clock in the evening.

Officers for the coming year are as follows:

Sue Lombard Hall, president, Barbara Lum; vice-president, Mary Shaw; social commissioner, Betty Zoe Layman; secretary, Joan Beidleman; treasurer, June Smith.

Kamola Hall, president, Maryon Cotton; vice-president, Elva Sehmel; social commissioner, Joyce Light; secretary, Donna Freeman; treasurer, Maxine Stark.

The housemothers in each hall, Mrs. Rainey in Sue Lombard and Mrs. Reynolds in Kamola, act as advisers to their groups and to them girls come freely for wise counsel.
MUNSON HALL

President Woodrow Wilson with vice-president Jack Hubbard, secretary-treasurer, Vern Dean, social commissioner, William De-Gooher, and sergeant-at-arms, Glenn Farris will head Munson hall activities during the fall quarter. This organization has as its purposes to assume responsibility for self-government and to promote the harmonious living of residents. Each resident of the hall is eligible to membership on the payment of due of 50¢ per quarter. Payment for the year may be made at the time of registration.

The club sponsors an active social program, including a fireside during opening week, participation in the homecoming celebration, firesides, and during the spring quarter a breakfast to honor faculty men. In addition, cards, card-tables, newspapers, magazines, and various other equipment are furnished by the association. The use of these is granted to all who become members. The association advised by the housemother, Mrs. Faye Maynard, and the Dean of Men sets up rules for the guidance of its members. These rules are printed in the booklet under Dormitory Regulations.

OFF-CAMPUS WOMEN'S CLUB

The Off-Campus Women's Club was organized to promote a spirit of fellowship and sociability and to serve as a unifying force among off-campus women. All women students who are not residents of the dormitories automatically become members of the off-campus club upon payment of dues which are $1.00 per year or 50¢ per quarter.

The group meets once a month for social mixer and business meeting. Meetings are held in the Off-Campus Women's club room, room 102 in the Administration Building. The principal activities of the Off-Campus Women's Club are as follows: Social mixers during each quarter, an annual banquet at which the club scholarship award is presented, and the May Prom which they plan and which they have carried out successfully for many years. In past years the club has also sponsored a party for off-campus men. Since the formation of the Off-Campus Men's Club the two clubs will alternate sponsoring a similar party.

The council for 1941-42 is as follows: Betty Thomas, president, and the representative of the group on the Associated Women Students council; vice-president, Celeste Hayden; secretary, Janice Ferrell; treasurer, Harriet Bilbie; social commissioner, Carrol Burrage. The adviser of the organization is Miss Dorthalee Horne.
OFF-CAMPUS MEN'S CLUB

The newest and perhaps the most needed organization on the campus was made a reality last spring when plans for an off-campus men's club were formulated by off-campus student leaders and approved by the Board of Deans. Working as a social and a service group, this organization will strive to unite off-campus men in participating in the various social and cultural activities of the school. Another vital function the Off-Campus Men's Club will assume will be to act as a coordinating agency for the group with regard to living accommodations, job placement, and other campus organizations.

Membership is open to all men of Central Washington College living off-campus. Since this is a new organization, activities required for membership will be precedences established during its initial year. Meetings are to be called by the president whenever it is necessary to transact business. Dues are 50¢ per quarter, payable at the time of registration. The social program for 1941-42 includes cooperation with Munson Hall in sponsoring a fireside for new students the first Friday evening of the new quarter; a bean-feed for all off-campus men before the first football game; and a dance for off-campus women during the spring quarter.

The officers for the coming year are as follows: President, Roy Wahle; vice-president, Bob Groeschell; secretary, Cortland Carmody; treasurer, Lloyd Rowley; social commissioner, Jim North, and four class representatives to be chosen in fall quarter. Faculty adviser is Mr. George Sogge.

CLASS ORGANIZATIONS

On the second Thursday of the fall quarter during the 10 o'clock assembly hour all classes meet to organize and select officers. Officers for each class are as follows: president, vice-president, social commissioner, secretary, treasurer, and representatives on the Associated Student Council. Places of meetings are indicated on the opening week schedule.

SERVICE HONORARIES

THE CLAW CHAPTER OF THE INTERCOLLEGIATE KNIGHTS

The Claw Chapter of the Intercollegiate Knights is a member of the national International Knights' Service Fraternity. The Knights are dedicated to giving of service to the college with "Service, Sacrifice, and Loyalty" as their goals. The "IK's" quite effectively justify their existence by such services as patrolling various athletic functions, setting up bleachers and canvas, acting as guides to the campus during Freshman Week, assisting with homecoming and other social functions, as well as nominating the homecoming queen each year.

