CHENEY GAINS LONE SCORE IN GRID DUEL

SPOKANE SAVAGES DUE FOR TAMING HERE SATURDAY

WILDCATS TO TANGLE WITH SPOKANE COLLEGE ON RODEO FIELD.

The Wildcat eleven is scheduled to tangle with the Spokane College Savages at Ellensburg on the Rodeo field at 3:30 p. m. next Saturday, November 7.

Last year the Spokane team won from Ellensburg, 3 to 0, and again this year they have a strong team. Rognstad, 170-pound lanky fullback, is playing his fourth year with the Savages and his punting and passing are sure to feature the play. DeBeaumont, giant Spokane guard, who starred with Rognstad here last fall, will also be with the Savages. Ray Luck, all-star Spokane quarter, is enlisted with the College eleven and is a strong offensive factor.

The Savages are coming expecting to win again, but the Normal has a fighting team this year and the game is sure to be a hard battle. The big Savages are attacking the Wildcats, but by the looks of last Saturday's game with Cheney the Savages are pretty sure to get badly scratched up.

Noted Illiteracy Enemy Is Speaker

Kittitas county has the greatest percentage of illiteracy of any county in the state of Washington with the exception of Ferry county, is a statistical fact stated by Mrs. Cora Weaver Stewart, founder of the "Moonlight Schools" of Kentucky, in her address at the Normal school last week.

Mrs. Josephine Corliss Preston, state superintendent of schools, introduced Mrs. Stewart and also talked to the student body.

Mrs. Stewart's life has been devoted to the erasing of illiteracy from the United States. She was recently awarded the $5,000 prize offered by the Pictorial Review magazine for contributing the most to humanity of any woman in the United States for this year.

Hiking Replaces Outdoor Games

Rain during the past week made it impossible for the out-of-door recreational classes to meet in their accustomed places so hiking was substituted.

Some of the hikes were taken by the group as a whole and roll was called as for the regular class, while girls that were unable to hike at the time scheduled were placed upon their honor to hike at some time convenient to them and then report to the girl in charge of their class.

Later in the quarter when the weather conditions will make it impossible for the out-of-doors, recreation, all classes will meet in the gymnasium and work of practically all kinds will be given.

Home Evonovich Club.

The Home Economics club met at the home of Louise McDowell for their regular meeting last evening. Miss Gillett, who is state supervisor of home economics, was the guest of the evening. She delighted the members of the club with a talk on "My Duties As State Supervisor."

Stair Climbers Are Entitled To Credit, Declare

Not a word is mentioned in the curriculum about climbing stairs as a recreational activity but in the minds of some of the students, stair climbing should stand high among those activities, given chiefly for exercise.

For any of those in doubt, just try running from the third floor of the training school to the fourth floor of the Administration building in about two minutes. If their knees don't tremble, and their breath come in short pants, they must be above the average.

But why stop at one try? Three, four, or even five times a day is better.

Yes, some climb those stairs that many times a day and seem to enjoy it, so they say, but they do think some credit should be given for it.

20 ARE CANDIDATES FOR NORMAL DIPLOMA

WILL RECEIVE AWARDS AT THE CLOSE OF QUARTER DE- CEMBER 18.

The following students have applied for Elementary Diplomas to be issued at the close of the first quarter, December 18, 1925:

Zula M. Boling, Aberdeen; Ella M. Bumann, Chehalis; Freda Follansbee, Zillah; Ethel Graffis, Omak; Mollie M. Jones, Lind; Vera W. Jones, Tacoma; Metta K. Keeney, Yakima; Alberta Kennedy, Weston, Ore.; Frances Mary Koen, Prosser; Bertha K. Lauth, Portland, Ore.; Charles G. Lowery, Tacoma; Leonora Martin, Kent; Helen E. The following are applicants for Elementary Certificates to be issued December 18:

Amanda J. Anderson, Oneida; Alyene E. Miller, Tacoma; Ivan Nelson, Granger.

