SENIOR PROGRAM THIS EVENING

Recognitions Feature Class Events

Student Recognition is in reality the theme of the first annual Class Day program planned for this afternoon and evening. The Senior Class has been able to include important features heretofore contained in Commencement exercises only.

Opening the Day will be the President's Reception at the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. E. McConnell this afternoon from 3:00 to 5:00. All graduating classes: B. A. and Three Year, May and August, and their advisers have been invited to the informal "come and go as you wish" affair.

Awards Program

This evening, a class program will be presented from the stage of the college auditorium, beginning at 8:15. Of special interest to all students will be the recognition of graduating athletes, the announcement of all-school honor awards, including freshman scholarships, club scholarships, athletic awards, and SGA senior awards, and the installation of Student Government Association officers under the new constitution.

Caps and Gowns

All class members will wear the traditional cap and gown to these programs.

Winners Required

Persons who have been notified of their winning awards this spring are especially invited to attend, to receive recognition.

All college students, faculty, and townspeople are invited to attend the evening program, for which there will be no admission charge. The affair will last no longer than one hour.

Mrs. Annette Hitchcock Named Women's Dean; To Assume Duties

President McConnell has announced the appointment of Mrs. Annette H. Hitchcock as new Dean of Women.

Mrs. Hitchcock is a graduate of the University of North Dakota with her major in English. She received her Master of Arts degree from Teachers' College of Columbia University with her major in personnel education. She has taught in the high schools of North Dakota and has been a county superintendent of schools. Mrs. Hitchcock was recently Dean of Women of Pacific University at Forest Grove, Oregon.

She will assume her duties as Dean of Women at the beginning of summer quarter on June 15. This summer she will also teach a course in personnel procedure.

RANDALL ENTERTAINS FOR KAPPA PI

Mr. Reino Randall entertained Kappa Pi members and other guests at his home on Monday, May 18, from 7:30 to 10 o'clock.

Carol Bice, president of Kappa Pi, opened the business meeting and new officers were nominated and elected for the following year. New officers include: Melissa Gilchrist, president; Irene Kroger, vice-president; Margaret Evans, secretary; Ida Kehl, treasurer, and Betty Cady, historian-reporter.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Randall, following the short business meeting, and films borrowed from the Public Service office of the college were shown to the group.

To the Grads . . .

You are being graduated at a time when society is waiting for your talent and energy. Our schools and state are looking to you for service. May the education that you have received here serve as a key to opportunities. From J. William Lloyd we get this choice bit of workable philosophy—"There is but one virtue: to help human beings to free and beautiful life; but one sin: to do them indifferent and cruel hurt; the love of humanity is the whole of morality. This is Goodness, this is Humanism, this is the Social Conscience."

Should you ever be so unfortunate as to find the going tough, I suggest that you remember the advice of Harriet Beecher Stowe. She once said—"When you get into a tight place and everything goes against you till it seems you could not hold on a minute longer, never give up then, for that is just the place and time that the tide will turn."

We wish you success and happiness.
Robert E. McConnell, President.

Women Officers Needed For Training Corps

Information has been received by the Dean of Women's Office for applicants for the officer's training school in the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps. The W. A. A. C. is a corps of women in military uniform and under military discipline organized for non-combatant service with the Army. Candidates must be between the ages of 21 and 45 and meet the qualifications of education, intelligence, and physical fitness. Further information is available from the dean's office.

DRAMATISTS!

May 28, 7 p. m. in A-405 (Little Theater), there will be a short meeting of all people interested in acting in a play this summer quarter.

SCHOLAR ROLL HAS CHANGES

A question has arisen concerning the manner in which the scholarship roll as printed on the commencement program was determined. The list appearing on the program included the names of graduating students who had been listed on the scholarship roll for the autumn and winter quarters of the present college year.

Several students have expressed the opinion that the list should include the names of those whose all-college average is "B" or better. While that all-college average was not used in determining the printed list, I am glad to give the names of students whose all-time average is "B" or better. President McConnell will include these names when reading the scholarship roll at commencement time.

The full list: Clifton Alford, Bernice Myrtle Anderson, Joan Beidleman, Don F. Blood, Robert Hardt Brainard, Maryon Pearl Cotton, Edna Lucille Culp, Bruce Arlen Dietrick, Roberta Vivian Gower.

