Unfinished Business

Continued work on SEOIs for online courses. Rob does not believe the document can be ready for implementation Fall Quarter, 2006.

We need to ensure the questions relate specifically to online. Rob was hoping an online instructor, who contacted him, and who was concerned about the Online SEOI document, would be here today, but he was not.

Faculty review of Administrators: Discussion of mechanism for confidence votes. A process for administrators to improve performance, something that is fair to everyone.

New Business:

Question

UNIV 101: Instructors are required to serve as advisors to UNIV 101 for more than the quarter in which they teach the course. That advising lasts through not only rest of the academic year, but beyond, into a second year. If advising is part of the teaching load, should not faculty who teach UNIV 101 be granted an additional teaching unit for UNIV 101 in the second year?
