POPULAR STUDENT
AT NORMAL DIES

WALTER KREUZ, 19, IS TAKEN TO CENTRALIA TUESDAY FOR INTENT.

Walter Kreuz, 19, of Centralia, a student at Centralia Teachers College, was taken to St. Mary's Hospital in Centralia Monday night and died suddenly Tuesday morning.

Walter was well known on the campus as a popular member of the student body and a good student. He was a member of the junior class that would graduate next June. He resided at Elwin Hall, the men's dormitory. Walter was a graduate of the Centralia high school. He was born at Winlock, Wash. Walter's father is a farmer.

Surviving are his mother, Mrs. Annette Kreuz; two sisters, Mrs. Donald Meyer of Phoenix, Ariz., and a brother in the navy.

His body was sent to Centralia Tuesday afternoon, accompanied by B. A. Leonard, dean of men, Carl V. McGehee, school principal, and Ralph Jordan, his roommate at Elwin hall also accompanied the body.

The remaining students and faculty have not been received. Probably the body will be laid to rest in the Centralia cemetery the latter part of the week.

1,000 Mile Trip In
"Galloping Zebra"
Made By Students

NOTABLE JOURNEY AROUNG THE LOOP PROVED FULFILLING.

Six of the notable high lights of our institution spent the spring vacation, becoming members of the 1,000 mile trip to the Sound by way of Portland. The trip covered some 1,484 miles of twists and turns which required six days to negotiate.

Hershel Skibey, Beryl Johnson, Adelheid Hager, Fred Krueck and George Good were the representatives of the school selected to make the trip.

Leaving Ellensburg Friday afternoon, the students went to The Dalles, Ore., where they landed, and took time out for the noon lunch and a short rest. This was necessary after some sleepless nights in the midnight oil doing their queer paperwork. As soon as the sun went down the flight continued, and Portland was reached the next day. From Portland they journeyed northward through Reeds, Celah, Centralia, Washington, and not least, Williams, the home town of the great John Song, was visited.

Court in every town turned out to see the famous car, really only a wagon body, with added shock absorbers or ability to turn corners.

Trains proved to be the downfall of our young heroes. They were asked to visit the institution of wickedness for spending down Main Street, which was accompanied by the midnight oil, causing the midnight oil to shine through the passenger car, and the big journey was ended. The trip started out, but not least, Williams, the home town of the great John Song, was visited.

Visit in Yakima

Mrs. Beck and two small daughters, aged four and three, arrived in Yakima at the home of Mrs. Beck's parents.

A young college graduate has learned one important lesson in the stern battle of life when his little child was left, "Dad, I can't" pin, even if conspicuously displayed, isn't going to get him anywhere. (Ohio State Journal).

NORMAL FACULTY ARE ON PROGRAM

WILL TAKE PART IN TEACHERS' CONFERENCE AT SPOKANE NEXT WEEK

Several members of the faculty are on the program for the Inland Empire Teachers' association which meets April 7, 8 and 9 in Spokane.

President Black is to be in charge of the health education section for which he has arranged a program. Miss Mary A. Groce is secretary of the psychology section and will speak on the "Psychological Aspects of Personality Study." Mr. Fals will speak on "Modern Tendancies in Industrial Arts." An exhibit will be sent from the art department.

Faculty members who plan to attend are: President Black, Miss Groce, Mr. Sparks, Mr. and Mrs. Gray, Mr. Fals and Mr. Stephens.

Enjoy a Picnic In Canyon Sneak Day

A group of faculty members and students enjoyed "Sneak Day" Friday afternoon by motoring down the river and eating a delectable picnic dinner at a sunny spot.

Baseball, quizzing and hiking were the chief entertainments of the afternoon. Those who made the trip were Mr. and Mrs. Quigley, Mr. and Mrs. Rock, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Dalziel and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Stephens, and their families, and Alberta Parks and Florence Boushaut.

Later in the evening the party went to the Stephens home and played cards.

Guests from Tacoma

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Gray entertained Mrs. Dr. Fredericks and small son of Tacoma. Dr. Fredericks and Mr. and Mrs. Gray were accompanied at Chester Normal. Mrs. Gray's father, Mr. Squibbs of Kent, visited with them over the week end.

Whitman Program To Be Excellent

TO BE GIVEN NEXT FRIDAY IN AUDITORIUM BY MIXED CHORUS

The program for the Whitman Glee club which will be here next Friday will be one of the best put on in the Northwest. Howard E. Pratt, director of the organization, feels that the choral sectionalists who have failed to the most interesting of any that has hitherto been chosen.

One of the most interesting choral numbers is "Hey, Come Laughing," a madrigal by May Strong, which was the work of Miss Edith Frame, an American composer for the past few years.

The dance accompaniment by Thomas Shephard and Sam Whitehouse to the club's a cappella "Hey, Hey" is an interesting and surprising feature.