Normal School Certificates and Diplomas are issued at the close of each of the four quarters of the school year, but Life Diplomas are issued only in June and August.

Lack of Light No Bar to Dancing

Saturday night, October 24, 9 p. m., the city of Ellensburg was plunged into darkness. However, up at Kamola, not even darkness could interfere with the pep and gaiety which resulted from the victory over Whitworth, and after a few minutes of confusion the dance went on.

Presently some one came to the rescue with some candles and the dance went in by candle light until the lights came on again.

List of Award Winners

The executive council of the W. E. A. met Monday night at Kamola Hall.

Arrangements were made for having the lists of names typed of girls who had earned W. A. A. awards during the spring and summer quarters of school. These lists have been posted and the awards will be made as soon as it is possible.

VARIED AND SNAPPY PROGRAM FEATURES FRIDAY PEP RALLY

ORCHESTRA, GLEE CLUBS, ONE- ACT PLAY AND CATS HOLD SWAY.

Two selections by the orchestra opened the program in the auditorium at 7:30 Friday, October 30, which preceded the big pep rally.

This was the first public appearance of the orchestra and although somewhat handicapped by insufficient space, they are to be highly commended on their playing.

Then "Action" came upon the screen. It was a one-act play, the largest part of which takes place in a dark office with thieves and bootleggers, and officers causing "some action," indeed. Just as the audience was getting anxious as to what was to happen next, a shot was fired and half the audience left their seats and started on a sudden journey toward the roof. Then before they had quite settled themselves, a second shot sounded, and then another, keeping everyone "up in the air" while the audience, as well as the players, experienced action.

"Action" was followed by the Girls' Glee club, a solo by Miss Thelma Meredith, and then a number by the Boys' Glee club.

Marguerite Carpentier, yell leader, next took her place and put the crowd through some real action, yell practice.

William Harmon, graduate manager, then thought it a most fitting time to give some of the alumni an opportunity to express their feelings for their Alma Mater. Mitchel Angelel and Walter Killian responded with a few remarks, and Tom Davis gave a Scotch selection.

Coach Quigley expressed his opinion of the team, and the game of the next day.

G. P. Short, a member of the board of regents and a football fan, followed with a few words about the game.

About this time a whole band of "Cats" began exercising their voices behind the scenes. And as people were still wondering as to what the "Wildcat's Whiskers" were, the curtains parted and the "Wild Cat's Meow," assistant "Meow," and "Kittens" sprang forth upon the audience and began the sale of the "Wildcat's Whiskers" which proved to be a clever little paper published by the Scribulus club. The Wildcat's Meow, Alberta Kennedy, was costumed in black and red to represent a cat. Assistant Meow, Pop Nelson, was also in costume. The Wildcat's Kittens, as newsboys, were Jeanette Sloan, Lorena Weister, Vanita Williams, Ivan McCollom and Ralph Jordan, while Mr. Harmon was the Wildcat's Mittens. The paper was sold at the auditorium, the bonfire, and at Kamola and caused much amusement.

The big Serpentine then firmed in front of the Ad building, led by Lorena Weister and the Wildcats. After parading down through town, spreading the W. S. N. S. pep to all bystanders, they returned to the big bonfire at the campus. With due ceremony, the last remains of the enemy, Cheney, were cremated in the roaring flames. The Honorable Bill Harmon officiated and everyone showed much grief at the fateful outcome of the opponents.

The girls' basketball season at Cheney Normal opened officially Tuesday evening October 30.

Volley and soccer ball are the other sport offered for the girls.

Girls Given An Opportunity To Remedy Effects

The corrective classes began on Monday, November 2, with an enrollment of 75 girls.

In these classes all girls with remedial defects that may be cured through proper exercise are given an opportunity to remedy their own defects.

Each individual is given exercises to fit her own individual case and after a certain time if she has corrected her defects to the satisfaction of the instructor, and so desires, she may take up another form of recreation.