Lois Ardelle Erickson, Lois Hammill, Helen M. Hill, Herbert Hugh Legg, Blanche Spear McCracken, Mildred Olive Martinson, Bertha Thompson Merrin, Lloyd Rowley.

Alberta Mondor, Dolores Plath, Edith Robertson, Jean E. Schreiner, John Loren Troxel, Raymond P. Whitfield, Ruth Linnea Woods.

H. J. Whitney, Registrar.

WAHLE PRESIDES NEXT YEAR

SGA Elections Name Officers

Roy Patrick Wahle will head the SGA of CWC in its first full year of activity, the Student Government Association balloting of Tuesday, May 26, revealed.

Elected to the Honor Council, entrusted with putting into effect the Honor System, are Betty Thomas, 1941-42 president of OCW and Russ Wiseman, CWC basketball star.

Sticker candidate Vic Forsythe captured the vice-presidency. Evelyn Conant, secretary, and Celeste Hayden, Jim Adamson, John Dart and Sture Larsson, representatives-at-large, complete the ticket elected.

Radio Workshop Class Here This Summer

For the first time in the history of the college, a summer class in Radio Workshop is being offered next quarter. The popularization of radio throughout the country has created a demand for this type of training. The course will include training in the fundamentals of radio production which includes script writing as a major composite of the course. Outlet for class activities will be a weekly broadcast over radio station KIT in Yakima.

An innovation is the recordings that will be made of all Radio Workshop productions, in order that critical analyses may be made by the members of the class.

Hyakem Delivery Date For Near Future

Due to the shortened school term and certain technical factors beyond the control of the HYAKEM staff, only a limited number of Yearbooks will be on hand at the end of the week.

This supply of HYAKEMS will be distributed, as far as possible, to those students who will not be on the campus summer quarter.

The remainder will be sent to the students' home address during vacation or will be delivered to them during the summer term.

51st Annual College Program Graduates 149 Students

Governor Arthur Langlie speaks at program in auditorium this Friday evening.

Governor Arthur B. Langlie will deliver the main address at the fifty-first annual commencement, May 29 at 8 p. m. in the college auditorium. Featured on the commencement program will be Marion Nims, soprano, and Clifton Alford, violinist.

One hundred and forty-nine students will participate in the 1942 commencement, forty-three of them will receive the degree of Bachelor of Arts in Education, in addition to the Three Year Elementary teaching certificate; the remaining one hundred and six will be certified only.

Dr. Newton E. Moats, pastor of the First Methodist Church, Seattle, delivered the Baccalaureate sermon on the topic "We Are Unconquerable" at the Baccalaureate services held Sunday, May 24.

MUSICIANS ABSENT

Mr. Wayne S. Hertz and Mr. Lawrence Moe are being granted leave of absences for the summer session to study. Mr. Hertz will attend Christiansen Choral School at Lake Forest, Illinois, and Mr. Moe will study at Columbia University.

Elworthy Has Fellowship

Miss Helen Minerva Elworthy, retiring as Dean of Women, has received a fellowship to the University of California for the coming school year.

She will work at the Berkeley school on her doctoral dissertation in the field on English history.

Radio Features Music On CWC Broadcast

Last night, a musical program under the direction of Milton Steinhardt was heard as the regular weekly broadcast.

Mr. Muzzall gave a brief talk reviewing the events of the past year and told some of the plans for the coming summer term.

In addition to the regular orchestra, the string quartet also performed. This was the tenth and last program of the quarter and marked the end of a very successful series of broadcasts.

AD DOORS RENOVATED AS COUNCIL PROJECT

A 1940-41 student council project was the remodeling of the front entrance to the Ad Building. When finished they will provide a much more adequate means of entrance and egress. Installation has been delayed till this time because of the press of other carpenter work.

Campus Blackout Drill Proves Successful

"The trial blackout was a success," said Dr. Loren Sparks, campus defense coordinator, in reference to the campus blackout and air raid drill which was held Tuesday morning, May 26, starting at 12:01 a. m.

Reports began to arrive at headquarters from committees at work at various police details within three minutes of blackout time, and a complete campus check was effected within 12 minutes.

KEHL, LOVE HEAD 1942-43 CRIER

Ida Kehl, Wapato junior, will head the CAMPUS CRIER as 1942-43 Editor-in-chief and Betty Love, Wenatchee sophomore, will conduct business affairs of the CWC student newspaper as Business Manager next year. The appointments were made by the interim—SGA Executive Council at the recommendation of Adviser Dr. Donald MacRae at the Board meeting of Monday, May 26.

