Canyon Lodge to Be Dedicated At A House Warming

The W. A. A. cabin in Taneum country was dedicated last Saturday afternoon as a house warming for the students of the school and some of the members of the faculty.

Know Faculty? Is New Campaign

ELLensburg NORMAL SCHOOL TEACHERS ARE WINNING HONORS.

In the past few campaigns a number of campaigns have been organized, and many of them have been very popular and it is now suggested that a campaign be organized this year.

Many of the teachers of the Ellensburg Normal School are doing valuable work in the field of writing and others are leading new movements in education. Some are taking a very active part in local fields.

Mr. Fish, head of the department of education, is one of the faculty members who is doing this work. He has a written a number of songs and stories which have appeared in the Ellensburg Normal Journal. He has written three Historical Pageants, one of which was presented at the 1923 Ellensburg Rodeo and it received much appreciation for its adaptability to the general audience.

Mr. Fish is prepared to portray the characteristics of the Indians.

Assisted by Mr. Black of North Dakota, Mr. Fish has written a book entitled, "A Brief History of North Dakota," which has been read and appreciated. The information for this book was obtained by Mr. Fish in his travels through North Dakota and his talks with the old settlers.

He has also written another book which is now in preparation.

A new campaign is to be conducted this year. Mr. Fish is chairman of the board of resolutions for grade school writing.

Junior Class To Entertain Friday

The junior class will entertain the seniors and faculty with a party in the gymnasium at the collegiate banquet on Friday evening.

Commissions, under the direction of Miss Betty Duffy, social committee, will work on the entertainment and other features.

The decoration committee is composed of Miss Jeanette Brown, Miss Margaret Hagen, Miss Janet Black and Betty Wilmarth, conduc tors and the music committee.

The entertainment committee is in charge of Arthur Thomas, chairman, Margaret Summers and Ruth Corbin. The idea is to give a real party this year.

Among the men who look forward to the entertainment with interest are David Filer, Wm. Neilsen, Mary Maguire, William Allen, George Flukey, Ethel McCarty, Charlotte Womble and Miss Helen Scott.

A special feature will be the reception committee and the music committee.

Haywire

BY A. BALER

A proposed law will regulate hay for the supply of cattle. There are many cattle owners who cannot afford to buy hay this year.

Several men were present at the School Hall Corn Shredder. One man is a young man who dances on his partner's toes.

Numerous men were present. Some of whom wore collars made of corn. There are many married people who are very interested in the activities and over-generosity of parties.

One fellow wore a gold collar and danced on the head of his partner in front which caused his Adam's building, received quite a shock.

The ball was a complete success, the only thing lacking was something mashed potatoes backed on the head of the woman who already danced miles apart.

Class is Shocked

The students having classes in the new library have been shocked by the new building. They were not prepared to have to go to class in such a building. The building was not what they expected and they were not prepared for the new surroundings.

The building is now open and the students are beginning to get used to it. They are learning to do their work in the new building and are beginning to feel at home.

We are generally inclined to think that European culture is the only culture that has ever amounted to very much. We forget the great contributions that the peoples of other continents have made to our present day civilization. Professor Joseph Hall of the University of Washington, in his lectures before the Student Body last Wednesday, brought to our attention some surprising facts concerning the early development as well as the present day culture and future possibilities of China, Asia, and Africa.

Professor Hall brought out the fact that the present differences between the European and Asiatic civilizations resulted mainly from the differences in the existing state of these races. While we feel that we are getting much more out of life than the Asiatic in his so-called primitive state, he, looking at it from his own point of view, feels that he gets much more from life than do we; that our many inventions and modern improvements make us no happier and help us to live no better.

Have we not, perhaps, a great deal to learn from the Oriental? Is it not possible that the time is not far away when we shall not only recognize past contributions of Asiatic civilization to our own culture, but will endeavor to learn from our brothers across the Pacific something of his present outlook upon life; when we will be able to incorporate into our own philosophy some of the philosophy of the Oriental scholar.

We who live in the Northwest are in a highly advantageous position to profit by this. Our Northwest is the land of the gateway of European civilization to the Orient, for they are the nearest points of contact between that portion of the globe inhabited by the white races and Australia, in which lives over half of the population of the earth.

Do your Christmas shopping early. Don't wait until vacation week to shop now and avoid the rush. Do as much of your shopping as you can here in Ellensburg and patronize those merchants who, through their excellent co-operation, make so many of our school activities possible.

"THE KING OF KINGS" TO BE PRESENTED AT METHODIST CHURCH

One of the big events of the Christmas season in the Canton Cantata, "The King of Kings," which was presented at the Methodist church on Sunday evening, December 15, at the Methodist church.

The Boys' and Girls' Glee clubs, combined with the chorus, are getting forth every effort to make this a success. Under the able direction of Miss Miller, the result promises to be a very fine one. If you have not been able to make what the building trembles and resounds with voices every evening from 7 to 8 o'clock, be not afraid, for it is only the people gathering the fruit.

Miss Miller has secured four fine orchestras, composed of professional musicians, to accompany the voices, and the use of these will also add to the beauty of the effect. These four pieces, each for the entire chorus.

The cantata. "The Promise of the King," consists of:

I. 1--Chorus. "O Jerusalem, That Bringest Good Things"
   2--Anonymous solo. "By foul debt Magnify the Lord," sung by Miss Velma Meredith.

II. The Coming of the King
   No. 1--Anonymous solo. "I am Destined to Be the Light of My Brethren," by Leonard Mlg.
   No. 2--Anonymous solo and tenor, "The World's Delight Is a woe for Many," by Miss McMillan and Mr. Portner.
   No. 3--Anonymous solo. "O Come, All Ye Faithful!"

III. The Adoration of the King
   No. 1--Crandlers' hymn. "Fair Lady Joan,"
   No. 3--Chorus. "The Dewdrops are Shimmering," sung by Miss Portner.
   No. 4--Anonymous solo. "The Rose of Sharon is flowering for Esau and Jacob,"
   No. 5--Anonymous solo. "Hallelujah!"
   No. 6--Anonymous solo. The cantata starts promptly at 8 o'clock on Tuesday evening at the Methodist church.

Everyone is invited to come.

The Boys' and Girls' Glee clubs, the Handskeriefs, and the entire chorus, regarded the introduction of a new department which should be of vital interest to all our students and should comfort many a lonely one. Miss I. M. A. Blank is wise in the ways of this world and will answer and solve your problems. So take advantage.

Address all letters to Miss I. M. A. Blank, Cell No. 12, and receive immediate attention. No names published. Here is a very interesting one.

Dear Miss I. M. A. Blank:
Like the Sultan's favorite I am one among a million here at Normal school. My problem, I know, can become important with the faculty? I have long curving eyes, I know; I anxiously await your reply.