The corrective classes take the place of the recreation required of every girl, and though not compulsory, offers a splendid opportunity to every girl to make herself better able to fill the place as a teacher.

SCRIBULUS CLUB STAGES A FARCE

SCRIBES DEMONSTRATE DRAM- ATIC TALENT AT A. S. B. MEETING.

One of the interesting features of the Associated Student Body meeting October 26, was a play put on by the initiates of the Scribulus club.

Although Alberta Kennedy, a member of the club, in her introduction stated that it was the desire of the initiates to have a public demonstration, the auditory sounds issuing from behind the scene would contradict such a statement.

The play entitled "The Scribulers of the Scribulus Club," was directed by Sig Fogarty. The setting was that of a busy newspaper office.

Jeanette Sloan and Ivan McCullum proved very efficient reporters for the paper edited by Vanita Williams. Lorena Weister, society editor, found it exceedingly difficult to refrain from answering the incessant call of an idle typewriter even at the expense of disrupting all office conversation. Ralph Jordan, "money rustler," made his appearance several times to announce that he had "brought home the bacon."

Last but not least the printer's devil, Bill Harmon, arrived on the scene to have a news story checked. Despite all interruptions the story was read and approved.

Art Designer Is School Speaker

Douglas Donaldson, designer and decorator, formerly instructor at Otis Art Institute and art lecturer of the University of Southern California, talked to the Normal students on "Color Appreciation and Its Relationship to Art."

The students do not appreciate color as they should in everyday life, according to Mr. Donaldson. His lecture was illustrated through the use of colored charts.

The works of art of Mr. Donaldson were purchased by the Museum of Art, Detroit; Carnegie Institute Museum, Pittsburgh, and Art Institute, Chicago.

WILDCATS GIVE VISITING SQUAD A TOUGH BATTLE

ELLENSBURG DOWNED AFTER BITTER FIGHT BY SCORE OF 6 TO 0

Cheney Normal came to Ellensburg expecting a hard fight. They got the fight and a bit more, a chance to show what fight they had, to give back. For the game Saturday, although the lone touchdown went to the visitors for a 6-0 win, showed what two determined, clean-fighting teams can do in the line of producing a good football game and a sportsmanlike showing.

Cheney's score came early in the second quarter with Sheppard, their big fullback, figuring prominently in the steady gains of yardage. It was a slow process and a tough one for Cheney, for time and again the Ellensburg eleven clamped down and set the visiting squad for a standstill on attempts through center and line bucks.

Place punts were of even length throughout the game and the Cheney team made little yardage on the run-backs from these punts for the work of the Wildcats' tackles was sure and unusually quick in getting down field.

After the one occasion when Sheppard of Cheney went over for 6 points, the Ellensburg line showed some of the scrappiest football ever seen on the field. Cheney found that charges on the line and center plunges gained comparatively little.

In the middle of the second quarter the Wildcats were off in a whirl and marched down the field in regular gains from both passes and end runs. The penalization coming as it did at the critical moment when Ellensburg was less than a yard from the visitors' goal was an unlooked for setback.

There was little fumbling on the Ellensburg team, the backfield being sure and clever at spotting the opposition's weak points. The lineup follows: Ends, Nelson and Fogarty; tackles, Johnson and Van Gesen; guards, Hinch, Miller, Hunt and Bitzen; center, Scroup; quarter, Place; halfback, Staratton; halfback, Dent; fullback, Haroldson.

Play by Play Account
Cheney won the toss and Ellensburg started game by kickoff. Place kicked off, for 50-yard distance, which Cheney returned for 15 yards. Cheney attempted criss-cross play which netted nothing. End run failed to gain, Turner being tackled in tracks by Dent. Cheney penalized 15 yards on clipping foul. Cheney punted for 50 yards and out of bounds. Set on 35-yard line, Ellensburg.

