

* Note side one appears to be damaged. Extracted the best sound quality I could get. Entire interview is unorganized with no ending.

- Migration from Mexico to Roslyn c. 1902
- Father's work activity-Colorado-Roslyn
- Gus begins in the mines c. 1916 age 17 yrs.
- How to get a job in the mines.
- Mules/Shooting the coal/How to prepare a shot.
- Mining term- squib
- Loading the cars/coming of electric mules.
- Danger from misshots
- Describes a typical mining day.
- Mining danger-No. 8 fire-gas-medical emergency-inspections.
- Nationalities in the mines.
- Pay system-Contract vs Company system (6 cars per day)
- Switch from contract system to company system c. 1936/use of the check system.
- Location and names of mines-Jonesville mines
- Types of coal.

Gus Jaderlund Index - Side 2

- Truck mines-small mines-unions
- Gus describes Roslyn c. 1916-NWI and the credit system.
- Describes mining technology-Joy loaders/fire danger/pay scale.
- Props vs roof bolts.
- Toni Bailey works in No. 9 (woman)
- Miner's recreation-Twilight League-Roslyn Eagles Drill Team-Home visits.
- Business activity.
- Miner's Hospital.
- Survival skills during strikes.
- Western miner's strike c. 1933-going through picket line-State Troopers-Actions by women on picket line.
- Ending Western miner's strike.
- Impact of the Great Depression and mining wages.
- Closing the mines in 1963.

Gus Jaderlund Index- Side 3

- * There is no closing on the interview.
 - Gus describes levels and entries.
 - Comments on prohibition era-Ronald still-dry squads.
 - Comments on WW. II
 - Comments on WW. I
 - Gus in No. 6 mines age 16 yrs-1st use of carbide lamps.
 - Mine ventilation.
 - No. 4 Shaft explosion c. 1909.
 - Mules in the mines-how to handle a mule.
- No formal ending.