Miss Kehl, majoring in art and English and minoring in history has been news editor of the CRIER for the past two quarters. She is a member of the Off-Campus Women's Club and of the Herodoteans and is treasurer next year of Kappa Pi.

Miss Love, manager of the coed-issued paper, has been manager this past quarter of the CRIER and was assistant manager prior to that.

Summer Term

In charge of the 1942 summer CRIER will be Herb Legg, editor, and Betti Humes, manager. Miss Humes is at present assistant manager of the "Weekly Struggle."

As is traditional, lead editorial of this week's CRIER is written by the incoming editor.

McCONNELL RELEASES SUMMER TERM PLANS

President Robert E. McConnell announced today some added features of the summer term which opens June 15 and closes August 14. An educational conference will be held June 23, 24 and 25, and an Inter-American education conference will be held from July 6 to 10. An all-day nursery school will be held for a month beginning June 15. It is to give teachers needed training that is necessary for the emergency nursery schools that are being formed in defense areas.

Choir Spring Concert Heard in Auditorium

The CWC choir presented its annual spring concert in the college auditorium Monday evening, May 18.

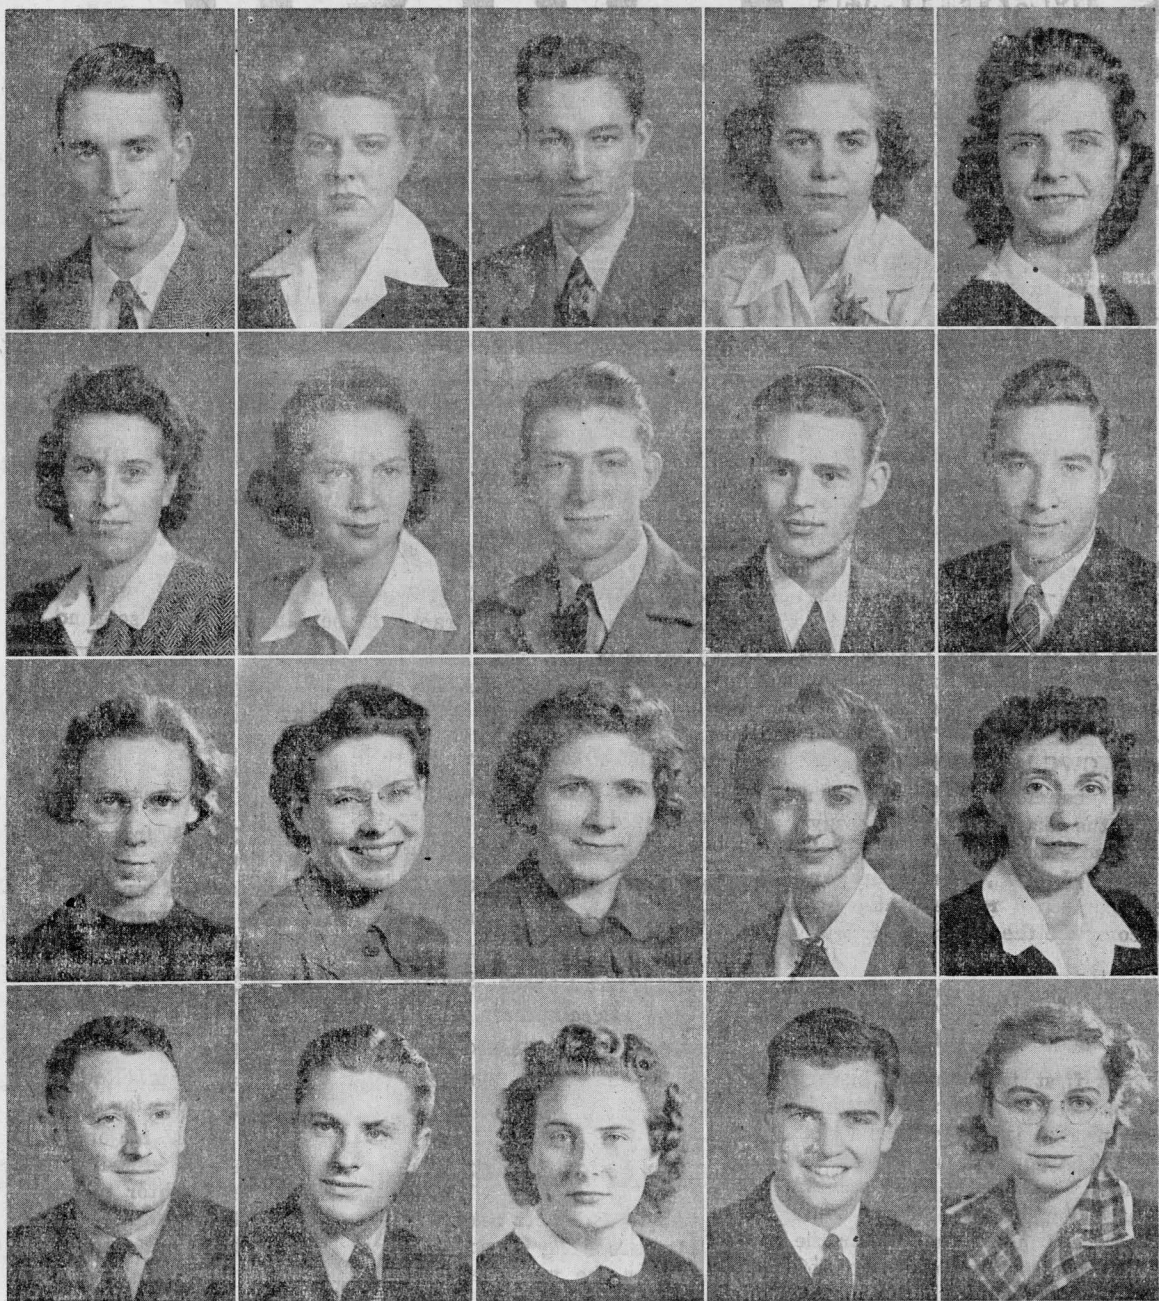

Appearing with the choir were guest soloists Milton Steinhardt, violin; Juanita Davies, piano; Lawrence Moe, organ, and the trumpet trio: William Dennis, Evelyn Johnson and Keith Hickey.

Soprano soloists were Joan Earlywine and Margaret Cotton.

HERTZ IS EDUCATOR

Citing him as "one of the leading music educators in the United States" THE SCHOOL MUSICIAN, monthly periodical published in Chicago, features Wayne S. Hertz, CWC music division head, in its frontispiece in the May issue. A recent photo plus a review of Mr. Hertz' activity in music fills a column in the regular feature "They Are Making America Musical."

KNIGHTS INITIATE 7; GIVE SERVICE KEY; SPRING BANQUET