CONCERT COMPANY HERE ON THURSDAY

The Appy Concert Company of Yakima is giving a concert in the auditorium Thursday evening, November 5, at 8 o'clock.

The company consists of a group of artists who are known through the Northwest. Miss Miller who is the pianist is from Oberlin College. Mr. Rankin is the violinist and Miss Appy is a foremost cellist. Miss Fournier is a noted Lyric soprano.

The admission will be 50 and 75 cents. Normal students will be expected to use their A. S. B. tickets and sit in the reserved section.

What has become of those good resolutions we made at the beginning of the quarter to get all A grades, or at least none below B? Are we still doing work to entitle us to such grades or have we fallen down in our work? It is a customary thing for most of us to begin each quarter determined to do the very best possible work. But it is also customary for us, as a rule, to be glad by the end of the quarter if we get even a passing mark.

Right now is the natural time for the mid-quarter slump in our classes. Our lessons are getting a little more difficult and we are getting busy with school activities, true, but is not the main cause the fact that we are loafing more than necessary? We forget to keep diligently on the trail of knowledge and waste a little time here and a few moments there in doing just plain nothing. And before we know it those few moments have accumulated until they are hours and we have more work piled up ahead of us then we can possibly accomplish by the end of the quarter. We then decide that a D grade will have to be satisfactory and that if we are more than ordinarily successful in bluffing the instructor we may be fortunate enough to get a C.

Let us renew our resolutions at this time and make every effort to get B grades, anyway, if it is too late to get A's.

This is just a hint to those boys and girls who monopolize the steps and side porch after library hours at night—the place is not so deserted as it might seem. It has been said that walls have ears—well dormitory walls not only have ears, but eyes as well. So remember boys that when you are out there saying "good night" to "her" that there are occupants in the dormitory that may find it extremely amusing.

Ellensburg Normal is the smallest in numbers of any of the state supported institutions of higher learning. But it is the best. We are too prone to judge quality by quantity. A school cannot be judged by its size. It is the people who make up a school, the type of instruction, the spirit of the school that counts. In these things Ellensburg Normal excels.

The school spirit shown at the present rallies and games is quite commendable. The turnouts have been fine and everyone has shown an abundance of pep. Such spirit encourages the fellows on the team to do their best. Keep it up.

Two reports were given by Anne Johnson and Clayton Wageman on the home life in Australia.

The members of the History club are learning Indian talk from Mr. Fish.

The program committee is planning to have the next meeting a social meeting to be held at Mr. Fish's home. Each member is supposed to come dressed to represent some character in history.

Scribulus Meeting.

A meeting of the Scribulus club was held last Thursday night for the purpose of putting the initiates out of their suspense by winding up the initiation.

The following officers were elected for the present quarter:
President—Alberta Kennedy.
Vice president—Sig Fogarty.
Secretary—Ralph Jordan.

A committee was appointed by the president to investigate designs for the club pins. Those appointed were Ivan McCollom and Jeanette Sloan.

After the business meeting the members adjourned to the home of George Hanna for a social hour and refreshments. Those attending were Vanita Williams, Ralph Jordan, Jeanette Sloan, Sig Fogarty, Alberta Kennedy, Frank Stowell and Ivan McCollom.

Newman Club.

The Newman club met as usual last Sunday. The new officers were elected and plans were made for the next meeting. The club is planning on giving a dance in the near future.

Friday, Dec. 11.—Kindergarten-Primary exhibit and plans throughout the day.

Thursday, Dec. 17.—A. S. B. Christmas party in evening.

Friday, Dec. 18.—End of first quarter.

Please list events for the social calendar with Miss Howard, any report, any changes or corrections of the calendar.

Fire Drill at Kamola Hall

Soon after dinner Monday evening the clang of the fire bell was heard throughout Kamola Hall.

Before the echoes of the gong had died down girls could be seen pouring out of the doors, and climbing down the fire escapes, many of which end in a drop of about five feet. Each girl carried a towel with her, thus obeying the directions of the proctors even in case of an imaginary fire.