The fraternity usually includes about thirty active members representing all classes. New members are chosen from freshmen who have expressed their desires to become members, who attend meetings regularly, and who perform such duties as are assigned them by the Duke. After serving as pages for one quarter and after having their records closely checked they are voted upon by the club. Occasionally a few members are chosen from the sophomore class.

The fee of the club include local dues of 25c per quarter, national dues of 50c per year, and a national initiation fee of $2.00. Meetings are held weekly on Thursday in room 309 of the Administration Building. Members wear either white or red sweaters with their traditional emblem placed on the front.

The Claw Chapter is governed by the national organization and its constitution as well as its local by-laws. Each year a national convention is held to determine policies for the ensuing year.

Officers of the local chapter are elected annually and include Honorable Duke, Jim Bow; Worthy Scribe, John Dart; Chancellor of the Exchequer, John Chambers; Historian, Tom Bridges; Jester, Smiley Clawson; Guard, Verne Dallman. Faculty adviser is Dr. Loren Sparks.

IYOPTIANS

The Iyoptian Club is an honorary service organization made up of twenty sophomore women. Although it was originally known as the Sophomore Service Society, after it was decided to remain a local organization the constitution was revised and a new name was selected. New members are chosen each spring from a list of freshman girls suggested by faculty members, Iyoptian members, and members of the Associated Women Students' Council. Announcement of pledges to the organization is made at the annual Mother's Day banquet. Members are elected on the basis of character, leadership, participation in activities, service to the school, and a scholastic record of 2.5.

This year the Iyoptians sponsored the Big Sister plan on the campus in an attempt to give freshman girls a right start toward an enjoyable and successful college year. Each big sister is given a little sister whom she helps register, guides about the campus, accompanies to opening week activities. In general, the big sisters try to make the first few days away from home and friends happy ones.

Other club activities include a series of Sunday evening firesides in honor of new women students and assistance at homecoming activities, Senior Day, music festival, all-school picnic, Mother's Day week end, school dances, and commencement. Members may be identified by their white coat-sweaters upon which a distinctive crimson and black emblem is placed.

The officers for 1941-42 are as follows: President, Mary Barnes; vice-president, Bette Fletcher; secretary, Maryalice Phelps; treasurer, Harriet Hendrick; historians, Evelyn Conant and Donna Freeman. This coming year for the first time the president of the Iyoptians becomes a member of the Associated Women Students Council. The faculty adviser is Miss Louise Brakel.
PUBLICATIONS

THE CAMPUS CRIER

The CRIER is the student newspaper, issued weekly. It is supported by Associated Student funds and advertising by local merchants. Issued each Thursday, all students are entitled to copies.

The CRIER serves as a bulletin board to present information about all newsworthy happenings at the college; as a forum for presentation of student opinion, and also offers feature articles.

Journalism credit is given for CRIER work. In addition a pin award system is planned for installation this year.

Herb Legg, a senior from Kittitas, has been appointed by the Associated Student Council to be editor this year. Business manager is Elva Sehmel, the first girl to hold that position in many years. Dr. MacRae is faculty adviser.

Herb would like to have a large staff of reporters and can supply assignments for anyone who turn up at a CRIER meeting, and so if you have journalistic leanings he'll be glad to see you. Staff meetings are held every Thursday at four o'clock in A401, the CRIER office on the fourth floor of the Administration Building. The organization meeting for this Autumn quarter is scheduled for four o'clock, Monday, September 29 in the CRIER office—why not start your reporting job with the very first meeting?

THE HYAKEM

The annual publication of the college is called the HYAKEM. If you haven't seen the elegant one published last spring ask one of last year's students to loan his—it's a book worth seeing. The HYAKEM also is supported by Associated Student funds and by advertising. All fall and winter students receive the HYAKEM at the end of the spring quarter, the charge for the book being included as part of the regular registration fee.

The officers will be chosen early in fall quarter by the Associated Student Council in consultation with Mr. Hogue, faculty adviser, and there will be room for many reporters and photographers. Watch the bulletin boards and the CRIER for notices of a HYAKEM meeting, particularly if you are interested in becoming a staff photographer or writer.

THE CW SEER

The SEER is a revision of the old student handbook, which was called the “W” BOOK. It is intended to provide students with as much information as possible to make them familiar with all phases of college life. The revision was a major task, for all of the material had to be completely revised, requiring many consultations with deans, faculty committees, and the Associated Student Council. The work was begun early in spring quarter of 1941 under a Planning Committee consisting of Maryon Cotton, Ham Howard, Lloyd Mitchell, Jim North, Wayne Roberg, Loren Troxel, and Roy Wahle. An Editorial Committee completed the work during summer quarter, writing the material and arranging the layouts. On this committee were Betty Colwell, Editor, and Alpha Allen, Jim Bow, Charles Cooke, Donna Freeman, Ham Howard, and Herb Legg. Miss Elworthy was the able adviser for both committees, and handled the faculty's contributions to the work.
ACE

The purpose of the Association for Childhood Education, of which the Meisner chapter is established on our campus, is to disseminate knowledge of the movement for the education of young children, to bring into active cooperation all childhood education interests, to promote the progressive type of education in nursery schools, kindergartens, and primary grades, and to raise the standard of professional training of teachers and leaders in this field. Any student interested in kindergarten-primary education is eligible to membership in the club on condition of active participation and regular attendance at meetings. The average number of members is about seventy-five; dues are 50c per quarter.

