James started two games at flanker in sophomore year (1984) as CWU won school-record 11 games and reached NAIA Division 1 semifinals. His major contribution may have been as kick returner. His 28.0 average was the best in school history among those players with at least 10 attempts until last two seasons when John Hallead averaged 36.1 (10 for 361) in 1998 and Jason Patterson averaged 30.4 (13-395) in 1999.

That 1984 team also included linebacker Maurice Hanks, the leading tackler in school history and a member of our Hall-of-Fame, and quarterback Greg Olson, who is now the quarterback coach at Purdue and was also Kitna's position coach for his freshman and sophomore season. Also on team at wide receiver Charles Chandler, who later was CWU's head track coach and currently is the wide receiver coach at the University of Louisville.
