The Whitman College Glee club gave an enjoyable concert in the Normal auditorium on Saturday, April 2 to a large audience. The songs were sung by both men and women. They presented a varied program including glee club numbers, a cuaata, orchestra pieces, program dances, readings and solos.

Although the program was largely classical, it lent a collegiate atmosphere with a charleston and a clever comic dance. Readings given by Isabel Shanahan were applauded by the audience. Theorchestra included women. They presented a varied program on the music department's stage.

The MacDowell dance, also made a good impression. Among the most promising candidates are:

- Mrs. Marshall, trombone, bass, violin, and piano, gave two delightful numbers, and the piano solo which was enjoyed by all.
- Howard Barton-Eliensburg, played a cello solo, and concertmaster of the club on their tour.

Numerous former members of the glee club were at a dance at the Barn Hall which was the first event of its kind since the recent reunion. The Barn Hall was again filled, Reunion was enjoyed until 11:30 and punch was served throughout the evening.

There are 87 students graduated or left school during the first quarter.

STUDENTS LII

Miss Vera Burks and Miss Margaret Jones were chosen to the library several days ago. Miss Margaret Brown, who has been in the information department of the W. S. N. S. U. since its organization, has been transferred to the Ellensburg general hospital last Sunday night. She underwent an operation Monday morning and is getting along nicely.

Lassies Turn to Babe Ruth's Sport

Sturdily and vivacious leaders of the W. S. S. U. insist upon expenditure of their time in the best possible health building sports. Brain and brown are being developed by the means of which Babe Ruth became internationally famous, namely, baseball. The most shining leaders of the girls hope to win their renown in this line. Miss Brown, Miss Sohl, and Miss Jeffries are playing with the skill of the batter or the better of the curve ball. Hostesses are always wiser for everyone concerned if the baseball against them is not exciting even with the absence of rooting.

INTERESTING NEW BOOKS RECEIVED AT THE LIBRARY

The library has received several very interesting books in the last few days. The most important of these books is 'The Best of the World's Literature' by John A. Adams, in the course of which important books in literature are listed. It is very well illustrated.

- "The Village Blacksmith," a fantastical story, was one of the best stories on the program. The MacDowell dance, also made a good impression. Among the most promising candidates are:

- Mrs. Marshall, trombone, bass, violin, and piano, gave two delightful numbers, and the piano solo which was enjoyed by all.
- Howard Barton-Eliensburg, played a cello solo, and concertmaster of the club on their tour.

NUMERAL REGISTRATION IS BEING OBTAINED

The first of the three series of lectures was given by Professor Stieglitz, and the second by Professor Steiner. Professor Stieglitz lectured on the social and educational aspects of the day. The third lecture was given by Professor Steiner on the subject of "The Early History of the World's Literature." The reading was given by Miss Davidson, who was accompanied by a violin solo by Mrs. Dugan, and a solo by Mr. Dugan. The reading was very well received, and the audience was highly impressed with the performance.

The pictures have been mounted side by side and will be on display in the Training School. These pictures in color on canvas will be a great improvement.

As another feature of the clean-up campaign a number of the pupils are preparing talks on this subject to be given at the Chamber of Commerce and various other organizations in town.

GOOD REPORTS ON NORMAL GRADUATES

The registrar has received this week from Washington State college at Pullman reports for the first semester of the following students, who are enrolled in the Normal department of the college: Krevlin Barrett, Eleanor McFarland, Gracey McColgan, Blanche O'Neill, Harold Sloan, and Vesta White and Pauline Philpott. These reports indicate that the students have been working well.

The registrar has also received a letter from the American Book Company, indicating that the library is in need of a number of new books. The library is cooperating with the American Book Company in ordering the new books and book divisions.

PROOF READER'S REVIEWS

Mr. Fish has received word from the American Book Co. of the expected arrival of the following books: "History of North Dakota" and "North Dakota in America." The American Book Co. is handling the sale of these books.

How Kamola Hal Received Its Name Is An Interesting Story

The shipment of cuts from the valley of Yakima, particularly the Indian history, became the subject of a lecture on Monday night, April 5, by Miss Bounsall, who was a guest of the Kappa chapter of the Elks club.

It seems that whenever this column is used, it runs someone down. Well, you need running down, and that applies to almost everyone in school. Thinking of the sophomore class election only makes the conclusion all the more obvious.

People were being held and the date and time strictly specified. You know how many are there in the sophomore class, but how many people voted? You will probably be surprised to know that there were two legitimate votes cast for president.

This quarter before graduation and the president of the graduating classes held his classes with care, and you might know that the final count showed a majority of one, so don't kick about the choices if you don't like it.

Why don't you wake up and come out of the other end and do something, rather than just sit around and kick like the old Harry when things are not to your liking. Don't consider this as an advertisement for monkey glands but a fervent prayer that the student body as a whole will wake up and do something.

Classmen Act As Pallbearers

Last Bites for Walter Kruee are Held Tuesday, April 6, in Centralia.

Funeral services were held for Walter Knue on Tuesday morning, April 6, in Centralia. The services were held at the Skifflin funeral home in Centralia.

The funeral was postponed until Tuesday because of the absence of the brother, who is in the navy, and who has returned from his station in Panama.

Mamie Caten, Ralph Jordan, Chary Bingham, Stanly Bagnaska and two of Walter's high school classmates acted as pallbearers.

Chances worked 12 years on the Chinese of tributes.