The glee club is made up of students and faculty members of all ages and seven sections. They are necessary to the making of the program.

The orchestra, which is directed by Mrs. Ethel Duggan, consists of a violin, cello, flute, clarinet, cornet, trombone, and piano.

Admission to the concert will be free to all not holding A. B. passes.

Mock Marriage Features Party

An informal party was given on Tuesday evening by Laura Mitty at the home of Mrs. Noble Pichter. A mock marriage was the main feature of the party, and Mrs. Pichter played the part of the sweet and gentle wife. Mr. Pichter played the part of the absent, and when he returned, the party continued. The music was provided by the residents of the house, and the party was a great success. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Pichter, Mr. and Mrs. Scribner, Mr. and Mrs. Black, Mr. and Mrs. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Black, Mr. and Mrs. Martin, and Mr. and Mrs. Johnson.

Senior Sneak Day for this year is now a thing of the past. We have had a fine time and enjoyed a day of relaxation from our studies.

But there are two significant things about Senior Sneak Day. In the first place, it is not entirely a thing of the past, and, in the second place, it meant much more to all concerned than simply a day’s good time.

The events of last Friday, and of the previous night, will live in the memories of all of us for years. And we should never forget the lessons Mr. Leonard has attempted to teach us.

Gather around closely, students, and we will tell you the story of how one young man of this institution acquired his clothes. You have all heard of the old saying regarding the matter of some men achieving greatness while others have it thrust upon them. This is true of this young man’s greatness. It grew out of necessity.

We have class presidents aplenty and many similar officers of this institution. We have all heard of the saying regarding the matter of some men achieving greatness while others have it thrust upon them. This is true of this young man’s greatness. It grew out of necessity.

If it’s impossible for you to avail yourself of this opportunity now, there are others you can use soon for similar occasions. We well know that you, who have already had the opportunity to meet this distinguished gentleman, would be the first to say as much.

For engaging purposes I must tell you that there was some way whereby we could not make it possible for you to realize this ambition. But, he’s such a lucky fellow that he never eats breakfast, never sees advertisements or notices about the campus before 8:30. And we certainly do wish that there was more of you where we do not have to make it possible for you to realize this ambition.

Now remember this when you do see him and are sure you have the right person, introduce yourself in the most polite way and put him on the back and encourage him in this work of long sleepers. He is rather good looking, girls, he even admits he’s the best looking man in school. It’s perhaps worthwhile to locate him.

More Records To Be Shattered When Normal School Teams Meet On May 22

Track is a comparatively new sport among the normal schools of this state but is quickly coming to a position of importance in the athletic world. Its impertative value of the training received is unquestionable, individual excellence and demands that track receive support and cooperation of all admirers of good, clean and wholesome athletics.

Only three times have the normal schools of the state met in track.

ESWIN HALL IN QUARANTINE

Not that the boys are disinterested, but they got several prises for being quick, and it seems that their lungs have to be wounded before they equitably picking up something. Why is it that we are the rest of the things. Learned

Daylight came but no one saw it. The orphanage was before any one was up. It was some time before we could get down stairs to the kitchen and the living room; and when we got there it was very dark. Evasive out his hand on a table that was hanging to his coffee cup. How About This!

Ivan McNeil, Evanter, Richel, Allen Potter and Horliss Thomson left soon for the Diamond TIts. The Yanks went out to see the Uptntiana Falls, three miles away. They searched for the title unsuccessful.

They arrived in Ellenburg about 6 o’clock Friday evening af- ter a long walk over the hills. All the seniors wonder at the fact that these few individuals searched diligently from dawn until dark for the running tumults of the jungling, foaming, dashi Uptoniana Falls.

Dayton is the Hero

Mr. R. L. Nunn, a senior at Dayton, Glover played the part of the hero very well, while on their walks over the hills.

Three couples who claimed the title for the biggest distances the longest distances are Henry Himley and Dorothy Cape, Paul Nelson and Mildred Womier and Dominick Reape and Bel- le Whitehouse.

About 12:30 14 seniors were seen standing in line for their lunch, which consisted of meat and venison pie, beans, baked beans, and coffee. A group of 26 seniors, who had been up in the early part of the day in a truck, were engrossed looking on.

GOODELINENE HAS BROKEN ARM

White horseback riding on Sunday afternoon Margaret Sem- mms sustained a very painful compound fracture of her right arm. At the time of the accident was with her brother, John, and two other men on horseback. The girls were returning from their ride on the old Yaktina and when the horses broke into a gal- loping race, she was thrown from her pony. The arm was broken in two places and fell on her right arm.

We Question This

Just before noon time Dick Kru- bow and Bob Madronic returned from a half-hour hike. They claimed they had reached Uptoniana Falls. Mr. R. L. Nunn says they should get the title for swift hiking. Six times in a half-hour is very good for hiking.

The train bringing the seniors, who spent a day that will always be remembered, arrived in Ellenburg at 3:45 p.m.