Last Thursday at a formal initiation held in the Student Lounge, seven new members were initiated into the Claw Chapter of the Intercollegiate Knights. The new members were chosen by the members of the club on the basis of scholastic record, personality, attitude and willingness to work for the club. Those initiated were:

Initiates

Louis Shandera, Hoquiam; Clarence George, Hoquiam; Don Nickolson, Peshastin; Howard Foster, Peshastin; Bruce Whitmarsh, Pasco; Bob Hornbeck, Ellensburg; Charles Wilson, Ellensburg.

Following the initiation the annual spring banquet under the capable chairmanship of Ray Jongeward, Jester, was held in the Blue Room of the New York Cafe honoring the new members and the graduating members who have served the club and school and who the IK's are proud to have had in their organization. Present also were Dr. Loren Sparks, adviser, and Kenneth Courson, honorary member.

Service Key

In recognition for outstanding service to the club during the past year, the Intercollegiate Knights Key which is presented each year to the outstanding member was presented to Jim Bow, past Duke.

Graduating members are Tom Bridges, Bill Ames, John Chambers, and Jim Bow.

Senior Thoughts

by Loren Troxel

Woody and Bob and Maryon and I were talking the other day about our four short years at CWC. Perhaps our first realization was of the value of the associations we have had with the hundreds of other young people, and with the faculty, staff, and administration. Friendship "made" college for us.

We mentioned countless other things, too, some of which I pass on to you. Those here listed, like those we have not listed, may mean little to some people, but we include them for what they're worth.

Whenever we think of CWC we'll remember that:

1. We were horrified at the absence of school spirit, but soon discovered a kind different from that of our boisterous high school days.
2. Many of us met a "one and only" here.
3. Dorm water fights were seldom minor affairs.
4. The old revolving door at the rear of the Ad. Building was a welcome bottleneck between classes.
5. School picnics and choir trips were experiences unsurpassed.
6. Dean Holmes owns only one tie, apparently.
7. The Cheney maple series were continuous chills and spills.

