MEN'S P. E. LEAGUE

Table with 5 columns: Team, W, L, T, Pts. Rows include Rams, Redskins, Tigers, Bobcats, and St. Martin's.

Under the direction of George Mabee, assistant men's gym instructor, there has been a touch football league formed in his 4:30 gym class.

"There are many indications of a growing interest in this type of football and for that reason I have encouraged the men in this sport," said Mr. Mabee.

A round-robin schedule has been arranged with four teams competing. Casey Jones, G. Giles, C. Gill and J. Pease were named captains to pick teams from the class.

CWCE GRIDDERS SET FOR RANGERS

By HAROLD BERNDT Saturday morning 27 Central Washington Wildcats will leave to invade the range of the Rangers of St. Martin's in a Winko League football contest.

The Rangers will be slight favorites over the Wildcats since they lost to Eastern Washington only by a 7-0 score last Friday after a hard-fought game.

TOM MATELAK

Homer Hein is new as a coach at the Lacey School and has such stars as Srsen, Yoshida, Somerville, Sinclair and Stack.

Coach Leo Nicholson will probably start the same team which entered against Gonzaga Frosh last week.

Following is a list of the players making the trip to the Coast: Baldwin, Harney, Burnett, Coy, Grant, Kern, Spithill, Bostenero, Farris, Charles, Fagerstedt, Morris, Raap, Goodman, Carmody, Martin, Mirosch, Captain Tomlinson, Wilson, Rowley, Millef, North, Pitt, Neander, Matelak, Lounsberry and Carr.

YELL TRIO APPROVED

After observing all candidates for the position of yell leaders of CWCE, the ASB council approved the selection of Betty Fowler of Tacoma, Fritz Dorsey of Sunnyside, and Bob Matheon of Sunnyside as yell leaders for the school year.

SPORT GOSSIP

By MATT TOMAC

One would think that after Friday's game some of our faithful Monday morning quarterbacks would lay off and stop finding fault with the gridders. But no! The latest one I have heard is: "Anyone could beat Gonzaga Frosh."

Now to stick out my neck: The Wildcats are in a better position to tie for the championship than they were a year ago. Why? First of all the Cats are stronger, even though their record does not indicate; second, their running attack is bolstered by a swell passing attack which is improving every game.

Here are orchids for Homer Hein, the new St. Martin's coach. Homer came to Lacey this year to find last year's Gridders gone, and had to build a team from a scratch.

If you're wondering what happened to last year's Rangers, here is where you'll find them. Bud McDougall, fullback, and Bill Vigers, end, are at George Washington in Washington.

To give you an idea of what PLC thinks of their football team, I quote an article from their school paper.

"A few days ago a Tacoma sports writer remarked in his column that Marv Tommervick would be a sensation behind a major ball club line. He erred in two places: In first place, Marv is already a sensation, and in the second, our line is major team caliber. Let's take a look at it—man for man.

"Our ends, Sig and Platt, could find a regular spot on many of the so-called major teams today. They were accorded 'Little All-American' ranking last year. Tackles—George Anderson and Gordon Husby. Anderson was ranked by Jim Phelan, coach at University of Washington, as one of his most promising freshman ball players and a future all-American.

"At Guards—George Broz, Lolly Jungck, Thorleifson, and Holland—all top ranking men. Broz was picked by Dan Walton, Tacoma News Tribune sports editor, along with Sewell of Washington State and other major league ball players as one of the 11 best Tacoma gridders now playing with college teams.

Father Flanagan's Boys' Farm

NICK LONCARIC, FRANKLIN YODER, GONZAGA FROSH GRIDDERS, REPRESENT FATHER FLANAGAN'S INSTITUTION

By WALTER RAPPUHN Perhaps local football fans didn't realize it at the game Friday night, but they were looking at two of the greatest athletes ever developed at Father Flanagan's home, Boys Town.

The two boys, Franklin Yoder and Nick Loncaric, started the game at the end positions for the Gonzaga Freshmen. For three years, they attended the Boys Town High School and played the same positions for the varsity.

Frank Yoder teamed up with Loncaric in all three sports. He played a hard, consistent type of football and was said to have the biggest hands in the Nebraska high school football league.

He was the Boys Town leading catcher in baseball, and his ability at this position earned for him many favorable comments from noted baseball writers.

In his senior year he made the varsity basketball squad as a substitute for Loncaric at the center position. Because of Loncaric's exceptional athletic ability he saw little action in the first few games, but when Loncaric went to the hospital for an appendectomy, it was Frank Yoder who was called on to fill the vacant center spot.

Both boys are now 20 years of age, and were citizens of the city of little men for five years. When they arrived, Yoder from the East and Loncaric from Kansas City, both were just tall, lanky ordinary kids with undeveloped athletic talents. But Father Flanagan took them in and made them what they are today, and by doing so once more proved his 22-year-old maxim of "There is no such thing as a bad boy."

WILDCATS DEFEAT GONZAGA 32-6

Nicholson's Team Shows Powerful Running and Passing Attack

By JACK HAS BROUCK After two weeks in the doghouse, the Central Washington Wildcats are back in the winning groove. They submerged the Gonzaga frosh eleven on Rodeo Field last Friday night, winning 32-6.

The showboat doesn't have a full head of steam yet, but with a few more good boosters—like Friday night—the Cats will really be tough to beat.

With 6 straight first downs, the Cats went down field in the first quarter to score. Neander, behind good interference, ripped off yards at will. North, also rammed the opposing line like a veteran in the Cats 61-yard touchdown drive.

