Letter #2 (Christmas card, black ink, letter on back of card)

Card Details

Front of card:

Three wise men arriving in Bethlehem scene
"O little town of Bethlehem"

Inside of card:

Scene of the barn of the reveal of Jesus Christ
Long Years ago the wise
Men knew
Deep peace and joy untold;
May that same joy
Be yours today
Increased
A hundred – fold.

Letter (Back of card)

Pre-1953

Dear Robinsons – just a line or two – am not in a very good mood to write – It's dark and gloomy – raining all day – just a drizzle – but had a washing to do so naturally wanted sunshine.

Wonder if you are housed within that new home? I'm sure you will be the one to appreciate that possibility.

Expect you'll have a Merry Christmas at the old home with your family – Haven't heard a word from any one but just take it for granted. We are to be at Carolyn's unless other plans interfere.

To you and yours

A joyous Christmas

E.B. + Lotta