We'll always appreciate:

1. The efforts of the librarians to stock the shelves with the best works a limited budget would permit.
 2. The success of Mr. Barto and the assembly committee.
 3. The effectiveness of the student voice in matters major and minor.
 4. The excellent management of director of dormitories, past and present, which made possible a maximum in pleasant meals.
 5. The establishment of a Student Employment office.
- We hoped for, but did very little about.

1. A Father's Day on the campus.
 2. The permission to extend official invitation to mothers of campus men to visit CWC on Mother's Weekend.
 3. A central office for the scheduling of all campus buildings for meetings.
 4. Instruction in Spanish and German.
 5. The campus directory as an official SGA publication.
- The days of our years were full and thrilling. We hope that all students may experience those thrills.

CWC Gains Overwhelming Victory At Winko Track Conference

Coach Sarboe's squad dominates events To win over EWC, defending champs.

Scoring an overwhelming victory to regain the track championship and successfully defending their tennis title, CWC athletes dominated the spring sports windup of the Western Intercollegiate Conference at Cheney Saturday.

The Wildcats tied for second in the conference golf play-offs Friday when Western Washington won the championship for the ninth consecutive year to salvage the only crown left from Central's surge through the finals.

The CWC trackmen came into their own Saturday by piling up 75 5/6 points in an easy triumph. Dominating the track events, Coach Phil Sarboe's squad won by nearly 30 points over Eastern Washington's defending champions, who scored only 46 1/2 points to finish second, with St. Martin's College third with 17 1/3, Pacific Lutheran fourth with 14 1/3 and Western Washington last with 12.

Just Between Us

Undefeated in league play, the 'W' Club finished the Pepper softball series.

When the Quiz Kids forfeited their last scheduled game because enough players were not out (though they proceeded in a practice game with the players there to defeat the W men 10-2) the season closed.

Foreigners, defeated only by the W men, who had hoped for a return engagement to even the scores, have challenged the lettermen to a non-league game to be played soon.

Final Pepper League standings:

	W	L	Percentage
W Club	5	0	1000
Foreigners	4	1	800
Quiz Kids	2	3	400
Locals	2	3	400
IKs	1	4	200
Munson	1	4	200

CWC GOLFERS TIE SMC AT WINKO MEET

Central's golfers tied for second place in the Winko golf meet at EWC last weekend.

WWC's golfers were far in the lead with Saint Martin's and the local squadron tied for second.

Members of the CWC squad are Mary Jane Gilkey, only girl golfer of the conference squads, Jack Spithill, Hank Robertson, Wendell Hildebrand.

CENTRAL NETMEN WINKO CHAMPS

Easily Capture Tennis Title

Easily taking four out of five finals matches, CWC won the Washington Intercollegiate Conference tennis championship at Cheney last Saturday.

The Wildcats swept the three singles finals and one of the doubles, leaving only one doubles match to the field in the title round for EWC and WWC, the only other squads putting plays into the finals, to fight for.

Ray Whitfield, the No. 1 Wildcat netman, Ray Breedlove, No. 2, and Joe Clayton, No. 3, scored the singles victories for Coach Leo Nicholson's squad and Breedlove teamed with Jim Spaulding to win the No. 2 doubles crown. Central's No. 1 doubles combination of Whitfield and Clayton was beaten in the semi-final by Wallace and Eustace of EWC, who went on to take the final from the WWC combination of Glenn and Lahti, 6-1 and 8-6.

KAPPA PI INITIATES; HONORS ELEVEN

On Saturday, May 16, at 8 o'clock, a formal initiation of new Kappa Pi members was held at the home of Mrs. Pearl Hicks.

The following people were initiated into Kappa Pi, national honorary art fraternity: Mrs. Robert E. McConnell, Betty Cady, Donna Freeman, Irene Kroger, Ida Kehl, Maryalice Phelps, Jean Richards, Betty Wilson, Margaret Evans, Miss Juanita Walter and Mr. Glenn Hogue.

Guests for the evening included Dr. R. E. McConnell, Mrs. Glen Hogue, and Dr. Hicks.