Social activities of the group include a welcoming breakfast and a homecoming banquet. The club also sponsors a Christmas party for children of the nursery school, junior primary, and kindergarten, participates in national and state professional activities, and benefits from a professional talk each month, arranged by the group. Officers for 1941-42 are: Helen Hill, president; Charlotte White, vice-president; June Smith, secretary; Betty Pyne, treasurer; Kay Taylor, social commissioner; Margaret Hope, publicity chairman. Faculty adviser is Miss Lucille Penn.

THE HERODOTEANS

An organization of students majoring or minoring in the field of history, the Herodoteans have as their principal purpose the promotion of interest in history through group discussion and study. Members are chosen by the group and must have at least a B grade average. The average number of members is twenty-five and one meeting a month is held.

The principal activity of the club is a series of three forum and discussion meetings held during the year in which members of the faculty, invited speakers, and students participate. The Herodoteans also have an annual bean feed for members and their friends. Club dues are 25c per quarter.

Officers for this year are: President, Elva Sehmel; vice-president, Ilene Woods; secretary-treasurer, Bob Brainard. Faculty adviser is Dr. Vernon Carstensen.
HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The purpose of the recently organized Home Economics Club is to promote a spirit of cooperation and friendliness among home economics students and to give them an appreciation of the broader expansions of their field. Creative arts and activities which will develop worthy experiences are encouraged and the professional opportunities in the field are stressed. Membership in the club is open to all home economics majors and minors, the membership averaging about sixty in number. There is no other formal requirement for membership aside from the payment of dues of 25c per quarter. However, the club sponsors worthwhile projects such as the making of clothes for the nursery school children, skits which carry out certain themes, such as table service, etiquette, etc. The group's major project is the sponsoring of an annual fashion show in cooperation with the AWS.

Officers for this year are: President, Helen Camozzy; vice-president, Marie Kordes; secretary, Edith Hartzell; treasurer, Josephine George; reporter, Frances Viducich. The group is under the guidance of Miss Helen Michaelson.

KAPPA DELTA PI

Kappa Delta Pi is an international honorary in education, dedicated to the encouragement of higher intellectual and scholastic standards and to the recognition of outstanding contributions to education. Delta Omicron Chapter in carrying out the purposes of the organization sponsors several activities during the school year. Kappa Delta Pi honors freshmen with high scholarship by issuing recognition cards and by entertaining them at tea. The organization also sponsors a book review each quarter and participates in additional research.

Members of Kappa Delta Pi are chosen from juniors, seniors, and faculty members. Candidates are invited to membership by the vote of the local chapter. Qualifications are as follows: a. At least full junior standing; b. General scholarship of B or more; c. Work in education completed or if in the process of completion to the extent of at least six semester hours if elected in junior year and twelve semester hours if elected during senior year; d. Average of B in education and psychology courses; e. Teaching as a chosen field of work and indication of success in teaching; f. Manifestation of desirable social habits; g. Active participation in other clubs and campus activities.

National dues for the organization are $1.50 annually. Local dues are 75c a quarter. Officers heading Omicron Chapter for 1941-42 include counselor, Mary Simpson; president, Loren Troxel; vice-president and social commissioner, Kay Sperry; corresponding secretary, Lois Hammill; recording secretary, Dorothy Stevens; treasurer, Woodrow Wilson; historian and reporter, Herb Legg.
KAPPA PI

Kappa Pi, a national art honorary, was founded to promote interest in art among college students, to bring art departments of the various schools closer together, to know the work of other students through exhibits and the Sketch Book, to stimulate higher scholarship, and to recognize potential and professional ability. The membership averages about fifteen in number and consists of those who have shown interest and desire for active participation in art functions and activities in the school and community. Junior standing is required with a grade average of B or better. Regular attendance at meetings is required and also active participation in any project undertaken by the group. A trip is planned each year to some point of art interest. Other activities of the group include helping with dance decorations and making original Christmas cards. The national initiation fee is $5.00 per initiate.

Officers are: President, Carol Bice; treasurer, Roberta Gower; secretary, Betty Bond. Faculty sponsors are Miss Edna Spurgeon and Mr. Reino Randall.

