Military Training
In College Favor

In a statement concerning com- munity military training, President W. W. Campbell of the University of California said: "The compul- sory feature of military training in the University of California needs no apology or defense. The stu- dent who may be called upon to defend his country should know something about the ways and means of defense."—Intercollegiate World.

SAVE FLORAS

Up to school we rush so fast.
Every car, on foot, we pass.
Trip up stairs to Kamilla Hall.
And there we decorate the walls.
Sit in chair, all eve long.
What time is it? We can dance.
You girls can have fun.
Plastic bags, of course.
Columbus did, and did discover.
That there was more besides bull
and bear.
Please, if not for our sake,
Come too and awake.
We must not let the class
be passed.

The Wilent's Whiskers was pub­ lished last week and all the scandal­ ous news of the last issues, which was sold in October, was daily recorded in its yellowish, gossip sheets.

Everything from murders to the latest installment in the Adminis­ tration building, a luxuriously equipped elevator, was carefully de­ scribed.

The Cat's Whiskers is published by the Sherlock club, the honor­ ary journalism club of W. S. N. S. Much credit is due to the editors and the staff, which is an officer: Caty Moos, Dick Korkow; Asisti­ ant Meet, Vanita Williams; Kitt­ en's Mittens, Betty Debuff, Glenn McNeil; Stanley Baglayski, David Mason, H. P. Poytary, Ann Johnson, Pauline Johnson, Ivan McCollum and Rolf Waddell; Kitt's Mittens, Mr. Harmon.

On Campus the yellow sheet was sold at 5 cents a copy.

Keep Young

By E. L. Tory, secretary, for the sake of the faculty members, the following distribution of points:

1. President, Bernice Taylor and Ruth Naught, recording secretary, Glad­ y Holstrom and Martha Reiter; correspond­ ing secretary, Martha Bar­ ris and Frances March; historian, Bernice Spivey and Rose Manahan.

The election will be held soon.

The way to keep young is to dance, squeal and dance, Arthur M. T. Nicholls, of Oak­ land, Calif., who is 77 years old and squeal village in Japan is "easy" to the accepted prohibition scene of the world. Few young women resi­ dents, by refusing definitely to marry any young man who has not taken the pledges, are declared to be responsible.

The members of the Young Woman’s Association of Takase noticed that an unusual quantity of sake, the national Japanese drink was being consumed by the young women. They organized and voted unanimously to have nothing to do with any youth who drank sake.