Loschen Heads Wesley; Firesides Entertain

Leslie Loschen has been elected to the presidency of Wesley Club for 1942-1943. Olga Koch will be vice-president; Christine Thwaites, recording secretary; Betty Martin, corresponding secretary, and June Eliason, treasurer.

Rev. Frank Goodnough, director of Wesley Foundation at the University of Washington, met with the Wesley Foundation Board on Sunday afternoon and later with the student council. He later spoke at the Fireside held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Seibel.

WINKO CHAMPIONSHIP COMES TO CAMPUS

By STANLEY MATAYA

The Cheney Savages, St. Martin's Rangers, Bellingham Vikings, and the Pacific Lutheran tracksters ate more dust (mud is the more appropriate term in this particular case) last Saturday at Cheney than they ever thought possible. The Central Washington Wildcats, new Winko champs, showed their heels to their opponents in all but two of the running events and it took a pair of very stellar boys from Cheney to break the first place monopoly. Adding about umteen tons of insult upon injury, Coach Phil Sarboe's boys ran off with seven second places. In the 220-yard dash Hal Berndt and Maury Rogers, both CWC, ran one-two and then Rogers teamed up with Tommy Bridges and duplicated the feat in the 440. Ernie Lewis and squad captain Pat Martin were not to be undone in the high hurdles, as they showed their heels to the rest of the field. In the low hurdles, the mile, and the two mile the Wildcats walked off with second and third honors. CWC did not enter a man in the javelin throw, which eventually was the only event where the Wildcats failed to pick up points.

Last Saturday's Winko meet climaxed an undefeated track season for the Wildcats and also concluded their four-year struggle to regain the Winko track crown.

While Sarboe and assistant, Burt Kebric, and the track squad were singing their praises, tennis and golf mentor Leo Nicholson and his charges were not to be denied their share of the Winko trophies. The racket wielders brought back the Winko tennis crown while the digit diggers had to be satisfied with a second place tie. Nick's five-man tennis team hung up a good record which was marred only by a double defeat at the hands of the Yakima Junior College squad.

NOTHIN' IN PARTICULAR

That racehorse from Cheney, Marston Fitzsimmons, is just too good for this league . . . The little guy with the blazing finish once again broke the tape in the mile (record time) and the two mile runs—finishing in front of CWC's Bob Lynn, who is one of the best . . . Earl Bach regained his Winko half-mile crown last Saturday as he crossed the finish line ahead of Lynn who had to be content with three second places during the day . . . Hal Berndt, CWC, and Fitzsimmons and Dave Hipskind, both of EWC, were the day's double winners . . . Berndt did the century in 10 flat and the 220 in 21.7 . . . While Fitzsimmons was taking the distance honors, his teammate Hipskind was winning the discus and shotput events . . . Berndt and Rogers were too much for St. Martin's Sinclair and Pacific Lutheran's Harshman, who were given a chance to topple the CWC lads in the sprints . . . Vern Dean grabbed off third place in the mile and in the two mile, while Clarence George's fourth in the 880 gave the Wildcats three places in the event . . . CWC's relay team of Bridges, George, Bach, and Rogers added another first to the Wildcat's total . . . Clipper Carmody's leap of 21 feet 8 inches in the broadjump earned him an easy first place and also retained his spot at the top of the Winko broadjumping picture . . . Hollingsworth, EWC's ace hurdler, repeated his previous win over Martin in the lows . . . Wildcat Russ Wiseman had to play second fiddle to Hipskind in the discus and shot, but in both events Russ got the satisfaction of beating Munizza, WWC weightman, who won the two events in the CWC-WWC dual meet three weeks ago . . . Fred McDow, Central's up and coming freshman, came back from his first Winko meet with a tie for first in the highjump and a tie for second in the polevault . . . One of those coal miners from the upper county, Don Cooley of St. Martin's, hung on to his Winko javelin title . . . Ray Whitfield, Ralph Breedlove, Joe Clayton, Jim Spaulding, and Lowell Evans of the tennis team, and Mary Jane Gilkey, Wendy Hildebrand, Jack Spithill, and Hank Robertson of the golf team came plenty close to making a clean sweep of Winko activities at Cheney Saturday, but Central Washington College will settle with what they got . . . Looking over the past year of athletic activities, CWC students can see that Nick, Phil, Burt and the boys didn't do bad. Yes sirree, they didn't do so bad at all . . . This summer the hefty ones will begin to get into shape for the coming football season and thus starts a new school year.