LUTHERAN STUDENTS ASSOCIATION

To foster better Christian fellowship and study among Lutheran students is the objective of the Lutheran Students Association. Any Lutheran college student or any student indicating interest is welcomed into the membership. Dues are twenty-five cents per quarter. Miss Mabel Anderson of the college faculty is adviser. Officers are: President, Frieda Heberlein; vice-president, Lee Johnson; secretary-treasurer, Caroline Kluth.

MASKERS AND JESTERS

Any student interested in any phase of drama, whether it be acting or curtain raising, will be interested in Maskers and Jesters. The club is organized for the purpose of promoting cooperation and friendliness among students who take part in theater work. Projects for the year tentatively include a homecoming skit, a Hallowe'en dance, and a talent assembly. Students eligible for membership are those who have taken part in one or more productions or who have served for a satisfactory period of time as a stage worker. Candidates must receive the approval of the existing membership. Dues are 40c a quarter.

Officers are: master masker, Joyce Light; minor masker, Don Drysdale; pen masker, Marie Fitzgerald; money masker, Kenneth Trimble; fun masker, Lorraine Moberg. Faculty adviser is Mr. Russell Lembke.
NEWMAN CLUB

Newman Club is a Catholic club of culture and fellowship, fostering the spiritual, intellectual, and social interests of the Catholic students of CWC. Membership averages forty, and the club is active in sponsoring activities on the campus. Dues are fifty cents per quarter. Officers for 1941-42 are: President, Roy Wahle; vice-president, Mira Archibald; secretary, Jean Kiezling; social commissioner, Frances Viducich; treasurer, Eugene Marx; reporter, Val Bedard.

SIGMA MU EPSILON

Correlating activities in music on the campus is the aim of Sigma Mu Epsilon. Main projects for the year for the college music organization are presenting student recitals, maintaining the music library, ushering at concerts, and assisting in the management of the Central Washington School Music Convention. Average membership of Sigma Mu Epsilon is forty. Members are chosen from applicants who have shown sincere interest in music and who have fulfilled activity requirements. Initiation fee is $1.00; dues, 30c a quarter.

The following officers will head Sigma Mu Epsilon during 1941-42: President, Clifton Alford; vice-president, Ralph Manzo; secretary, Margaret Scott; treasurer, Lidabeth Onstott; social commissioner, Marion Nims.

THE WHITBECK CLUB

Co-Presidents Helen Westrope and Harriet Hogue, advised by Dr. R. M. Shaw, will lead the Whitbeck Club in its activities for 1941-42.

The club sponsors social occasions for those students who are interested in geography, and creates interest in geography and travel by sponsoring travel talks. In addition to this, once each year the club sponsors a speaker for a student body assembly. By merely signifying an interest in the club any student is given consideration for membership. Dues for the organization are 25c a quarter.
DRAMATICS

Central Washington College has one of the finest dramatic departments in the Northwest. During the year a number of plays are produced. Everyone is welcome to try out for play parts and many of them have won fine roles without previous experience. There are a variety of activities in addition to acting centered in dramatic productions. Credit may also be earned toward the dramatics honorary, Maskers and Jesters, by working on building, painting, property, or costume crews or as publicity writers and printers. For other information ask the drama director Mr. Russell Lembke or any member of Maskers and Jesters.

RADIO

For students who have had some experience in acting, or had speech and voice work, there are opportunities to participate in weekly radio broadcasts on the campus. Students with the necessary background prerequisites may earn college credit in RADIO WORKSHOP, offered this autumn for the first time.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

The Music Department offers three organizations, A Cappella Choir, Band, and Orchestra, which are open for participation by all students in school. These organizations offer one hour of credit each per quarter.

The a cappella choir is composed of from 110 to 125 members each quarter. From this number a Concert Choir of 60 voices is selected which makes most of the public appearances. The choir meets four times each week at 1 o'clock. Its special purposes are to provide a good choral organization for programs and concerts through student participation. It gives at least one concert each quarter and during the spring quarter the choir takes a week's tour of the state giving concerts before high school and church audiences. During the past two years the choir has sung for over 30,000 people.

The band and orchestra each give three concerts during the year as well as appearing on many other programs. The band plays for athletic events and pep rallies and is one of the best coordinators of school spirit on the campus. The band was organized three years ago and has grown in size to approximately 50 members. It meets three times weekly at the 3 o'clock period. The orchestra meets Monday night at 7 o'clock and Tuesday and Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock. It has a membership of approximately 35 members. Both band and orchestra make several short trips each year to appear before high schools and other audiences.