Although this was the first fire drill of the year and many of the girls had never had it before there was no confusion, and in less than five minutes the building was emptied.

Do You Know? "HOW TO STUDY"

The Students' Hand-Book of Practical Hints on the Technique of Effective Study

By WILLIAM ALLAN BROOKS

A GUIDE containing hundreds of practical hints and short cuts in the economy of learning, to assist students in securing MAXIMUM SCHOLASTIC RESULTS at a minimum cost of time, energy and fatigue.

ESPECIALLY RECOMMENDED for overworked students and athletes engaged in extra curriculum activities and for average and honor students who are working for high scholastic achievement.

SOME OF THE TOPICS COVERED

Scientific Shortcuts in Effective Study	The Athlete and His Studies
Preparing for Examinations	Diet During Athletic Training
Writing Good Examinations	How to Study Modern Languages
Brain and Digestion in Relation to Study	How to Study Science, Literature, etc.
How to Take Lecture and Reading Notes	Why Go to College?
Advantages and Disadvantages of Cramming	After College, What?
	Developing Concentration and Efficiency.
	etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.

WHY YOU NEED THIS GUIDE

"It is safe to say that failure to guide and direct study is the weak point in the whole educational machine. Prof. G. M. Whipple, U. of Michigan.

"The successful men in college do not seem to be very happy. Most of them, especially the athletes are overworked." Prof. H. S. Canby, Yale.

"Misdirected labor, though honest and well intentioned may lead to naught. Among the most important things for the student to learn is how to study. Without knowledge of this his labor may be largely in vain." Prof. G. F. Swain, M. I. T.

"To students who have never learnt "How to Study," work is very often a chastisement, a flagellation, and an insuperable obstacle to contentment." Prof. A. Inglis, Harvard.

"HOW TO STUDY" will show you how to avoid all misdirected effort. Get a good start and make this year a highly successful one by sending for this hand-book and guide NOW.

S. O. STAFF FINALLY GIVEN AN OFFICE

MAY RUN AN ELEVATOR TO THEIR COOP AT TOP OF AD BUILDING

At last the Student Opinion has come into its own and has an office designated for the purpose of carrying on the Student Opinion duties more effectively and more efficiently.

The staff moved into its new office, which is in the tower room of the Administration building, and took official possession Friday, October 30.

The room is furnished to meet the needs of the Student Opinion staff and although not decorated artistically at present as could be, plans are being made to have a real cozy newspaper office cleverly decorated in the school colors, crimson and black. The staff is also considering the installation of an elevator, plans of which will be perfected in the near future. If an elevator is entirely out of the question a rope with a pail attached will be suspended from the tower to the first floor to carry up the news.

Campus Scrubbed And Swept By An Army of Students

At 7:00 o'clock Friday morning a group of enthusiastic Normal students were on the campus, busily engaged in cleaning up dead leaves and rubbish. Although only a small portion of the student body turned out there were enough boys to man all the available wheelbarrows and a sufficient number of girls to rake up trash to keep them busy wheeling. Anything which looked at all burnable was dumped on the pile of boards already for the evening's bonfire.

A great deal of work was accomplished in a short time and all who participated seemed to enjoy themselves as well. A few of the wheelbarrow drivers found it quite necessary to have girls sit on top of their loads to keep the leaves from falling out.

At 7:40, those who had first period classes adjourned to Kamola hall for a well-earned breakfast and others worked on until after 8 o'clock. As a result of the morning's work the campus presents a much neater appearance than before.

Hay Wire

By A. BALER

Henry Ford is advocating a revival of the old time dances and yet his cars are largely responsible for the delightful and outlandish shakes and wiggles of the modern dance.

In ancient times it was generally an expression of religious, patriotic or military feeling but now it is an expression of almost anything.