Iyoptians Honor Adviser At Kitchen Shower

The present Iyoptian members and Miss Helen Minerva Elworthy were co-hostesses at a kitchen shower for Miss Louise Brakel, Iyoptian adviser, last Wednesday evening in Miss Elworthy's apartment.

Entertainment for the evening consisted of several games, and Margaret Cotton, accompanied by Evelyn Conant, sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly."

Guests were the past and charter members of the Iyoptian Club, Miss Helen Michaelson, and Miss Dorthalee Horne.

KDP Banquets; Names Haller as President

The annual Kappa Delta Pi spring banquet was held in the Blue Room of the New York Cafe, May 15, at 6 o'clock. Toastmaster Don Blood presided over the evening's program.

Highlights of the program came with the presentation of a gift to the outgoing adviser, Miss Simpson, who has served in that capacity for six years and since the organization was founded at CWC.

Installation of the new officers and initiation of the pledges were held May 20 in the student lounge.

OCM ELECT OFFICERS; SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

At their final meeting for the year the Off Campus Men led by Mel Haller, prexy, reviewed the activities of the year.

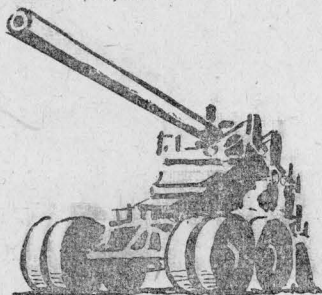

Elections were held and those elected for next year's officers were Jim Adamson, president; Sture Larsson, vice-president; Al Nix, treasurer; Dubby Aiken, secretary, and Jerry Mundy as social commissioner.

evacuation of americans

OF JAPANESE PARENTAGE from the West Coast is a test of our own belief in the federal Constitution and of our ability to hold justice and national unity above racial antipathy. Nationality is an utterly unreliable guide in distinguishing friend from foe in this war. So is race. But the evacuation of Japanese citizens is more than mere racial discrimination. The Presidential proclamation of February 20, 1942, authorized the Secretary of War and the military commanders designated by him to "prescribe military areas . . . from which any or all persons may be excluded." Martial law was not invoked but it was applied, thereby violating the fifth and fourteenth amendments to the Constitution which specifically provide that neither the nation nor the states shall "deprive any person of life, liberty or property without the due process of law." The Supreme Court decision in the 1866 case of Milligan vs. Indiana stated, "Martial rule can never exist where the courts are open, and in the proper and unobstructed exercise of their jurisdiction. It is also confined to the locality of actual war." There have been no hearings nor other "due process of law" for the Japanese evacuees and there has not been actual war on the Pacific Coast.

It is true that the Japanese constitute a minority; but the application of martial law to even a minority can and may eventually lead to martial law as applied to more and larger groups. This is not a problem of, "What else can we do with the Japanese?" but what can any citizen do under martial law which can and is instituted in the face of the federal Constitution and a Supreme Court decision upholding that constitution.

as this quarter ends

WE BID FAREWELL to you, Mr. H. J. Whitney, Miss Helen Minerva Elworthy, and Mr. O. H. Holmes.

At various times in our school career we have come in contact with you three people who represent official CWC to the students. At all times have we found sincerity and interest in student welfare the basis of your actions.

We are sorry to see you go.

COLLEGE DEANS CLOSE DUTIES THIS TERM

Present CWC Deans close their duties this term to be replaced by other people.

Mr. H. J. Whitney is retiring as Dean of the Faculty but will continue to teach and to serve on administrative committees. Miss Helen Minerva Elworthy, Dean of Women, is resigning to do graduate study in history and Mr. O. H. Holmes, Dean of Men, enters the political arena of the Fourth Congressional District.

Taxes may be high, but we don't have to dodge bombs on our way to pay them.

Farewell!

To the Students and Faculty of CWC:

It has been a profound pleasure to be associated with the faculty and students of this college for the past two years. Although I have resigned in order to carry out a plan of long standing, I leave the college with deep regret that many friendly associations must be severed. I thank you all most heartily for the generous cooperation you have given me. Your kindness to me will be a memory I shall always cherish.

With all good wishes.

"Take it from me... it's the real thing"

You trust its quality

Thirst won't take "no" for an answer...not when the answer is delicious, refreshing, ice-cold Coca-Cola. In this drink is the quality of genuine goodness...the quality of the real thing.