Students who wish to participate in one of the music organizations are urged to make known their desires by registering for their choice or choices at the time of registration. Membership may be maintained in both choir and orchestra simultaneously.
ATHLETICS

A well-rounded program in athletics, both varsity and intramural, is maintained at Central Washington College. Sweater awards are made for participation in varsity football, basketball, tennis, golf and track. A decathlon contest is carried on through the three quarters, Autumn, Winter, and Spring, and the boy with the highest score at the end of the participation in May is given the honor of having his name engraved on the George Ritttenour trophy. All men students are eligible for participation in the contest. The athletic program at CWC is directed by Leo Nicholson and George Mabee. Head football coach is Phil Sarboe.

ATHLETIC AWARDS

Athletic awards are voted by the Student Council upon recommendation of the Athletic Board. An athlete to receive the sweater award must, during the quarter in which he earns his award, earn sufficient credits to make him eligible for the succeeding quarter of competition.

ATHLETIC ACHIEVEMENT AWARDS

1. J. B. Moser award for the football player with the highest scholarship during the playing season . . . Engraving of name on plaque.

2. Rotary Inspiration award to football man elected greatest inspiration by his teammates.

3. Lee Scott award to basketball player voted by teammates as greatest inspiration.

4. Elk’s Club Captain’s plaque—Engraving of name of each sport’s captain.

5. Junior Chamber of Commerce—Engraving of CWC Conference Record holders in track.

TOMLINSON FIELD

The college athletic field has recently been named Tomlinson Field, in honor of Jack Tomlinson, captain and star half-back of the 1940 eleven, who passed away last year. Through the efforts of the Crimson “W” Club, a plaque in memory of Jack was presented to the student body and now hangs in the entrance hall of the gymnasium.
CRIMSON "W" CLUB

Officers of the Crimson "W" Club for 1941-42 will be Charles Cooke, president; Buster Morris, vice-president; Pat Martin, secretary-treasurer; Glenn Farris, sergeant-at-arms; faculty adviser, Mr. Leo Nicholson.

The purpose of the Crimson "W" Club is to create a spirit of cooperation and good will among the men students of CWC. The club is also a service organization and contributes to the college in various ways during the year. The "W" Club sponsors a smoker, is responsible for distributing programs at athletic contests, and in general participates in many other school activities. To be eligible for the "W" Club a student must have earned a letter award in any of the five major sports. He must meet the club's requirements of active participation and willingness to serve and must be voted in by a three-fourths majority of the club.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The purpose of the Women's Athletic Association is to sponsor a program including both sports and dance for students who have special interest and talent in these activities. The WAA cooperates with the health education department in promoting health, physical efficiency, athletic accomplishment, and good sportsmanship in its broadest sense. Women students fulfilling the following requirements receive invitations to membership from the WAA council:

1. Either active membership in the dance club and recommendation of adviser, or attendance at the required number of practices decided upon by the sports manager and her committee, and participation in tournament or special day programs.

2. Payment of dues of $1.00 per year or 50c per quarter.

3. Regular attendance at WAA meetings.

Sports include volleyball, archery, basketball, badminton, tennis, and baseball. Social activities for the year include a formal initiation banquet during winter quarter, a play-night each quarter, a homecoming breakfast and a two-day camping trip held each spring.

Officers for 1941-42 are: President, Mary Bowman; vice-president, Ruth Plank; secretary, Jackie Laws; social commissioner, Harriet Hendrick; sports manager, Marjorie Haines. Faculty adviser is Miss Jesse Pluckett.
Customs and Traditions

Here are last year's Frosh as they prepare the Homecoming bonfire. One of the first tasks of this year's Frosh will be the building of a bigger and better pyre.
CUSTOMS AND TRADITIONS

SCHOOL COLORS—Crimson and black.

ALMA MATER—Our favorite song; it is sung at the close of all Associated Student assemblies and at the close of all athletic contests.

WEDNESDAY EVENING DINNER—Once a week, at least, we all show that we’re not too rushed to dress for dinner. We get out our best neckties, and maybe press that pleated skirt, and we feel quite festive. There is dancing for an hour and a half after dinner in the Women’s Gym—anyone who presents his AS card will be admitted.

FRESHMAN WEEK—A time of exciting activities, sponsored by student organizations, and designed to welcome all new students to the campus.

HOMECOMING—A week-end at the last of October or the first of November when the Associated Students are hosts to the old grads. Interest centers in a big football game, and in Stunt Night, when all organizations compete for prizes for their entertainments. A banquet and a dance climax the activities.

THE SNOWBALL—A formal ball given by the AWS some time during the latter part of autumn quarter. This is the first formal dance of the school year, and is a women’s invitation dance.

THE CHRISTMAS TEA—This lovely pre-holiday tea is sponsored by the AWS. All students and faculty are the guests. It is not a formal affair, but we do get very dressed up and put on our best Christmas smiles.

