

Camilla Saivetto Index Retake

Side 1

- 0-9 Intro
10-77 Arrival in Seattle/working as an immigrant for a wealthy family. Language difficulties/becoming a citizen.
78-110 How the school kids improve literacy at home
111-173 Wash machine from Sears helps bring in income. Camilla's desire to make home improvements.
174-231 JoKo's view about home improvements/Camilla buys vacant lot/move the home/Camilla's cooking skills cut costs.
232-320 Why leave Italy? Family business in Italy/WW I
Camilla works in Italian foundry.
321-385 Camilla's work activity in Seattle
386-415 Camilla's ambition to become American
416-End Camilla describes life in Roslyn.

Side 2

- Sound quality forces recorder change w/out counter
--- Intro
--- Describes trip to U.S. by steamer
--- Difficulties adjusting to Amer. life.
--- Describes trip across the U.S. Ellis Island/Chicago/Butte/ Seattle
--- Life in Seattle/Pike Place Market/Camilla's dress style vs American dress style.
--- Camilla's popularity in Roslyn
--- Joko's family in Roslyn/Mabton, Camilla gets dressing lesson.
--- Camilla gets a lesson in writing
--- Neighbors help Camilla
--- Camilla's 1st impression of Roslyn
--- Italian lodges in Roslyn-Importance of education
--- Camilla talks about family business operations in Italy--End Side 2

Side 3

- Camilla continues about life in Roslyn
--- Western Miners Strike-Prescott/Hunter-Social Security benefits reduce immigrants desire to go back to old county.

- - - Dangers in the mines--Joko's back injuries
- - - WW II-- how it affected local Italians.
- - - WW I--how it affected Camilla in Italy
- - - Why Joko stayed in the mines
- - - More on Camilla's work experiences.
- - - Joko returns to the mines after Western Miners Strike
- - - Joko quits the mines to get pension/SSI/unemployment/black lung.
- - - Affects of the mine closings
- - - African-Amer. in Roslyn. End Side 3