Coach Nicholson ran in his second string, and they carried on where the "first team" left off. Matelak and Pitt lugged the pigskin to another score—culminating a 49-yard thrust. Blonde Chuck Carr was rushed in to convert the try for point. He clicked, score 13-0.

Here Gonzaga decided to do some scoring of their own. With Hare firing, the Zags started a 32-yard aerial drive. Bulldog Hare rifled one to Loncaric, a big, fast end, that was good for 25 yards. Hare then hit his teammate Smith between the eyes over the goal for the only Zag tally.

Pat Martin, end, eluded the secondary defense and caught one of Bobby Miller's flings that was good for 39 yards. Again the Wildcats had the Zags on the run. Again the Jimmeys—Neander and North—took over. Six plays later Neander went over from the 1-yard marker.

The Cats scored again via the air lanes. Miller tossed the hot pigskin to Carmody, a frosh flash, who wheeled over. Carr converted.

Another pass, Miller to Raming Rowley, brought the final score.

Although the Cats threw passes all over the place, they did exhibit a power game the like of which hasn't been seen here in a decade. They garnered 19 first downs to the Zags 4. On the ground Gonzaga gained only 11 yards against the potent Wildcat first line trenches. That speaks for itself.

The Wildcat mentor used over two full teams in smothering the frosh. They scored in every quarter.

To spot one outstanding performance would be unfair, because it seemed like everyone—and I do mean everyone—starred.

Glenn Farris got off the best kick of the game. The ball traveled 77 yards—only 8 were rolling yards.

BOOKSTORE HAS OLD MAGAZINES

Placed There For Clipping Purposes

During the past few weeks most of you students have undoubtedly noticed the stacks of old magazines which are piled up in the College Bookstore.

You are invited to browse among these magazines at your leisure and select and clip articles of your choice. Only please leave the magazine there when you have finished with it—others may find need of what is left.

The magazines range from Esquire and Life to Mademoiselle, covering fashion, news events, politics and fiction. It seems that Esquire is most popular, followed by Life.

If any of you have old magazines that you don't want, it would be greatly appreciated if you would donate them to the Bookstore.

MY FRIENDS

L. Willkie would sweep the election by 334 electoral votes. Well, that's politics, for you can't say something without someone contradicting you.

President Roosevelt, busy with domestic policies here at home, and confronted by the unrestfulness in the Far East, found time to keep the political fires burning by adding a few words of wisdom when he recently gave two speeches at Hyde Park. He warned local Democrats that "overstatement, personal attacks and wild promises have no part in our county campaign—any more than in a national campaign."

In regard to recent defense developments, the President ordered the War Department to take Negroes into the defense forces on a "fair and equitable basis." The proportion of Negroes in the Army will be in proportion to the Negro population of the country—roughly 10 per cent—however, white and colored enlisted men will not be intermingled in the same regimental organizations.

To aid in the training of British pilots, he ruled that Canadian young men could enroll in U. S. private flying schools if they so desired. This was regarded as the answer to the problem of how Canadian pilots could be trained this winter, when most Canadian fields will be snowbound.—(Pathfinder)

LETTER TO EDITOR

Editor Campus Crier

How about a column addressed to "Batching" Batchelors, made up of recipes and helpful hints?

I am very interested as I've been asked many times in the past for recipes by boys who would like to try their hand at some different dishes. A reader,

MARJORIE L. GRACE.

(Ed. Note: We appreciate your constructive suggestion, Miss Grace, and are now looking into the matter. We shall probably have something to offer you in the near future. Do not mistake the feature store on Batching, appearing in this issue, as an answer to your letter.—L.T.)

ART CLUB PLANS MANY ACTIVITIES

Group Contracts Decorations; Plans Spring Dance

By OPAL HAMMILL

"Many activities are being planned by the Art Club this year," says Mr. Randal, the adviser.

The most important feature planned jointly by the Drama and Art Club is the Bowery Ball, scheduled for next spring. All those present last year will remember the gay, uproarious event—and will look forward with much anticipation to an even more successful Bowery Ball this year.

Decorations for all the dances to be held during the year have been contracted for by this department. Organizations who have programs or announcements to be made should see the Art Club. Students who wish to have Christmas cards designed and made may see Mr. Randal or Miss Spurgeon, art instructors.

Members of the Art Club are considering joining the Kappa Phi, National Art Fraternity. Officers of the club are Virginia McAdams, Eldon Lindsay, and Carol Bice.

MACRAE RETURNS TO CWCE

Dr. Donald E. MacRae, professor of English, returned last June from a nine month's leave-of-absence which began in August, 1939. During this time he attended Harvard University, where he did research work in American Literature and attended courses in American History given by Profs. Frederick Merk, Arthur Schlesinger, and Samuel E. Morison. He also taught one course in Freshman English. Dr. MacRae taught his usual courses on this campus during the summer session.

EXCHANGE

The Student Life, campus publication of Washington University at St. Louis gives a fairly comprehensive picture of the average college girl:

"She comes in assorted heights, dressed and shaped according to the latest fashion. Her well-curled hair is becoming, and she will seldom cover it with a hat; but just let a suspicion of rain appear and she wads it up under a bandana and looks like someone who should be slaving in Russian wheat fields. She thinks about men almost as much as they like to think she does, but her thoughts are not always to their credit. Rather often she has more dates than she wants, because that's the only way she can be sure to have the ones she really does want."