THE COLONIAL BALL—Another formal ball, this time giving the men the privilege of inviting. It is sponsored by the Associated Students during the winter quarter.

AWS MIXERS—Monthly events to introduce all women students to each other, are usually held in the Women’s Gym. (And are usually followed by light, but delicious, refreshments.)

THE CUPID’S INFORMAL—A “short dress” dance, sponsored by the Sophomore Class for all the college and held on or near Valentine’s Day. It may be either a men’s or women’s invitational, depending on which faction wins the rousing argument that always precedes this dance. You are invited to voice your opinion early in a letter to the CRIER.
THE WAA BANQUET—A formal initiation banquet held annually in the winter quarter for all active members.

THE BARN DANCE—Usually held early in winter quarter. It serves chiefly as a culmination to the beard-growing contest. Outlandish costumes are the rule and country dances provide part of the entertainment.

THE MAY PROM—A lovely springtime dance, presented in May by the Off-Campus Women for the college. It is usually a women's invitational dance.

THE OFF-CAMPUS WOMEN'S BANQUET—An annual and cheerful affair given by and for all off-campus girls during winter quarter. Announcement of the club scholarship is made at the banquet.

THE HERODOTEAN BEAN-FEED—Held in conjunction with the initiation of new members near the end of spring quarter it highlights the year's activities for the Herodoteans. The initiation comes to a close with the renewal of the pledge by all members that they will try to follow in the footsteps of Herodotus.

MOTHERS' DAY WEEK-END—The week-end of Mother's Day is crammed full of Mother-and-Daughter activities, and mothers come from far and near to enjoy the teas, breakfasts, and the wonderful banquet and program that are part of these activities. This week-end has always been considered the very high point of the year for the Associated Women Students.

THE ALL-SCHOOL PICNIC—Held in May and enjoyed by faculty and students alike, (even though it always comes on a rainy day). A tug-of-war, baseball games, and all kinds of games and contests and dancing make up the all-day program. Oh-oh, musn't forget the eats—they're real picnic fare, plentiful and superb.

KAPPA DELTA PI BANQUET—The annual initiation banquet held just before commencement.
THE FINISHING TOUCH—"MANNERS"

Don't let yourself be carried completely away by the pleasant informality of college social life—we didn't discard manners when we quit doing the "Lambeth Walk." The things that make the "awfully nice kid" so nice and the "right Joe" so right are mostly their modifications of Emily Post's well-known lessons. Good manners aren't outmoded conventions—they're just the little things you can do in consideration of others. They're one easy way of letting people know what you're like inside. Let's brush up on some of the social customs you should know.

INTRODUCTIONS

You're going to be meeting many strangers these days, and you'll also be introducing your friends to other people. First of all, be sure to say people's names distinctly. On formal occasions it is better to use the word, "present," than "introduce." The correct formal introduction is "Miss Thomas, may I present Mr. Taylor?" A man is always presented to a lady; that is, the lady's name is spoken first. The simplest informal introduction is, "Miss Thomas, Mr. Taylor." A woman may offer her hand if she wishes, but unless the person is much older than she, or is distinguished, she merely smiles and says, "How do you do?" The choice of offering to shake hands is the woman's, but do not be so discourteous as to ignore someone else's extended hand. Two men, of course, always shake hands. A man always rises when being introduced to anyone.

PATRONS AND PATRONESSES

College organizations sponsoring social events always invite several faculty members to be honored guests. What organizations sometimes forget is that patrons and patronesses are guests—to be hospitably received and made to feel welcome. All members of the organization should greet their guests in a friendly manner. Don't leave it to the president and the social commissioner to make up for your lack of hospitality. Remember that patrons and patronesses come because you asked them and they will enjoy getting acquainted with you if you are friendly and cordial.

It isn't "smart" to avoid the receiving line—it just shows you don't know what's what. It's your chance to practice an established social custom and later on you'll be glad you know how. All you have to do is to approach the person at the head of the line and if she doesn't know you introduce yourself. Nine chances out of ten she will know your name, but if not you simply say, "My name is Mary Smith." Each person in the line will present you to the one next to him and all you have to do is shake hands and say pleasantly, "How do you do," to each person as you are presented. No limp handshakes, remember, girls—nothing gives a better idea of a wishy-washy personality.