Aesthetic dancing is a pleasant animated indoor physical exercise and helps to give grace to the ordinary movements of the body. It is also very beneficial in the development of the eyes.

Many girls who try to trip the light fantastic learned to dance at the old style barn dance and that accounts for the fact that there are so many cows on the "Bawl room floor."

Most society belles are dumb-bells and when they get a ring they toll for joy.

Girls lead a fellow to think they are going to a war dance by the way they paint—either that or on a man hunt.

Fellows wearing stiff collars to dances would feel better if they left them at home.

Those attending a formal affair and do not possess a dress suit can wear a black shirt and leave the tail out.

Music is a great factor in dancing, it keeps the dancers from being arrested.

Some dancers are so fat that a fellow needs a hay hook to get a good hold.

We've seen many a girl make a debut and wear "their coming" out gowns and we figured that if they ever slid home in those outfits they'd certainly be out.

The Hopi Indian snake dance is a pagan religious rite praying to their pagan god for water and the Charleston needs only a dancer with the delirium tremens to make it a white man's snake dance.

The St. Vitus dance is a wonderful exercise especially when it forms partnership with a couple of charlie horses.

ALUMNI DINNER IS GIVEN AT OLYMPIA

The alumni dinner, that was given in Tacoma on Thursday, October 29, had an attendance of 100.

A four-course dinner was served in the dining room of the First Methodist church, with Willis Rambo, who is now teaching in Tenino, as toastmaster. The dinner began at 6:30 but had to break up at 8 o'clock because of the W. E. A. meeting at that time.

The W. S. N. S. faculty members, who were present were Mr. Smyser, Mr. Harmon, and Mr. Fales. Mr. Smyser gave a toast to the new library. Mr. Harmon, who had charge of the arrangements for the dinner talked on student activities; while Mr. Fales spoke on the new members of the faculty.

Arrangements were made during the dinner for the reception and dinner to be given for the football team in Olympia, after the game with St. Martins College on November 14.

As everyone seemed well acquainted, the group was a very enthusiastic one, but even a bigger and better meeting is expected for next year.

gray dress gloves were taken from the Men's dressing room in the Administration building during the Hallowe'en dance. Will the finder please leave same in the business office.

Ellensburg's ball. Plunge through center netted 6 yards. Ellensburg gained 1st down on center plunge. Place next tried two passes, both incomplete. Ellensburg took time out on Haroldson who was injured. Ellensburg's 4th down, Place punted 45 yards and out of bounds. Ellensburg's time out for Dent, injured.

Cheney's ball on 15-yard line. Tried plunge through center for 10 yards. Laughbon carried ball for 10 yard gain through right tackle. Cheney's rushes were effective on Ellensburg's line. Belcher carried through center for 5 yards. Laughbon again went 4 yards around left. Hammond substituted for Jenkins, Ellensburg. Cheney worked slowly toward Ellensburg, despite the stiffening of Ellensburg's line in the emergency. Line plunge by Cheney nets 2 yards. Sheppard went through right tackle for 3 yards. Laughbon did end run for 3 yards. Miller substituted for Hinch, Ellensburg. Ball on Ellensburg's 15-yard line, approaching goal by center lunges of Cheney. Sheppard attempted end run but was tackled for 1 yard loss by Miller. Ellensburg line held on 15-yard line for 2 downs. Hallowe'en Dinner Given for Faculty

The men of the faculty and their wives were entertained at a Hallowe'en dinner at Kamola hall Tuesday evening, October 26. The men were guests of the boys in their dining room and their wives were entertained by the girls in the large dining room.

The dining room was artistically decorated. Black cats and witches ornamented the walls and the only lights came from candles and the grinning jack o'lanterns on every table. In one corner, amid corn stalks, was a brilliant orange moon.

The serving girls wore caps of black and orange, which added a picturesque touch of color in the dim light.

Tomorrow's definition today: A farmer is one who tills the soil. A Sheik is one who soils the till.