When you leave the dance or tea it is nice to say goodbye to those who received you and make some remark about pleasure in coming and in meeting them. If the line is busy with newcomers wait a few minutes for an opportunity, and if there is still too much of a crowd simply give a friendly nod and smile as you leave.
AT SOCIAL GATHERINGS

You'll be attending firesides and other social functions, and there are some small courtesies that will help after the introductions are over. When the Dean of Women, the house mother, or other older and/or distinguished woman (other faculty members, for example,) enters a room, all persons in the room stand. This is simply a mark of respect, and the same consideration should be shown by men to the President, the Dean of Men, other faculty members—in fact, to anyone to whom they wish to show respect. This courtesy should be extended whether you are in a large group or are alone in the room when the older woman or man enters. You may be seated again when the older person sits down or asks you to be seated. Persons to whom you show such respect will notice your courtesy and will remember you as a thoughtful person. You can win their regard in other non-academic situations, too. For instance, why not let them be first to be served, whether at a very informal picnic or when punch is being served at a formal dance? Your thoughtfulness will be appreciated, and you'll not have that unpleasant look that comes to people who are so worried about the supply of refreshments that they crowd ahead of everyone else at serving time.

ON THE STREET AND IN PUBLIC

It's definitely high school stuff, and not very good high school stuff, to attract any unnecessary attention to yourself. This means—don't shout across the streets to friends or whistle to attract their attention. It's better to cross over. YOU, of course, never engage in lengthy conversations or laugh in such a way as to annoy others or attract attention in public places. You don't arouse anyone's wrath by loud talking, whispering, giggling, shov­ ing, etc., during assembly or any other form of school or public entertain­ ment. We don't need to tell you, but you might want to tell someone else, that one does not kiss in public, even though you've found a long-lost friend.

Movies are one form of recreation that attracts all college students. Getting past people who are already seated in the theater requires both agility and diplomacy. In passing people who are seated, face the screen (or the stage) and disturb those who are seated as little as possible. If someone rises to let you pass, say, "Thank you," "I am sorry," or "I beg your par­ don." If you're carrying a coat, please see that it doesn't brush the curls of the lady in the next row. And as for eating candy, pop-corn, or nuts, why not save that for the football game—it will be acceptable there, but annoying at the theater. Don't obstruct other people's views any more than is necessary—of course you can't cut your ears off, but you can remove that big hat, and you don't need to put your coat on while standing in front of someone else.

"DATES"

Brother, this has been said before, but we women would certainly be happier if you'll all pay more attention to it—if you want a date, say so. Don't say "What're you doing to-night?" That isn't fair. Another thing—you'll have many grateful admirers if you'll make a date two or three days ahead of time, instead of two or three hours ahead of time.

Ladies, be grateful when a hardworking college boy takes you to a show or spends money for you in any other way. Show that you appreciate his attention by being just as willing to go to some free entertainment, such as a school play or dance, as you would be to go to the show or an expensive dance.

When a man and woman are walking together the man walks on the curb side of the street. Even if he has two women he walks on the curb side of the street, not between them. And if he has three,—well that's his hard luck, not ours. A woman does not take a man's arm in the daytime unless his physical support is needed; for you that means practically never, doesn't it? However, a man may assist a woman in getting into or out of a car or bus. A man leads the way up the aisles of a church or theater if there is no usher. If there is an usher leading the way the woman follows the usher, then comes the man.

IN CONVERSATION

Talk, talk, talk,—that's our favorite recreation. The bull session, the "afternoon tea conversation," the dining room patter, all have their basis in our friendly desire to share ideas and information. You must admit that inability to take part in conversation is a handicap. Some of the causes of conversational blanks are shyness, mental laziness, and pure selfishness. It's a good idea to keep up with your knowledge of all events, both local and international—then you'll surely have something to talk about. Consideration of others is as important in conversation as in other matters, so beware of contradicting and interrupting. Never exaggerate and do not boast. If you have nothing to say you can outshine all others in your listening ability, and that, my friend, is a trait worth cultivating.

AT DANCES

Ordinarily we let the boys go to the "doe line" to ask the girl of his choice for the next dance. Occasionally a "ladies' choice" relieves the monotony.

The thing to remember about CWC dances is that people come there to dance and they'll all be glad to dance with you. Boys, don't stand around idle—if you're too tired to dance, or your shoes hurt, probably you'd be better off at home. What if someone else did get to that cute blonde before you did? There are many other cute blondes, all of whom would be delighted to dance with you. Girls, the same thing applies to you, when it happens to be ladies' choice.

Here at school it's considered permissible for you to ask for a dance with someone you haven't met before.
WHAT TO WEAR

To school—Skirts and sweaters for women, of course, are always good. Simple clothing, easy to keep cleaned and pressed is the very best. For men, sweaters, shirts, and slacks, sports shirt and slacks, or sports jackets and slacks are fine. Much depends on the weather, and you'll look much better in a coat during cold weather than you will if you go around all “duck bumps” and blue with cold.

To the show and to informal dances—School clothes, all slick and clean, of course, and with maybe an added touch of decoration, look good at the Wednesday night dances. We're in the habit of saving our fancy clothes for the week-ends. You might want to be a little more dressed up when you go to the show, but that's up to you. Some girls like to wear hats, and most boys wear ties if on a date but don't if going with other boys. If you have a smart, not dressy, hat or a very good-looking tie, a date to the show is a good time to display it.

To firesides and the Saturday night dances—This is the time for pretty afternoon dresses and the men's good suits. Now you can wear your high-heeled shoes and sheer hosiery (depending on how soon we start raising silkworms over here).

To formal dances—Boys, don't feel that you can't attend the Snowball because you haven't a tuxedo. Hardly anyone has, and you'll feel right at home in your dark suit. As for girls' evening dresses, you'll find that college girls don't go to extremes in formal evening dresses. Nobody's trying to be a wicked siren; instead they're finding simple, attractive clothes, each girl hunting for a style particularly becoming to her. Don't be embarrassed by the fact that you don't have an evening wrap—your best street coat will do very nicely, and it will have lots of company in the coat room.

Notes for the dormitory dining hall and boarding house table.

You have come to the table clean and neat. (No pajamas, honey, and if you've just finished a set of tennis, you have changed clothes before coming to the table.) You didn't run to the table when the meal was announced; instead you chose a dignified gait, but did not keep others waiting. Now you're seated and the meal is being served, and you want to know how to be pleasant and inconspicuous dinner-table company from here on through the dessert course. Well, here are a few things to remember:

Keep your arms and elbows close to your body. This leaves more room for other people, and gives you less temptation to lounge on the table.

Always take the piece of food nearest you on the dish instead of picking around for a piece that exactly suits your fancy.

Reaching for food is bad form and UNNECESSARY.

The silver is placed on the plate when you are through using it. No used silver should touch the table cloth.

Avoid such childish traits as marking the table linen or playing with the silver.
When passing any type of dish that has a handle to another person, be sure to turn the handle so that it may be grasped by the person to whom it is being passed.

Drink slowly and quietly—and try not to leave lipstick on the glass.

It is quite necessary that food be chewed, and thoroughly, but the process need not be too apparent, either in sound or appearance. Chew slowly, and with the lips closed, to avoid noisiness. Take small bites, as it is often necessary to reply to a question, and you must swallow all food before replying rather than storing it in one cheek like a chipmunk.

Be alert to perform small services for your dinner table neighbors.

In case of an accident, express regret, but don't keep talking about it, as that only increases the awkwardness of the situation. If you drop a piece of silver, napkin, or other accessory, do not scout around under the table or chairs—you'll just have to get along without it.

You don't need to wonder which piece of silverware to use next—start with the piece farthest from the plate and work towards the plate. Forks are found on the left side because they are often used with the left hand. Knives are found on the right because they are used in the right hand, as are the spoons—simple? The fork is the most commonly used piece of silver, and should be used wherever possible—for cutting when a sharp knife is not needed, and for eating all solid and most semi-solid foods. Spoons are used for juicy sauces and foods so soft that it is really impossible to eat them with a fork. There are no such things as "knife foods"—the knife is used only for cutting, not for conveying foods to the mouth.

Common sense and consideration of other people will answer most other questions in relation to table manners. A person who is comfortable, pleasant, and at ease is a welcome dinner companion.
CALENDAR FOR 1941-42

Information about the social calendar is published weekly in the CAMPUS CRIER. Copies of the social calendar are posted in the Dean of Women’s office, the Employment Office, and the Bulletin board opposite the business office.

SCHOOL SONGS

ALMA MATER

Unto thee our Alma Mater
Here we pledge devotion true,
Years may pass and time may bring us
Many a task that's hard to do.
Still we'll sing the old songs over,
Still we'll call the old days back,
Still we'll cheer the best of colors
Hail, the Crimson and the Black.
(Repeat the last four lines).

Washington thy name we honor
Ever loyal we will be;
May Old Time each year add glory
Central Washington to Thee.
Still we'll sing the old songs over,
Still we'll call the old days back,
Still we'll cheer the best of colors
Hail, the Crimson and the Black.
(Repeat the last four lines).

FIGHT SONG

Fight that team across the field,
Show them we have no fear,
Set the earth reverberating
With a mighty cheer, Rah, Rah, Rah!
Hit them hard and see how they fall
Never let that team get the ball,
Hail! Hail! the gang's all here
And we'll win that old conference now!

Ellensburg! Central Washington
Ellensburg! Central Washington
Fight, Fight for Ellensburg.
(Repeat first verse)
BEST OF LUCK

Our purpose in compiling the new CW SEER is to offer a few hints and suggestions to help make your four years of college easier and more profitable. We hope that you find the book helpful and interesting, and that you will accept it in the spirit in which it is offered. Remember that you’ll have an opportunity to contribute your bit to next year’s edition and make the book better and more complete.

Sincerely yours,

THE EDITORS.
